Trading Hesitant On Montreal Mart

MONTREAL, Oct. 21—(CP)—Trading was along hesitant lines today on the stock exchange and curb market. Losses had a narrow lead over gains but a large quota of the list boarded was unchanged. Turnover was light.

Papers, which were down in the indices at noon finished higher, due to strength displayed by a number of popular issues in late deals. Higher were Price, which moved up 2 International, Abitibi Preferred, and the St. Lawrence group. Consolidated was erratic but finished even and Abitibi Common and B. C. Forest wiped out losses. Off were Donnacona, Brown M. and O. Eddy and Powell.

Industrials were weaker on balance. Off were Stelco, Massey, Cockerill, Tar, Marconi, R. Mitchell, Asbestos and Nuclear. Up were Cosco, following a display of early weakness. National Steel Car and O. Sugar, industries delisted a decrease. Pennmans and Central Consolidated was erratic but finished even and Abitibi Common and B. C. Forest wiped out losses. Off were Donnacona, Brown M. and O. Eddy and Powell.
