DAILY SELECTIONS FOR GUARDIAN READERS

Furnished by W. S. Louson.

A Christian man was tossing about on his bed one night, troubled with anxious thoughts as to business. As he lay in a very distracted state of mind, his little child, who was asleep in a cot by his side, woke up, and, thinking that she was alone, began to cry.

The father put out his hand and looked at the child. Her cry was soon hushed, and very quickly she fell asleep once again.

How unexpectedly God can comfort! A child's sorrow may be a sermon, and a child's ministry may unconsciously be used. The father reflected that his hand in the dark had been a comfort to his child. She felt her father was near, and nestled into sleep in that trust.

He read the lesson of love. His heavenly Father was near. God was with him in the dark. This thought enabled him with thankfulness to give himself to repose again.

Business worries are very real, and there is much unrighteousness in the world, and if the Christian is to walk a straight business path he has need of continual dependence upon prayer.

STRIKERS SEEK TO FREE WOMAN.

LOWELL, April 2.—Steps were taken at the strike committee meeting in I. W. W. headquarters today in behalf of Mrs. Mary Kokoski, whose health is poor, and who is in jail in default of money to pay a fine of $45 for causing a disturbance at the Tremont and Suffolk mills. A committee of one man and two women was appointed by William E. Trautman, who presided at the meeting, to wait on Judge Pitman and intercede for the woman.

Dr. Demopoulous, who was at the meeting, said he was interested in Mrs. Kokoski's case, felt deep sympathy for her and would like to serve on the committee.

"I will urge to Judge Pitman," he said, "that humanity demands that Mrs. Kokoski be set free."

Frank Goldman, attorney, is attending the legal side of the case.
The strikers were reported to be standing firm and maintaining vigil ant picketing.

Plans were made for a demonstration in front of the Hamilton Mills this afternoon. A parade will be formed there and strikers will march to the South Common, where addresses will be made. Sixteen mil-linners announced today they will return to work in the Hamilton Mills tomorrow morning. They said they have no grievance.

WOMAN CROSSES
BRITISH CHANNEL
IN AN AEROPLANE.

PARIS, April 2.—For the first time in the history of aviation, a woman crossed the English channel in an aeroplane today, when Miss Elizabeth Davies, flying as a passenger with M. Hamel, a French aviator, flew from Hendon, a London suburb, and landed at Ambleteuse, a French fishing village, six miles north of Boulogne.

Hamel and his passenger set out from the Hendon aerodrome for Paris at 9.38. At 11.15 the aero-plane had traversed the sixty-six miles of air between London and Dover and started out over the channel.

The machine was travelling at a great height and at full speed. Hamel had said before leaving Hendon that, if possible, he would make a non-stop flight to the French capital and thus establish a new record.

Weather conditions were good, but upon reaching a point nearly above Cape Grisnez an engine trouble developed and Hamel thought it safer to make a landing than to risk death by attempting to push on.

Accordingly descent was made and the aviator at once commenced repairs upon his motor. A dispatch from Ambleteuse quoted Hamel as saying that as soon as the repairs were made he would push on to this city.

A NIGHT ON THE SOUND.

The popularity of the Colonial Line between New York and Providence is the result of constant striving on the part of the management for improvement.

The business man or tourist who takes passage on the new and commodious steamers Concord and Lexington travels in comfort. When he dines he chooses from a menu card season. After a stroll on deck to view the superb marine pictures that have made the night voyages on the Sound notable, he turns from the cabins, which are finely furnished, thoroughly ventilated and lighted by electricity, to his stateroom. Many of these are furnished with roomy, double brass beds, and all rooms have windows opening on the decks.

The office of the Colonial Navigation Company is at 256 Washington Street, Boston, Mass., U.S.A.

to make a landing than to risk
death by attempting to push on.

TAFT ACTS TO SAVE LEVEES IN FLOOD.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Alarmed by the flood reports from the States along the southern extent of the Mississippi River, President Taft sent an emergency message to Congress today. The message calls for an immediate appropriation of $500,000 for the strengthening and re-inforcing of the river levees. In the message the President says:

"I am advised by the Secretary of War that the flood is likely to reach a higher point along the levees than it has ever reached within recent memory, and that there is very grave danger that the levees may give way.
"In view of the character of the emergency and the safeguards surrounding the expenditures made under the corps of engineers, I have no hesitation in asking for an appropriation of $500,000 as recommended by the Secretary of War. I urgently recommend an immediate appropriation so that no time may be lost in taking the necessary steps to prevent what, but for government action, may be a loss not only of millions, but of lives as well."

ANITA, THE SINGING GIRL.

Easter Monday night at the Opera House, Perry's Players present the great scenic production "Anita the Singing Girl," the first scene is an exact reproduction of "Gabriels" lustrous roof garden in N. W. City uminated buildings in the distance.

The entire play is laid in N. Y. and faithfully portrays the different phases of life in that Great City.
Those popular favorites "Hazel Corinne," the charming and magnetic little artist, as Anita the street singer, and Dan Malloy the Prince of Comedians and versatile actors, will be seen at their best. The difficult role of John Baird, the drunkard is portrayed in a masterly manner by that brilliant young actor J.
Bernard Hurl. The part of Russe, a mere slogan. We have won popular favor solely on the merits, quality, and value of the hats we sell—for our superior facilities for giving every man a perfect fitting hat—one that will exactly suit his every characteristic.

Our hat department is the largest in the province and we can furnish any man with a hat that is ideally suited to him—one that will suit his facial of his eyes and clothing.

We placed our orders far in advance with the leading factories in Canada, Great Britain and the United States and have secured from each the very best line of good hats that they turn out. We secured the best, for none but the best will meet with

METHODISTS TO OPPOSE BAN ON AMUSEMENTS.

KINGSTON, N.Y., April 2.—By asking that the Methodist discipline be amended as to amusements, by striking out references to dancing, card-playing, and theatre attendance, a marked innovation in Methodism was decided on by the New York Methodist Episcopal conference.

The ingredients of Magic Baking Powder are plainly printed on each package. The makers of the numerous alum baking powders never do this, but they have been known to print the words, "No Alum" on their labels. This is no guarantee—it is fraud. See that all ingredients are stated.

new spring hats includes the best from Canadian, English and Ameri-
