EARNEST and enthusiastic meetings were held in Kindergarten Hall yesterday afternoon and evening at 4 and 8 respectively. The meetings were under the auspices of the Christian Missionary Alliance which has its headquarters in New York. The representatives of the Alliance are Revs. G. P. Fisher and Dr. Le Lacheur, each of whom occupied one of the city pulpits yesterday morning. Dr. Le Lacheur is a native of Murray Harbor and left the Island 40 years ago. He represents China in the great work of missions and his discourse in the evening dealt with the many hardships and discouragements which fall to the lot of those who go to the dark places of the earth to tell the Gospel story. All were sorry when the striking of 10 o'clock made it necessary to bring the meeting to a close.

THE GUARDIAN is in receipt from Mr. W. H. Croskill, Official Court Stenographer and Legislature Librarian a copy of a book entitled "Prince Edward Island; garden province of Canada." The book is issued by the Provincial Government, and is one of the best works of its kind that we have seen. The illustration of Queen Square Gardens is particularly good while the many other views of Island scenery are certainly above the average. THE GUARDIAN reproduces an article on the "Indians of P. E. I." in another column of this issue. The printing is the work of Messrs. Murley & Garum and is executed in their usual up-to-date manner.
