Middle Distance Marvels

BURNLEY

Though many critics of track athletics are convinced that Phil Edwards, dusky super-star of 1929, definitely will establish himself as the acknowledged king of the world's middle-distance runners this year, fans generally are not so sure that such a coronation will take place. Surely, Edwards will face sterner competition in 1930 than ever before. The new year already has revealed some talent—notably, the Rev. Harold W. Cutbill—which should extend Edwards to the limit.

Another middle distance competitor, a holdover from last season, looms in the improved Bernie McCullum, of Holy Cross, who, enthusiastic admirers predict, will "take" Edwards more than once before the year ends.

"Mac" was a terror at from 500 to 1,000 yards last year. Can any real track fan forget how Bernie beat Edwards by five yards in the classic millrose 600 at that famous athletic association's games in Madison Square Garden?

McCafferty shot into the lead at the start of that "immortal 600," and kept it to the finish despite Phil's finishing sprint. Why, in the University, are among those whom Cornwall 6.

Hunter River 4.

By playing excellent hockey through three fast periods, the Cornwall C. C. team emerged victorious over the Hunter River Royals in their own rink on March 4. In the first period the C. C.'s scored twice to their opponents one. Shortly after the face-off in the second period the C. C.'s counted their third tally but the Royals soon recovered lost ground by notching three goals in quick succession. Play tightened up after this and at the end of the period the score stood 5-4 in favor of Cornwall. The play was somewhat rougher in the third period, but in spite of this the C. C.'s by a lone tally, won over their opponents by a 6-4 count. A return game was promised the C. C. boys, but the Royals failed to keep their word to the great disappointment of the C. C. team, who in the face of great difficulty carried out their part of the contract. In the ladies of Hunter River the C. C. extend thanks for their kindness in supplying supper and lunch. We do not know whether the remark, "it was worth it," made by one of the returning hockeyists referred to the game, the supper or the lady.

M.A.H.A. ELECTS ITS OFFICERS

(Canadian Press)
HALIFAX, N. S., March 11.—H. O. Schryer of Bathurst, N. B., was today elected President of the Maritime Amateur Hockey Association at the annual meeting here. J. McManus of Halifax, was elected Vice President, and H. F. White of Bathurst, Secretary.

The meeting, which was held without the minutes, financial report and general records, was a warm one and at noon the only business which had been done was the selection of officers for the coming year. The attendance was the largest in recent years. The meeting got under way with the announcement from the secretary that the minutes had been misplaced, but would be located; the other records were with them. Sam Doyle, of Charlottetown, P. E. I., raised the question that the Island should be represented on the board of officers. It was pointed out however that the Island was included in the northern section and that it was customary to have an officer from the northern and southern sections.

Oyster Bed Holds Second Race Meet

The Oyster Bed driving club held their second race on Saturday, March 8th. Owing to the bad roads and soft ice only two classes were raced, viz.: free for all and 2.40, and only had two starters in each. Major S. captured the free for all from Lady Upton, and Darkey the 2.40. The club intends holding their last race on the Bay ice Thursday, March 13, as the ice is getting bad. This will wind up the trotters for 1930 and the club would like to see all the horses turn out including the colts. They intend putting on a race for the colts as there is a number of them looks like speed. The race will start at one o'clock sharp. Don't forget Thursday. They are away

SOUTHERN NOTES

Mr. Howard White and Mr. Milburn Keenan appear to lead the way in the realm of classy sport in this latitude. Whether it be in baseball, hockey, football, skiing, pitching horse shoes, throwing the caber, looping the loop, climbing the greasy pole, playing polo, plucking poultry, or pursuing and catching the greased pig they outclass all competitors, and in horsing their supremacy is unchallenged. In this noble sport of horse racing they have the field to themselves, so now if they wish to engage in competition they are obliged to have recourse to match races between themselves.

PRESENTATION TO GEORGE CREWIS, CORNWALL

On Friday evening, March 7th, despite the unfavorable weather conditions a number of friends representative of Cornwall United Church, gathered in a surprise party at the home of Mr. George Crewis to convey to him their appreciation for the invaluable service he has given and is still rendering the life of the church in this community.

The following address was read by the pastor Rev. E. M. Aitken:—
"To George Crewis, Esq., Cornwall, P. E. I., Dear Mr. Crewis: We are told that life is full of surprises. While our coming here tonight may have been unexpected so far as you are concerned, we would surprise ourselves more if we had failed to convey to you our expression of our appreciation for the part you have and are taking, and the place you are filling in helping to make possible the building of the Kingdom of God in this community. There is surely no greater vocation or no more difficult work for any man to undertake than to find his place and do his share in the carrying out of our Lord's greatest commission. Many years ago you heard that call, you caught that vision, and you have been trying faithfully to follow His teaching; often no doubt feeling yourself weak and realizing failure, yet never wholly losing faith. You have long been a confessed and recognized follower of the Master; you have been elected to the highest office to which your brother members could appoint you in the church that of elder, an office in which you have proved yourself worthy of their confidence; you have rendered far-reaching service both in your own congregation and in others around you through your ability as a lay preacher, and your readiness to give of your time and effort in this capacity; you have long been a leader in Sunday School work and at present an efficient teacher of the Bible class in this church. But above all you have sought to make your life reflect your faith and belief, and when called to pass through recent sorrow you met it in that same faith. Today, that which is of so great import, your example counts for much, and your influence is uplifting in the lives of those whom you touch.

It is for your services as treasurer for this congregation, and general treatment for the whole charge that we wish particularly to express our appreciation tonight. You have carried out faithfully the work of a most difficult office, one that calls

STEWART STILL LEADS SCORERS

MONTREAL, March 11.—Nelson Stewart, robust centre of the Montreal Maroons enters the closing stages of the National Hockey League race with a two goal margin over "Dit" Clapper, sturdy Boston right winger, in the race for goal getting honors, according to the averages announced tonight from the offices of President Frank Calder, of the National Hockey League. Stewart has scored 39 goals, while Clapper has annexed 37. Welland follows close behind his team mate with 36. Howie Morenz, whirlwind ace of Canadiens, is in fourth position among the scorers with 35 goals to his credit.

Chances for any Canadian section player becoming the point making leader in the league are decidedly remote, the averages show. While Stewart leads all actual goal getters, his point total which combines goals with assists on an even basis of value, is but 52, as against 64 for Ralph "Cooney" Welland, elusive and clever centre of the Boston Bruins. Welland has scored 36 goals and has assisted in 28. Frankie Boucher, centre of the New York Rangers, has the high point total of 62, with 26 goals and 36 assists. Bill Cook, also of the Rangers, has 56, while Clapper's 37 goals are augmented by 18 assists for a point total of 55.

In the Canadian section, Hec. Kilrea, dashing left wing of the Ottawa Senators is close on Stewart's heels for points with 51 after scoring four goals against Maroons and assisting in another. Joe Lamb, another cog in the speedy Ottawa forward line, has 46 points. Normie Hines, of the lowly Americans has managed to score 43, in which he leads Morenz by one.

The Canadian division seems likely to lead the American section at the finish in point of penalties. Joe Lamb leads the parade with 111 minutes and Sylvio Mantha, rangy Canadian defence player, is next to him with 108. Red Dutton, of Montreal Maroons, is tied with Eddie Shors, the latter leading the American section. Each of these defence players has 96 minutes.

Gets Contract

(Special to the Guardian)
MONTON, March 11.—The contract for repairing and strengthening Canadian National Railway's Car Ferry Scotia 11, operating across the Strait of Canso between Mulgrave and Point Tupper in Cape Breton, N. S., has been awarded to the St. John Drydock and Shipbuilding Co. at St. John, N. B. The Scotia 11 will be returned to service May 1st.

Miss Lucy Clements is now visiting in Milburn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allison McWilliams. Many good roads are being constructed in Panama.

for accuracy, patience, and no small contribution in time, yet week by week, and month by month, you have faithfully and cheerfully met the demands made on you. Only those who are in closest touch with the work can fully realize what these are. As something that may aid in expressing our gratitude and thanks to you for your labors in this office we ask you to accept this gift, with the prayer that God may bless your efforts, and, if He wills, that you may yet be long spared to continue your faithful service in His vineyard. Signed on behalf of the congregation,
E. M. Aitken, Minister,
D. H. Murchison,
Harry M. Hyde, Elders.

Mr. Crewis was then presented with a beautiful arm chair by Mr. Hazen Howard. In reply in expressing his thanks, he spoke very effectively and touchingly. He said he was glad to be alive. What he had done for the church he could not have helped doing because of his early training. He would not live in a community in which he was not permitted to do church work. He regarded this expression of appreciation as a rose plucked from the garden of life and presented to him and of far more value than many wreaths that might be placed on his gasket.

At the close of this fitting reply all joined in "He's a jolly good fellow." The rest of the evening was spent in a singsong with Mrs. Gordon MacMillan officiating at the piano. After refreshments had been served a very pleasant and profitable evening was brought to a close with the National Anthem.
