Advertisement for W. W. Wellner, Jeweler, featuring images of a knife, fork, and spoon. Text: 'When purchasing consider the constant use they are put to and ask us to show you'.

OUR baby pictures—like all portraits that we make—are natural in pose, properly lighted and beautifully finished. Fast lenses, high class equipment and tireless fact are the reasons for our remarkable success in baby portraiture.

Industries that Are Passing Away

Just as spinning and knitting has been displaced many years ago by machine made goods, so modern methods are doing away with home baking and other old fashioned industries.

Johnson and Johnson, wholesale distributors for the celebrated "Nulite" (Red Blood Tablets), report that the sales of that celebrated remedy through represented in this Province, for but a very short time. There should be no question of the sales reaching the highest figures of any remedy represented in this Province as the remedy is renowned and the manufacturers intend to expand their province of the introduction to the public of this Province. There is no question but the best is the cheapest and the first wealth is health.

Miss Anna Turner, formerly of Dundas, and Malcolm McLeod, formerly of Cape Breton, both of Middleboro, Mass, were united in marriage on Wednesday, June 29th, by Rev C. A. Stanhouse, pastor of Central M. E. Church, at the home of the brides sister, Mrs William Shurman, Everett Street. The couple were attired in white satin and wore a veil, and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. A reception followed at which ice-cream and cake were served. A number of relatives and friends were present. The house was beautifully decorated in green and white. The happy couple left on a short wedding trip and on their return will reside at 15 Union Street, Middleboro. They received many useful presents, and valuable gifts which testified to their popularity.
