MURDERED WHEN ON HIS WAY TO THIS PROVINCE

To Enjoy a Holiday at His Old Home. The Sad Ending of Stewart McTavish, of Eldon, Who Met a Cruel Death in an Hotel in Cambridge. Robbery Was the Probable Motive.

BOSTON, July 25—(Special)—Elizabeth Richmond, proprietor of the hotel Florence in East Cambridge, was brought into East Cambridge Court and formally charged with the murder of Stewart McTavish, of Eldon, P. E. I., whose body, tragically mangled, was discovered in a room at the Florence.

McTavish was an old friend of Mrs. Richmond and boarded with her a year ago. McTavish was 25 years old, and was to have given his sister Ella in marriage Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Wm. McKinnon. He did not appear at the wedding, however.

When McTavish left the insane hospital at Gardiner, where he was employed, it was for a vacation in P. E. Island. He had a considerable sum of money and a gold watch. A ticket for Charlottetown was found in his clothing but the money and watch were missing. A check for his baggage was also found. The ticket was dated July 21.

The police have been unable to trace the movements of McTavish from the time he left the hospital to the time of the murder. He was shot through the right eye and then his head was beaten in with an axe. The medical examiner believes he was killed either during Thursday night or early on Friday morning. About two years ago Mrs. Newcomb, the wife of a Boston business man, wandered into Mrs. Richmond's house. After she had been there three days she died suddenly. Autopsy was performed and the cause of death was said to be alcoholism.

CANADIAN MAY RECEIVE RED HAT

MONTREAL, July 24.—There is a report here today that Archbishop Bruchesi will be made a Cardinal next year, during the Catholic Congress in this City, and that Rev. Gerold McShane, Parish Priest of St. Patrick's, will be elevated to the Episcopacy. The interest over the Ottawa appointment still continues. The Irish Catholics of the Archdiocese of Ottawa, frankly admit that the French-Canadians outnumber them in the population taken as a whole but they claim to have the majority in certain sections, and further, hold that their more generous and more substantial contribution of funds for Church purposes entitles them to some recognition. They are, however, disposed to accept a compromise, and this is what some of them propose.

Let the diocese be divided, they say, into two parts, one French and the other English. In that event a French diocese might be erected in the Province of Quebec section, with Sts. Agathe as the headquarters, and that Parish, the Rev. Abbe Corbell, is entitled to the appointment, on account of his crusade on behalf of the Temperance cause. Temperance—Rev. E. S. Weeks. Home Dept.—Mrs. Moore Smith. The evening session opened with devotional exercises led by Rev. E. S. Weeks. The newly elected president then took the chair and called upon the retiring president, who responded briefly.

An address by Rev. Mr. Mason on the "Sunday School as an educational opportunity. To this point the field secretary, J. B. Ganong, had kept pretty well in the background but his opportunity came and he spoke at considerable length and was given close attention. His address was greatly enjoyed. Throughout the meetings excellent music was furnished under the auspices of the local choir with Miss Belle Millar as organist.

HOW THE SUMMER SCHOOL IS PROGRESSING

To fully appreciate the work that is being done in the Summer School of Science, it is necessary to visit the class room and take part in the study. To those not privileged to do so the following will give an idea of what is being done in the subjects of oratory and music.

SIGHT SINGING. Children are taught to read at sight, but it is only quite recently that attention has been directed to teaching singing at sight. In the United States the schools are awakened to the importance of this work, both as a brain exercise, for one can not read music at sight without concentration, and also as a healthy and enjoyable recreation.

In learning to sing at sight it is necessary to follow some well-tested system of exercises in order to obtain the best results. Musical school may be able to read simple passages at sight without any assistance but when more difficult selections confront them they are lost. Scholars who are not particularly musical will not attempt to read music at sight, unless guided by some safe method and so it is well for all that some system should accompany the work.

By the use of what is sometimes called the moveable "D5 system," one may modulate easily into any key from a given pitch without the aid of any musical instrument. Students are taught the meaning of Chief Signatures and Time signatures, and all the elements of music, along with a practical use of the conductor's baton. After a course in the work each one will feel competent to beat time or the class, to find the exact pitch of a note from the pitch-pipe, to conduct part-singing, and also to write down in correct musical form any simple air after hearing it sung or played once.

ORATORY. To be able to express oneself clearly, forcibly and naturally, one must be conscious of two things: a desire to have your audience grasp all the meaning, which lies in what you are saying, and a consciousness that you, yourself understand and appreciate fully what you are talking about, whether you are repeating another's thought, or expressing ideas of your own.

In our class in Oratory our effort is to be unconscious of ourselves, and to centre our thought on our audience. We keep saying to ourselves, "Will my audience feel the full meaning of the message I have for them," rather than "Am I using the correct inflection on my words." A speaker or reader should never come before an audience without feeling that he or she has some definite purpose in the address or selection to be given. There

WOODS-NORRIS LIMITED TAKE OVER

"ECONOMIC ADVERTISING" Commencing with the June issue, "Economic Advertising"—a monthly magazine published in the interest of Advertisers in Canada—will be published by Woods-Norris Limited, Toronto, who have taken over the publication. T. Johnson Stewart, the founder of the paper, has joined the staff of the Woods-Norris Agency, and will continue to edit the magazine. "Economic Advertising," the only publication of its kind issued in Canada, has already made a host of friends, being strongly endorsed by a large number of successful advertisers. The policy of the publication is as broad as the advertising field—the only reason for its existence being the promotion of successful selling campaigns through publicity. The earnestness and enthusiasm which has marked the sure and steady development of Woods-Norris Limited will be exercised in the interests of general advertising through the pages of the magazine. Every manufacturer, manufacturer's agent, wholesaler, sales and advertising manager will find this publication well worth their attention, and, as one big advertiser states, "Worth ten times the price."

HANS HOLMER R. TURNS TO FORSAKEN PARENTS

NEW YORK, July 21.—Mrs. Alice Holmer, wife of Peter Holmer, an electrical engineer of West Farms, was making bread in her kitchen early Monday afternoon, thinking among other things of the little son who had run away in anger nine years before, when a tall, athletic-looking man, Hans Holmer, a prominent Marathon runner of Canada rang the doorbell, and one of Mrs. Holmer's daughters went to the door. "Don't you know me?" asked the man, and then he passed through the hall, for he had seen his mother in the kitchen going straight to her said "Mother I am Hans." Mrs. Holmer staggered back, her hands to her face, as he came on. "Oh Hans," she said, "you have given me a dreadful shock." Do you remember what I said when I went away, mother?" asked Hans. "That you would come back when you had made a name?" said the mother. "I have done it," said Hans.
