The Way to Tell a Good HARNESS

Every manufactured product that is worth it, is marked by the maker with his trade-mark. Harness is no exception. To be certain you get BIG VALUE and get a set you can DEPEND UPON, get the famous TREES HARNESS, made all over Canada as IMPERIAL BRAND, and trade-marked with the famous TREES in the Horsehoe. Watch for this trademark in buying and always ASK for IMPERIAL BRAND HARNESS. We prefer to have you buy it from your dealer but, if he hasn't it, write direct to us. Prices range as low as $22 a set, single, complete, and $39 a set for team, with-out collars. Harness cheaper than this is not safe to buy. Our cheapest harness is SOLID VALUE and in its class is by far the best for the price. Our Baggy Special at $28 is one we strongly recommend for strength, good looks and long service. We have a stock of everything in the harness line and can supply you promptly. It only costs 3 cents to write us and find out all you want to know.

RETREAT ON BIG FRONT

German Defences Are Now Going to Pieces.

Magnificent Gains Have Been Made by Franco-American Armies in the Great Champagne Smash—Troops Under Leadership of Gouraud, Mangin, Berthelot and Pershing Score Victories.

PARIS, Oct. 7.—A magnificent result has been achieved by Gouraud's army—the enemy have evacuated Morcovillers massif and Fort Brimont. Thus one of the strongest positions of the whole fighting, the possible menace to Gouraud's flank, has been removed and his whole line brought level.

French troops have smashed through the German positions in the Champagne over a wide front. They have crossed the Aisne Canal and have reached the outskirts of Agulcourt and are approaching Amennancourt-le-Petit, eight miles north of Rheims.

Farther east the French are advancing on a line north of the towns of Fumacelle, Lavannes and Epoye, and have captured Faerberger on the Sulpice river.

As a result of the various victories of the French-American forces a general foe retirement toward the Sulpice and Arnes rivers has been made on a front of twenty-eight miles. The Germans have abandoned strongly-fortified positions held for four years.

Could there be a more eloquent tribute to the success of Foch's system of manoeuvre? While the American victory has carried their line east of the Argonne almost to the eastern end of the Grand-Pre delle, where they will soon be able to join hands with Gouraud's men and clear the forest below of boches, the Franco-American attacks in the eastern Champagne are steadily gaining ground.

The French have consolidated the occupation of Autry Station, which had already been taken and lost in a counter-attack. Farther west Berthelot's army, which has crossed the line of the Aisne Canal due north of Rheims, is stabbing hard at the enemy retreating from the centre of the great salient. On Berthelot's left Mangin also is gaining ground, despite a heavy fire of gas and high explosives.

Beyond him Debency's troops made a brilliant local attack Saturday night above St. Quentin and carried the heights southeast of Charbonvert, taking 450 prisoners. Up to Friday night the Franco-Americans had taken over 3,000 prisoners and nearly 40 guns.

Fires observed in the region of Laon may be a significant indication of the effect of the combined efforts of the French forces from west and south against the corner-stone of the German positions around St. Gobain Forest.

Throughout the front the defence is being strained to the breaking point. Captured German orders illustrate the handicaps under which the enemy is laboring. One refers to the shortage of horses for artillery, and directs local commanders to utilize for batteries horses from the transport service, even at the risk of interfering with the latter's efficiency. Another refers to the jamming of machine guns due to substitution of iron for copper cartridge cases and the inferior quality of "ersatz" grease, wherewith the guns are lubricated. A third insists on the absolute necessity of a better liaison between the artillery and infantry, to avoid cases where the artillery has been too short—that is, fell upon its own trenches—throughout the whole day, despite the remonstrances of our infantry.

Two others contain instructions for special measures against tanks and artificial fogs, thus proving their efficiency in the recent fighting. The most numerous of all are instructions in the most stringent terms to hold on to every foot of ground and maintain the morale of the soldiers by every means possible. Elaborate "schools of patriotic instruction" have been installed in every German army, with eloquent spellbinders from the universities and other branches of civil life appointed to galvanize the waning spirit of the troops. In short, everything denotes that the German leaders realize the imminence of collapse and are striving vainly to avert it.

Dead 50, Wounded 100.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Danger of further serious explosions at the munitions plant of T. A. Gillespie & Co. at Morgan, N.J., was considered remote to-day. After a morning rain aided the firemen fighting the flames, which have been burning since Friday night, and it was thought that only the explosion of a stray shell would ignite the great quantities of T.N.T. stored in the vicinity. There seemed no reason to increase the unofficial estimate of 50 persons dead and 150 injured.

Alsace Retreat Prepared. GENEVA, Oct. 7.—Forty villages in Alsace-Lorraine, from Basel to Colmar, have been evacuated by the civil population, according to Democratic.

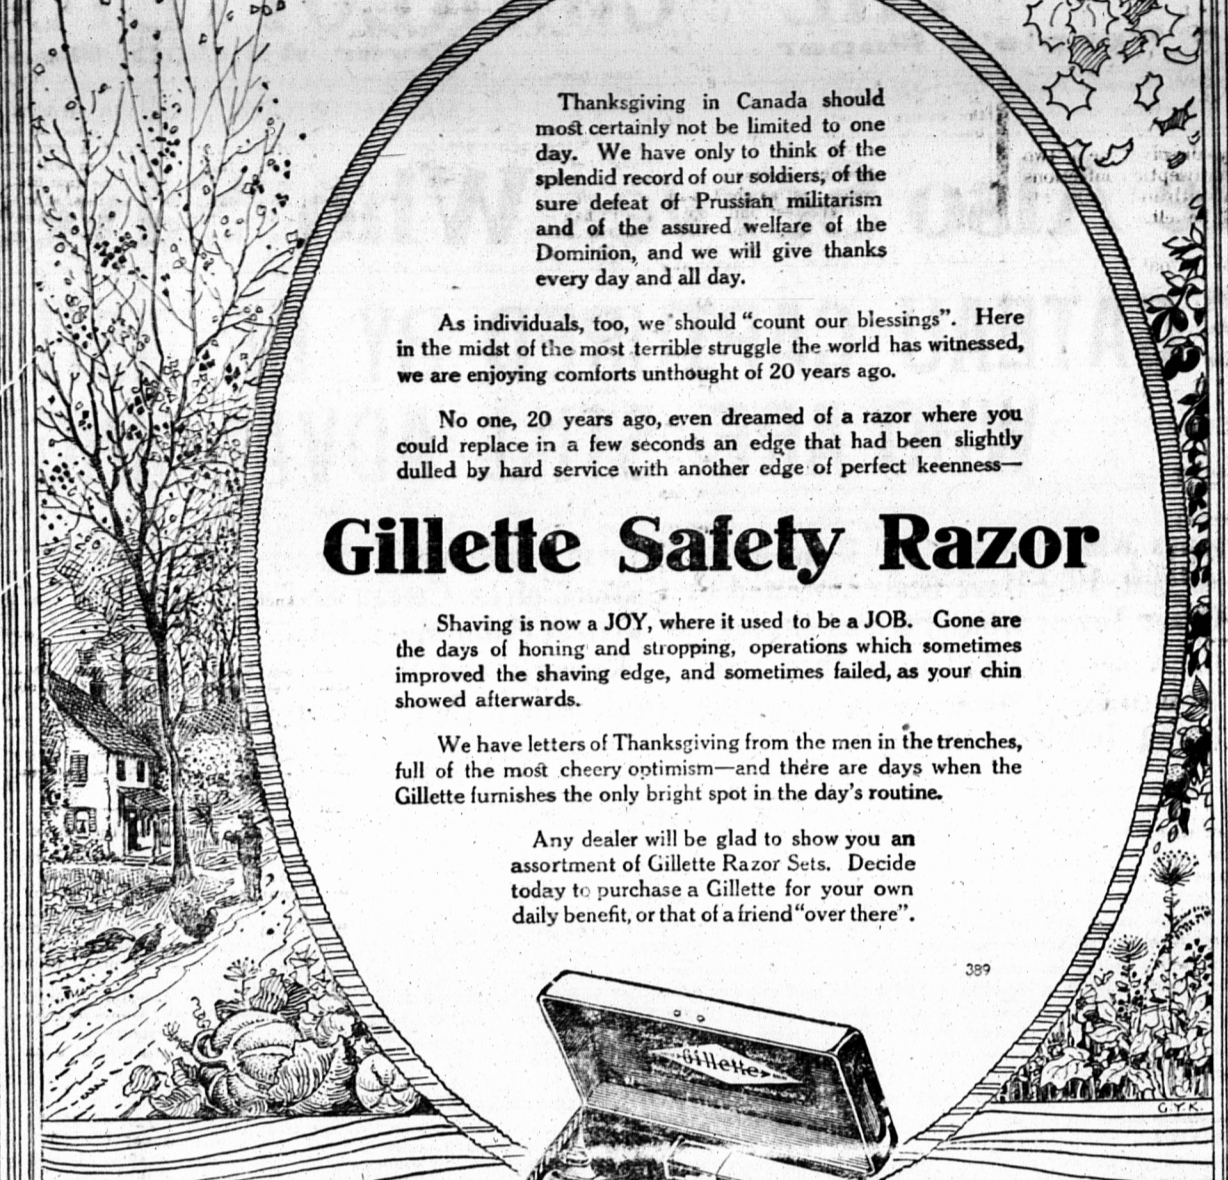

The Germans, adds the newspaper, have now ordered the inhabitants of Mulhausen, Altkirch, and other smaller towns to prepare to leave immediately.

Broke Altitude Record. NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Capt. R. W. Schroeder's world record-breaking altitude flight at Wilbur Wright Field, near Dayton, Ohio, Sept. 18, was certified at 28,900 feet in a statement by the Aero Club of America. The previous world's record, made in 1913 by G. Legagneux in France, was 20,258.

Freeman Smith, St. Thomas, was fined $50 for permitting gambling in his apartment.

GIVE THANKS!

Thanksgiving in Canada should most certainly not be limited to one day. We have only to think of the splendid record of our soldiers; of the sure defeat of Prussian militarism and of the assured welfare of the Dominion, and we will give thanks every day and all day.

As individuals, too, we should "count our blessings". Here in the midst of the most terrible struggle the world has witnessed, we are enjoying comforts unthought of 20 years ago.

No one, 20 years ago, even dreamed of a razor where you could replace in a few seconds an edge that had been slightly dulled by hard service with another edge of perfect keenness—

Gillette Safety Razor

Shaving is now a JOY, where it used to be a JOB. Gone are the days of honing and stropping, operations which sometimes improved the shaving edge, and sometimes failed, as your chin showed afterwards.

We have letters of Thanksgiving from the men in the trenches, full of the most cheery optimism—and there are days when the Gillette furnishes the only bright spot in the day's routine.

Any dealer will be glad to show you an assortment of Gillette Razor Sets. Decide today to purchase a Gillette for your own daily benefit, or that of a friend "over there".

The Price is Still Five Dollars
