

You Can't Afford To Have Gray Hair

YOUTHFUL APPEARANCE TOO GREAT AN ASSET TO LOSE

"A woman is as old as she looks" - and nothing will make her look old so surely or so quickly as gray hair.

It is possible for any woman to prevent her hair turning gray or to restore her gray hair to all its former beauty.

Hay's Hair Health will do it. It is not a dye. It accomplishes its results quickly, surely, easily and at the same time stimulates and invigorates the scalp and hair roots. It removes dandruff.

We are sure enough of its results to say that we will refund your money if it fails after a fair trial.

An Attractive Investment

Which promises to pay large dividends in 1914.

Investors are invited to investigate the claims of The Thoroughbred Silver Black Foxes Ltd., as a likely dividend payer for 1914.

The foxes are being kept in their old ranch at Riverside Farm, Alberton, where they breed and raised 14 pups last season.

The cost of ranching will be about the lowest on record, viz.: 5 per cent of the increase of foxes.

The six pairs of foxes are put in to the public at $140,000 of which about $120,000 is already subscribed for and the balance is now offered at $100 per share.

This design (7820) would be unusual effective made up in a brown and white check with trimming bands, collar and cuffs of plain white voile.

Practical Fashion Hints

By Alice Gibson

A neat little one-piece house dress is shown in 7820. It is a suitable design for gingham, madras, percale, a cotton voile or crepe.

Checked cotton voile is one of the most practical fabrics for a dress of this sort. It ranges in width from 38 to 40 inches and in price from about 20 to 30 cents a yard.

The skirt is a three-piece model with a slight fullness in the back. This dress may be made in size 36 with 5 1/2 yards of 36 inch material.

This is a Perfect Pattern. Be sure to state right size, measuring over the fullest part of the bust for dimensions.

It may be obtained by filling out the coupon and enclosing 15 cents in stamps or coin to the Pattern Department of this paper.

MADE STRONG AND WELL BY VINOL

When we tell you that Vinol is the best remedy in our whole stock for making weak, puny, ailing children strong, rosy and racy we are only telling you what has been proved by hundreds of mothers.

"I'm afraid, George," said his fiancée, "that you are going from bad to worse."

"Quite a coincidence," muttered George. "That's what Clara said when I threw her over for you."

"Hundreds of farmers scattered over Prince Edward Island patronize our Free Veterinary Bureau. The clerks in charge of this department know the causes, treatments and cures of the different diseases that attack horses and cattle and in some cases will put up individual prescriptions for special cases.

IN MEMORIAM

CAPT. JEROME GULLANT

Death, always impartial to humanity has reaped another victim in the person of Capt. Jerome Gullant, of North Rustico. The deceased had been ailing for years, and slowly losing health until a few weeks ago when indications of some serious symptoms began to show themselves and from that time he rapidly failed until the end.

Child Almost Strangled

You never know what minute a child can develop a bad cold or be seized by croup. For this reason it takes a great burden off every mother's mind to have at hand Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine.

Mrs. E. W. Silver, South Milford, Annapolis county, N. S., writes: "I have used Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine for my little boy with most satisfactory results. His throat would fill up with phlegm so bad that he could scarcely make a sound, and I thought he would surely strangle. He grew worse, and had frequently had attacks, so I began using Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. Scarcely half a bottle was used when the strangling ceased. This medicine had a wonderfully soothing effect, and when he had taken two bottles I could not tell that he had any throat trouble. We have also used Dr. Chase's Ointment with equally good results. It is a grand medicine for salt rheum."

These are imitations, but the genuine Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine bears the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., the famous Receipt Book author.

LOVE AND SERVICE

A spirit of loving service should fill the heart of every Christian. Those to whom we give kindness and love will return the same with fidelity and service in like spirit. We are usually paid in returns of our own gifts. Love invites its own response; service inspires to service; and the memory of a kindness done may prove to us a clew to our own defense in time of need. It may be that our neighbor is in need; it may be from him, how to gain by him. How lonely, then, must that be who shut up in thy poverty stricken room, with the bare walls of thy selfishness and the hard couch of thy unsatisfaction.—George Macdonald.

A COINCIDENCE

"I'm afraid, George," said his fiancée, "that you are going from bad to worse."

"Quite a coincidence," muttered George. "That's what Clara said when I threw her over for you."

If a cold develops suddenly and there are no cough drops to be had immediately, place a spoonful of sugar on the tongue and allow it to dissolve slowly.
