Finds Prophecy Pays More Than Brick-laying

BERLIN, April 8.—Napoleon and Martin Luther are the two spirits which Johannes Weiss, Senberg, better known as "Prophet John," pretends to speak daily in Berlin. Senberg recently created considerable rumpus by holding seances in school buildings in which children claimed to have heard Napoleon speaking very clearly, and repeated the conversations. Newspapers are denouncing school authorities for permitting public buildings to be used for spiritualistic seances, but many of them are humorous in their attitude and declare the medium is really a prophet, in that he foresees the hard times which were coming and abandoned his work as a mason to take up a more remunerative calling.

Miller's Worm Powders destroy worms without any inconvenience to the child, and so effectually that they pass from the body unperceived. They thoroughly cleanse the stomach and bowels and leave them in a condition not favorable to worms, and there will be no revival of the pests.

Chinese Inspiration in a Flannel Dress

The flannel frock remains at the height of fashion. We see models in the darker tones for street wear and in the lighter shades for Summer resort wear.

This youthful frock above is of flannel in bright buttercup yellow. It follows the bettish mode, and adds touches of gaiety in braid which combine several bright hues. The neckline is of Chinese inspiration. Flat bands of braid mark the sides, while inset pleats at either side give ample width for walking.

America to Stock English Waters

(United Press.)

LONDON, April 8.—Thousands of American game fish will be imported into England to fill the depleted streams and add to the limited variety which now make up the angler's bag, if the plans of several angling clubs are carried out. The fact that their membership has gradually fallen off and there has been little interest in angling caused many of the clubs to look about for the reason for this very un-English interest in the home of angling.
