LETTER OF CONDOLENCE

Mr. Philip Beer and family, Hampton, have received the following letters of condolence:— The members of Lorne L. O. L. desire to extend to you our deep sympathy in the death of your beloved son Ira. He will be greatly missed in our lodge room where his genial disposition and courtesy made him a favorite with all. He was an enthusiastic and devoted member of the order and we realize that we have lost a true brother. Knowing that the vacancy in your home is one that cannot be filled you have the full assurance that he has gone to that Happy Home to be forever with the Lord in whom he placed his trust. That you may receive the divine consolation so comforting to those who mourn the loss of a near and dear one is the sincere wish of the brethren. Signed on behalf of Lorne L. O. L. CHESTER E. SHAW ERNEST HOLM

Hampton, P. E. I., Nov. 24, 1919 Dear Mrs. Beer:—We wish to convey to you our sincere sympathy in your recent sad bereavement by the death of your loved son Ira. Human sympathy and strength are weak but we commend you to the One who is our strength and our salvation, whose love and strength faileth never. God in his wisdom has seen fit to call your dear son to be with him and what is our loss is his gain. We have the blessed assurance that he trusted and served Jesus during life and has gone to be with Him. We miss him, but you miss him, oh so much that sometimes the burden feels heavier than you can bear but just lean upon Jesus. He'll help you along and brighten your pathway with many a song. Your dear one has just gone home to join our loved ones already there and we look forward with joy to our re-union with those loved ones on the happy golden shore where there shall be no more parting and tears for God shall wipe all tears from our eyes. In loving sympathy from your sisters in Christ. Signed on behalf of the members of the W. M. A. Society of Hampton Presbyterian Church. MRS. W. A. McQUARRIE

Here's the Secret of Facial Beauty

No Matter How Disfigured With Pimples, Blisters, Blackheads or Muddiness The Use of Stuart's Calcium Wafers Works Wonders

FAREWELL GATHERING.—On Monday evening, December eighth, the residents of Whim Road and vicinity assembled at the home of Mr. Angus McBeth to bid farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Campbell, who are leaving shortly to join their family in Boston. The happy gathering was called to order by Mr. John N. Macdonald who acted as chairman and read the following address:—To Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Campbell, Whim Road: Dear Friends and Neighbors:—We assemble tonight with mixed feelings of pleasure and regret as we recall the record of past years. Your associations have endeared you to us, not only by your infinite acts of kindness but by the true spirit of neighbourliness which your life amongst us has expressed, and it is with genuine pleasure that we wish you well in your future home. The fact of such pleasant memories endeared in our minds makes it hard to say farewell, and on behalf of your friends and neighbors we ask you to accept those tokens of our usual oratorical style, paid fitting tribute to Mr. Campbell and the residents of the old Whim Road where he once lived, and his pleasing speech was heartily applauded by his old neighbors. Mr. S. S. Hessian was then called upon, and in a few well chosen words, expressed his pleasure at being present at such an enjoyable gathering, and paid a high tribute to Mr. and Mrs. Campbell and their neighbors. After the speech making the guests were served with a sumptuous dinner served by Mrs. McBeth and her neighbors.

A FAREWELL RECEPTION

On the evening of December 2nd, a number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Fidel Arsenault, assembled at the parochial House, Lion River to tender them a farewell reception. Mr. and Mrs. Arsenault have left Rev. Father Gaudet whom they served faithfully and well for a number of years, to reside on their farm which has been recently purchased in Tiglish. The meeting was called to order and Mr. Anthony Doiron was elected chairman. The address was then read by Mr. Zachariah Buote, teacher. The following is a translation of the address: To Mr. and Mrs. Fidel Arsenault It is with a heart filled with sadness that we, your friends, are assembled here this evening, to express to you the regret that we feel, at the thought of your departure from among us. It is with an inexpressible pain, that we have heard that your intention was to leave this parish to reside into another part of the province. We could not let this event pass unnoticed, without disregarding the affection, the esteem the respect and the high consideration which we all owe you. You have been both of you, model parishioners, zealous and charitable. Every time that we have crossed the threshold of your door, we have always been received with that cordiality, with that smile of benevolence, which has implanted in our hearts that mark of esteem which will never be obliterated, that mark, which will always remain in us, as a souvenir of your sojourn among us. Having come as a stranger, you have known how to attract us to you, by your ability, your benevolence and your smile always so gay, as friends who will always remain your sincere friends. I have a word to you personally Mr. Arsenault, as member of our Acadian and Mutual Association. You have always shown yourself an interested member, by assisting regularly the different meetings and promptly paying the premium required, which have made of you an active member, a member that many others would do well to imitate. The separation will be an irreparable loss to our branch but it will be for the benefit and advantage of another. When it will be your intention to visit us, rest assured that the members of St. Ann's Hope River, will always receive you with open arms. The wishes that we formulate on this occasion, is that Divine Providence will give you many years of a happy and prosperous life, and that joy the most perfect that we can have in this world, will be the gift of your declining years. In terminating we ask you to accept this token, as a testimony of our affection, our esteem and our respect. At the close of the address, Mr. and Mrs. Arsenault were each presented with a purse. Mr. Arsenault, in well chosen words thanked his friends for the very complimentary address which was read to himself and Mrs. Arsenault. Speeches were then delivered by Messrs Zachariah Buote, John Doiron, Frank Doiron, Mathias LeClere and the chairman. A dainty lunch was then served by Mrs. Arsenault which was greatly enjoyed by all. The meeting was brought to a close by many hand-shakes and wishing Mr. and Mrs. Arsenault happiness and prosperity in their new home. One who was present. Minard's Liniment cures Garget in cows
