CROWN PRINCE'S ATTITUDE IS CONDEMNED

BERLIN, Nov. 10.—The attitude of Crown Prince Frederick William during yesterday's debate in the Reichstag, when he openly demonstrated his pleasure over and approval of the criticisms of Chancellor Hollweg's policy in the Moroccan affair with France, and applauded the sabbre rattling passages in the fiery speeches, is sharply condemned today by not only the friends, but the opponents of the chancellor.

The papers join in describing the incident as a frivolous and dangerous exhibition, and express the fear that the impression has been given abroad that the future emperor is heading a German war party.

This stand by the press may result in a strengthening of the position of the chancellor which was shaken when the pent-up fury, born of the popular feeling that Germany had backed down before British menace was vented in the Reichstag yesterday.

The chancellor sought to explain that Germany had attained the object which she had in view when the gunboat Panther was sent to Agadir, that the Franco-German treaty terminated French hostility and that Germany had concluded prolonged negotiations with honor and advantage.

KING GEORGE STARTS ON INDIAN TRIP

THE FIRST METHODIST CHURCH ANNIVERSARY

Today is a redletter day in the history of the First Methodist church—for on this date forty seven years ago the church edifice was dedicated for divine worship.

Special services marked the anniversary yesterday and at both morning and evening service the big building was filled almost to the doors. Special preparation had been made for the observance of the day and a committee, composed of the pastor, Rev. J. Heaney, B. A., Col. F. S. Moore, chairman of the music committee, had the arrangements in hand and the manner of the celebration of the church's natal day was a tribute to the energy of these three and the numbers along the congregations at the services indicated the responsive spirit of the people who were ready to unite in rejoicing on the church's anniversary and gave thanks for the forty seven years of steady advancement in Methodism in this church.

The choir was considerably augmented by the addition of a large number of its older members, among these being Artemas Lord, Edward Davey and F. H. Beer. The choir forty seven years ago. In the hymns and tunes were all of that period, and were rendered in that hearty manner of a half a century ago which recalled among the older members of the congregation memories of their earlier days in the church.

A special collection was taken up at both services which will go towards reducing a deficit at the closing of the current year.

Prof Wright presided at the organ and the old time music—always sweet and melodious and redolent of the old days—was never rendered in a more effective manner.

At the morning service the pastor's subject was "Retrospect and Prospect." Speaking from this head he referred to the early work in Methodism here. Rev. Jas Bulpitt in 1807 began work in this city but for a quarter of a century previous local preachers had been working quietly. In 1816 a "chapel" was erected on the corner of King and Queen Sts. and ten years later, Rev. J. D. Strang being the pastor, a Sabbath school was erected. In 1835 a church was built on the corner of Richmond and Prince Streets and this stood for 29 years, being twice enlarged. The present edifice was commenced May 25, 1863 and dedicated Nov. 13, 1864, Rev. Dr. Ritchie being pastor.

In the evening he spoke from Ico. 25-49, his topic being an Ideal Church.

Beginning he referred to the anniversary services as helpful, religious instincts being rekindled and enlarged even as patriotism was renewed, by the recalling of an ancient victory. He defined "church" as a congrega-

SAYS VALUE OF HUMAN LIFE IS LESS THAN EVER

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 6.—"Human life was never valued lower than today. Luxury may reign, epicures may live, fashions be promoted and material things made more to subserv to man's pleasure, yet in spite of these, the value and sacredness of human life is growing less," said Archbishop John J. Glennon in his sermon at the New Cathedral Chapel yesterday.

"Time was when men held their fellowmen in slavery," he continued. "Such slavery has been abolished, but is it not possible that today a slavery more extensive has been inaugurated, not alone of the body but of the soul? This slavery is the outcome of immoral and unsanitary surroundings which gradually render body and soul a slave to disease and vice. What lips to lash or laws to condemn the inhuman beings engaged in that lowest of all traffics, the traffic known as white slavery?"

"Human life is sacred. No railroad nor sweat shop has the authority nor the right to destroy it whether the destruction be by negligence or by squeezing the life of the individual that a little more money may go into the treasury. There are some people who give their thoughts and time to the rearing of pet animals, dogs, cats and horses, while on the other hand human beings, their brethren, are starving and homeless, even little children crying for bread and a large percentage outcast from hope and home happiness.

Now, one of these souls, however crude be its casement, though enveloped in rags and ulcers, yet being a human soul, spiritual and immortal, is worth more than all the pampered, is worth more than all the accumulated luxuries and deserves more careful protection than the entire brute creation.

"It is natural to respond to the affection that may be shown to us by them, but when such creatures stand between us and our duty to the poor and lowly, when their value appears to be more than the brethren of Christ, then comes the blasphemy of it all, the intense thoughtlessness and vulgarity, yes, bestiality of it all."

NO MILITARY IN RECEPTION TO CONNAUGHTS

TORONTO, November 10.—Toronto will be obliged to welcome the Duke of Connaught without the aid of the militia. This became known yesterday when the reception plans were being discussed by the reception committee. It had been proposed to have the militia line both North and Yonge street from North Toronto station to the city hall in honor of the coming of the governor-general, but the military authorities decline to call out the men because they have not proper uniforms to wear. Their arms and accoutrements have been turned in for inspection. Mayor Geary voted a suggestion that outside regiments be called in.

ADDRESSING SYNOD ON MORMONISM

CALGARY, Nov. 2.—(By Wire)—The Bishop of Calgary, before the Alberta Synod, delivered an address on the alarming growth of Mormonism in Southern Alberta and urged all denominations to take united action to suppress it.

Mormons in Alberta are very prosperous.

The teaching and preaching of Jesus Christ was for the Kingdom of God, the great ideal of the prophets through all ages being righteousness, peace and joy in the Holy Ghost. The function of the church is to reveal and manifest the principles of the Kingdom of God; the congregation is meant to perform this duty for only in this way can the principles be mediated. The church exists for the purpose of advancing the interests of Christ's Kingdom and enlarging its bounds. Here Mr. Heaney made an earnest appeal for a more Christian-like attitude to the stranger or sinner who might be assisted in the right direction. He asked for a heartier spirit of fellowship and upholding the workingman's position, maintaining for him and the millionaire a common level in the church as in Christ's Kingdom, there being no social distinction.

He then turned to the child problem and showed the change of latter days in properly educating the youth at the outset.

He concluded by characterizing the Ideal Church as one in which there was a praying congregation, an altruistic and sacrificing people, a liberal people and a united church. Those present might not live to see such a church but they could strive hard to be individually in accord with the named requisites and thereby advance God's Kingdom on earth.

The following was the program:

BETTER PROGRESS IN GETTING A JURY

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 10.—Eerewhile predictions that a jury to try Jas B. McNamara would not be selected for at six weeks or more seemed extravagant today. The surprising progress of the last two days gives rise to the belief that a pane might be demanded in much shorter time.

With three sworn jurors, three talesmen passed for cause, and a new venire of forty on hand today, at torneys on both sides were optimistic as to the possibilities of soon gathering in a panel of twelve.

WANTON SLAUGHTER IN NANKING IS REPORTED

Much Concern Over the Expected Arrival of Rebels in Peking

NANKING, Nov. 12.—(By Wire)—More than 3,000 native Chinese men, women and children are dead and 75,000 others helpless as the result of wanton slaughter throughout the city by Imperialists.

Butchery is still going on but in a less degree.

Reinforcements arrived and joined the rebels and the attack upon the Imperialist army was resumed. Aroused to frenzy of rage against their enemies for massacre of defenceless Chinese, the rebels fought desperately for vengeance.

PEKIN, Nov. 12.—(By Wire)—The issued another Imperial edict in the attempt to stem a revolution and save the Manchou dynasty.

The edict proclaims equal rights and treatment for all Chinese, both native and Manchou.

The most acute tension prevailed in the capital as the rebels army slowly advanced.

The Chinese police were deprived of all cartridges as a guarantee to Manchou residents. This action was taken to allay the feelings of those who predict a massacre the minute the rebel army arrives at the capital's gates.

MORE DEATH SADDENED TO MRS. VERMILYA'S LIST

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—Poison found in the viscera of two more of the ten persons who have died mysteriously beneath the roof of Mrs. Louise Vermilya made more tangible today against the woman. At the county jail hospital, where she lies ill from attempts to take her own life, she was not informed of the new evidence the police will bring to bear in charging her with murder.

Toxicologist Walter L. Haines today communicated his report to the coroner's office. The finding was that arsenic was present in large quantities in the viscera of Conductor Richard T. Smith and of Frank Brindamp, the latter being Mrs. Vermilya's son. These two bodies were exhumed after poison had been found in the remains of Policeman Bissonette, the last of the ten to die, when relatives and friends told the coroner the circumstances of their deaths were similar to those of Bissonette. Coroner Hoffman said he was disposed to open still more graves of those whose deaths had occurred beneath Mrs. Vermilya's roof. There were at least three others whose deaths were, he said, recent enough for poison to be apparent if they had so died. Whether he would go into those cases, he said, depended upon the advice of the state attorney.

Mrs. Vermilya was near death during the day. She is suffering from valvular heart disease.

TORONTO, Ont., Nov. 10.—Alfred Jarvis, Englishman who engineered the whirlwind seeding and bought houses, autos and diamonds, was arrested last night at Webbwood, and will be brought back to Toronto for trial. The specific charge is stealing an overcoat. He is also wanted at Peterboro.

The young woman who he married after a week's courtship still believes in him. Rev. J. D. Morrow, to whom he gave a bad check, does not.

N. Y. PRIEST FATALLY INJURED BY AUTOMOBILE

NEW YORK, November 10.—Father Patrick Murray, an assistant at St. Thomas Aquinas church, was struck and probably mortally injured by a trolley car on Lexington avenue last night. As the priest lay unconscious from a fractured skull under the glare of an arc-light, four Dominican Fathers, summoned from a nearby parish house and dressed in their white robes, administered extreme unction, while a silent crowd with bared heads watched the unusual and impressive scene.

BET $5,000 ROOSEVELT WILL BE PRESIDENT

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—"Larry" Gallagher, sporting man who divides his time between Long Branch and New York, believes Theodore Roosevelt is still alive politically. Friends were twitting him on his judgment. He retorted that if the odds were good enough he would show his confidence by betting that the colonel would be elected next President of the United States.

Jacob Fields, stock operator, heard of Gallagher's statement, and asked him if he still desired to bet.

"Yes," said Gallagher.

"How about $5,000 to $1,000?"

"You're on," said Gallagher. Fields was exultant. "An easy thousand," he chuckled.

MME. CURIE NAMED BY JEALOUS WIFE

MAY BE GIVEN SENATORSHIP

PARIS, Nov. 6.—The greatest sensation in Paris since the theft of the Mona-Lisa is the story of the romance of Mme. Curie, the widow of the late Prof. Curie, the discoverer of radium, and Prof. Langevin of the College of France, which is printed by many of the newspapers today.

The Journal stated that the professor who is at the head of the department of physics in the college of France, had left his home some time ago, taking his two children with him, and that Madame Curie, with whom he had been on the most friendly terms since the death of her husband, has also disappeared.

Mrs. Langevin has brought a suit for separation against the professor, and has also secured an order from the court that she is to be allowed to see her children.

The Journal prints an interview with the mother of Madame Langevin, in which the latter says that she and her daughter have letters written by Mme. Curie which prove the truth of their suspicions.

Mme. Curie has not been at the Sorbonne for some time, but this is not unusual, as she does not teach during the first-year term. She has been seen as usual at her laboratory in the Rue de Cluivier until the last few weeks.

Mme. Curie and Prof. Langevin both deny the story printed in the Journal and other papers. "It is disgraceful," said Mme. Curie.

Prof. Langevin admitted he had left his wife owing to scenes with her which had been brought on by her jealousy. He added, "my relations with Mme. Curie have been strictly limited to scientific work."

BRITISH CRUISERS FOR CHINA

MELBOURNE, Nov. 11.—The British cruiser "Pegasus" and "Prometheus" have been ordered to proceed to China.

THE BOY WHO FORGETS

I love him, the boy who forgets!
Does seem such a queer thing to say?
Can't help it; he's one of my pets;
Delighted at work or at play.
I'd trust him with all that I own,
And knows neither worries or frets;
But the secret of this lies alone
In the thing that the laddie forgets.

He always forgets 'tis his turn
To choose what the others shall play;
Forgets about others to learn
The gossipy things that "they" say.

He forgets to look sully and cross
When things are not going his way;
Forgets someone's gain is his loss;
Forgets in his worktime, his play;
This is why I must take his part;
Why is say he is one of my pets;
I repeat it with all of my heart;
I love him for what he forgets.
—St. Nicholas.
