"Growing" Food

EVERY loaf of our bread contains 100% nourishment. It is just the kind that Baby will thrive on—and every one of it gives strength and health! It should be substituted for the heavy foods that are not easily digested—and it is obvious that if this bread is healthy for Baby to eat, it is the logical food for grown ups too.

TENDERED SHOWER—A prettily arranged "Miscellaneous Show" was given in honor of Miss Gladys Large on Friday evening by her friend, Miss Mildred Norton, at her home, King Square. The large living room was a profusion of pink asters and sweet peas, with softly shaded lights. Little Norah Downe, who made a very winsome "bride," wheeled in a small "Express" laden with pretty and useful gifts, accompanied by suitable verses. About twenty girls were present. The "bride-to-be" thanked each and all for their thoughtfulness, and good wishes, after which dainty refreshments were served.

FLOOD AT POINT DU CHENE Visitors to Point Du Chene and vicinity report that during Monday night's storm one cottage was carried from its foundation and carried back a distance of twenty feet by the tide. Other cottages were moved off their base. Old buildings on the wharf were carried across the track. Two old ladies were driven to stand on their beds by the onrush of water until rescued by visitors.

WANDERED AWAY.—Anxious inquiries were made at the Police Station yesterday afternoon for two children aged about seven and eleven years, who had wandered from their home on Kent Street. It was discovered that the youth crossed the Hillsboro Bridge and had been given their supper at a fox ranch at Southport. They were sent back in a homeward direction and were reported safe last night, none the worse of their little adventure.

JUDGE WARBURTON'S HISTORY of Prince Edward Island, has been expected for some time. We learn that it is now all in print and will be issued to the public about the end of this month. This book has been the subject of much research during the past few years. We learn that it has been printed in large clear type, in excellent style. The paper is of first-rate quality, and the general get-up promises to be good. It is strange how little the people of this Province know of the history of their Island home. Yet it is exceedingly interesting. For instance how many are conversant with the fact that three years after the expulsion from Acadia, celebrated in Evangeline, deportation of several thousand inhabitants took place through Port La Jole, the present harbour of Charlottetown. How many, or should we say "how few," know that of these deportees some 700 were drowned on their journey, by the foundering of a couple of transports. The story is really more tragic than that of Evangeline, but their has been no Longfellow to tell of the sadness. The forthcoming volume tells of it.

WAR ROMANCE CULMINATES IN WEDDING—A wedding as a result of a war-time romance was impressively solemnized at the Y. W. C. A. last evening, when Miss Margaret McNeill became the wife of Edward Sims. The ceremony took place in the library with Rev. Daniel I. Gross, D. D., as the officiating clergyman. The double ring service was used. About 50 friends of the young people were guests at the ceremony. The library, executive offices and hall were beautifully but simply attractive. Promptly at 7 o'clock to the strains of the Logue engrin wedding march, played by Miss Harriette G. Ohler, the wedding party descended the beautiful Colonial stairway and entered the library. The bride, who was Mrs. William R. Richardson, who gave the bride in marriage. Following the ceremony the bridal couple was showered with congratulations and best wishes and the bride cut the wedding cake which bore the customary symbols. Mr. Sims and his bride left early in the evening for Worcester and on their return they will reside in Portland until the first of the year when they will make their home in Birmingham, Ala. The decorations were in charge of Miss Elizabeth E. Webber, Mrs. Helen M. Townsend, Miss Ramona Twitchell, Miss Vivian Storer, Miss Vera Howe and Miss Althea Titus. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. C.

The Bitter Story of a Marriage that Glittered Like Gold but Proved a Miserable Counterfeit

Is Your Wedding Ring ~

BRASS

A Vivid Picturization of Charles G. Norris' Great Novel of Marriage and Divorce.
Directed by Sidney Franklin.

MONTE BLUE and MARIE PREVOST at the head of a Notable Cast.

The Wedding Ring

—a Golden Gateway to Happiness—or—
—a Tarnished Portal to Despair—

In that great and uncertain venture known as marriage, men and women are like eager, inexperienced prospectors—who blindly rush at their claim, hoping that luck will be with them.

A GREAT SCREEN DRAMA OF MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE

PRESENTATION TO MR. FRANK TINNEY.—A number of the staff of the Dominion Experimental Station and of the Plant of the Pathological Laboratory assembled at the office of Supt. J. A. Clark on Tuesday afternoon, to say good-bye to Mr. Frank Tinney, who is leaving for McDonald College on Wednesday morning. A short address was read by Miss E. B. Sterns, expressing the good will of those present, and their appreciation of Mr. Tinney's faithful work during the past seven years. Mr. M. H. McLennan, foreman at the Station, then presented Mr. Tinney with club bag fittings, on behalf of the staff. Mr. Tinney, though taken completely by surprise, made a fitting response, thanking the donors for their gift. Refreshments were then served, and a social time spent, when the party dispersed, after singing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow," and wishing Mr. Tinney success in his work.

WEDDING BELLS.—St Thomas Church, Jamaica Plain, Mass., was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Sunday July 16th at 4 p. m. when Miss Laura B. Shea of Prince Edward Island became the bride of Mr. Joseph R. Shea, of Rumford falls. The bride was attired in a grey silk crepe de chine dress with hat to match and carried an elaborate bouquet of white asters. She was attended by her cousin Miss Mary

Magnesia Best For Your Indigestion

Warns Against Doping Stomach With Artificial Digestives

Most people who suffer, either occasionally or chronically from gas, sourness and indigestion, have now discontinued disagreeable diets, patent foods and the use of harmful drugs, stomach tonics, medicines and artificial digestives, and instead following the advice so often given in these columns, take a teaspoonful or two of pure Bisurated Magnesia in a little water after meals, with the result that their stomachs no longer troubles them, they are able to eat as they please and they enjoy much better health. Those who use Bisurated Magnesia need dread the approach of meal time because they know this wonderful anti-acid and food corrective, which can be obtained from any good drug store, will instantly neutralize the stomach acidity, sweeten the stomach, prevent food fermentation, and without the slightest pain or discomfort. Try this plan yourself, but be certain to get pure Bisurated Magnesia especially prepared for stomach use.
