THE CENTRAL GUARDIAN

IT PAYS to buy in this province.

JUST ARRIVED.—Call for the Sussex drinks complete assortment at Carvell Bros. 1103-10-7M21.

MEETING.—The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid of the Prince Edward Island Hospital will be held in the Y. M. C. A. Parlors this morning at 11 a. m.

PETROLEUM COKE.—A car of petroleum coke has just arrived for Ward and Deegan. Parties wishing to try this new fuel should place prompt attention to all orders. 1355-16-222.

A FREAK APPLE.—The Guardian was yesterday shown a freak apple in the orchard of Mr. Robertson, Brudenell. The apple is double one joined a little beyond the stem after the manner of the Siamese twins, both apples being perfectly formed. The idea that the apple situation had something to do with the peculiar development probably arose from the fact that the fruit is a freak.

ANNUAL MEETING HELD.—The general annual meeting of Charlottetown Can Co., Limited was held on Oct. 1st when the following directors were re-elected: Messrs John Agnew, H. H. Cox, W. B. Frowse, Russell Clark and C. Fairall Fisher. At a subsequent meeting of Directors, John Agnew was elected President, H. H. Cox, Vice President and C. Fairall Fisher, Secretary Treasurer and Managing Director.

HONORS CONFERRED.—Miss Mary A. Palmer of this city, who had been engaged in the clerical department of the Canadian Red Cross at the Headquarters, Cooks Bay Street, London has received from the headquarters of the order, Colonel Blylock and Lady Drummond a beautifully illustrated card bearing the coat of arms of Canada, and the following inscription: "In grateful recognition of long and faithful service for the Canadian sick and wounded."

A PLEASANT SURPRISE.—On Monday evening last a large number of the people of Hampton and vicinity assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Inman and waited for a miscellaneous shower, prior to her marriage to Mr. John Maynard, a promising young farmer of the western part of the province. At a certain hour two of the girl friends of the bride carried into the room a large basket filled with various useful articles, from Maggie Jigg's rolling-pin to Farmer Jones' bean pot, and as the bride-elect unwrapped each gift and read the amusing verses accompanying each, nothing could be heard for some time but peals of laughter. Although taken completely by surprise Miss Sproule thanked each one for their gifts and assured them of her kindness was much appreciated by her. Refreshments were served by the young ladies after which piano music was given by Mrs. Inman and Miss Freda MacCormack and solo by Mr. Neil Shaw. Miss Mary Inman and Miss MacCormack. Complimentary remarks were made by Mr. John H. Myers and Mr. Inman, after which all joined in singing and sang hymns and the National Anthem and then were brought to the door by special lady's attendants.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.—James J. Morrissy, of Peterville wishes to announce the engagement of his daughter, Margaret Winnifred, to Austin James McDonald, of Free-town. The wedding to take place at an early date. 1405pd.

WANTED.—Limited number pairs standard bred Silver Black Foxes. State number of pairs offered and best spot cash price. All enquiries treated to the strictest confidence. Address SILVER FOXES, Box 238, Summerside, P. E. I. 1412-10-7M21.

MARITIME SYNOD.—The Synod of the Maritime Provinces will meet in St. Paul's Church, Fredericton, N. B., today. Nearly four hundred, including clergymen and elders have signified their intention of being present. The business meetings will be held in the Fraser Memorial Hall of St. Paul's Church. Rev. Dr. Pringle, moderator of the General Assembly, will be present at the Synod, as will Rev. Fr. Clarence McKinnon, Principal of Pictou College, and a number of other notable clergymen. The question of the establishing of a boys' school for Presbyterians in connection with Pictou Academy will come up at this meeting of the synod.

MAYNARD-SPROULE MARRIAGE.—The marriage of Miss Mary A. Palmer, of Hampton, P. E. Island, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 1st, when Miss Minnie I. Carmichael Sproule, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James A. Sproule of Stellarton, N. B., was united in the Holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. John Lester Maynard of Fort Hill, P. E. I., in the presence of a few of the immediate friends and relatives of the bride and groom. The Rev. F. C. MacKay, uncle of the bride performed the ceremony. As the great, great grandfather's clock of the bride, chimed out the hour or two, Miss Olive Sproule, sister of the bride, seated herself at the piano and entered the bridal party on the arm of her uncle the officiating clergyman. The young couple were unattended. The bride looked charming in a dress of electric blue silk and georgette crepe with a touch of heavy lace. She wore her mother's gold necklace and carried a shower bouquet of white dahlias and gladioli. The bridegroom was prettily decorated with boutonniere, ferns and cut flowers. The boy and girl friends of the bride wore colors in the dining room were numerous and costly gifts coming from friends and relatives in Nova Scotia and Winnipeg, and also many presents in Hampton. For the bride's dress was a tailor made suit of brown with hat to match. The young couple will make their home in Charlottetown. (N. S. papers 11-10-1919)

SOLDIER IN BUSINESS.—Mr. Jack Strain, city has purchased the London Grill, on Sunbyside, recently opened by Mr. Nick Cosmas, a Greek. Mr. Strain served overseas with the Second Heavy Battery and was invalided to Canada in 1917 after being severely gassed at Vimy Ridge. He has a fine stand and should meet with much success.

WEDDING BELLS.—The marriage of Miss Helen Vere Norton, of this city, to Mr. Wilfrid Davison, B.Sc., in St. Paul's Church on Saturday afternoon created much interest. The Rev. H. D. Raymond, officiated, quite a number of friends of the popular young couple being present.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. R. E. Norton, Upper Prince Street, and the groom is a native of Birkenhead, England, but lived several years in Canada before his enlistment for overseas service, having been for some time on the staff of the Department of Agriculture in this Province. The couple were unattended. The bride, who was given away by Mr. Justice Fitzgerald, wore a brown velvet suit and beaver hat with ostrich trimmings. She carried a bouquet of white and yellow chrysanthemums. The wedding march was played by the organist, Prof. Earle. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Davison left on the early afternoon train for Borden en route to Quebec. They will sail from there today for Birkenhead, where they will visit the groom's family before departing for Bangalore, India, where Mr. Davison will carry on agricultural work for the Indian government in connection with the live stock branch. The wedding presents comprised many remembrances from friends at home and abroad. There were cheques for substantial amounts as well as gifts in gold. The staff of the Canadian Bank of Commerce where the bride had been employed presented her with a purse of gold.
