The funeral of the late R. T. Holman took place yesterday morning. Notwithstanding the early hour a large number of citizens followed the body to the steamer Stanley. The four sons acted as pallbearers. The body was inclosed in a handsome plain black broadcloth covered casket with an outer case of polished quartered oak, both manufactured by A. H. Wadman who had charge of the funeral arrangements. Miss Nora Holman, daughter of the deceased, and William, Leroy and Claude Holman, his sons, and Allan Parsons, his son-in-law, accompanied the body to Montreal.

THE KING'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

E. Parkman Montague, returned yesterday from New Glasgow.

A TELEGRAM was received at St. Paul's yesterday morning, intimating the death of Mrs. McLeod's father, Edmund Anderson, of St. Peter's Bay, Prince Edward Island. -Truro News.

THE S. S. Amelia left on the 12th for the Magdalen with freight and on return loads with fish for Canso and Halifax, shipped by the Whitman Fish Co. and Matthew & McLean.

Mr. McLean has supplied the fishermen with traps, nets, etc. and all the appliances necessary for the capture of the fish. Now that the ice is making on the rivers and ponds, high prices will be paid for smelt. This will be a bonanza for the small boys with hook and line.

The schooners Parthenia, Bona Fides and Aurora arrived at Souris from Canso last week; the Parthenia bound for Charlottetown with coal, the Bona Fides for Cardigan and the Aurora for the Magdalen Islands. The auctioneers at Hubert McDonald's, Reid Corner, Wilnot, which was postponed on account of the storm, will take place on Tuesday the 18th at 10 o'clock, when his farm, stock and implements will be disposed of.

The steamer that carries the movements of the Stanley may be learned from the fact that a gentleman who arrived in Summerside yesterday by that steamer was unable to find out at Sackville whether she was on the route or not. That no mail has yet come by the Stanley after a week's preparation, is no doubt due to the fact that the Post Office authorities do not know that the steamer is running.

CAPT MUTTART and Mrs. Ensign Crego of the Salvation Army were married last evening. The wedding is the culmination of a pretty romance which began eighteen months ago. Capt. Muttart had taken a trip out west, and while there he met Ensign Crego, who was stationed at Edmonton. The happy couple only lately informed their friends of their intentions and the sudden news proved most pleasing. Major Phillips officiated at the wedding last night, which took place in the quarters of Ensign and Mrs. Hudson. The wedding was private. The happy couple left for Bedeque, on Thursday, where Capt. Muttart resides. On account of his father's recent death Capt. Muttart is compelled to leave the army circles as an official for some time, but expects to again enter the fighting line when his private business is straightened out. In the meantime he and his wife will reside at Bedeque. -St. John Sun. Capt. and Mrs. Muttart arrived yesterday by the Minerva and went on to Bedeque in the afternoon.
