Clever Carpentier

Frenchman Would No Doubt Out-general Frank Moran

"Bal" Masterson writes in the New York Telegraph: Any fighter who will stand in one place and slug with Moran stands and excellent chance of being whipped. It is the shifty fellow who knows how and when to feint and move about that puzzle s the big blond Pittsburger. The reason the slugger who refuses to move out of harm's way is easy for Moran is because the latter can take a walop that would put the general run of heavyweights on their back and keep coming in for more. Joe Beckett, the English champion, probably hit Moran as hard as the latter hit him and perhaps oftener, but he couldn't put the Pittsburger down, while he himself couldn't stand up after taking the Moran Mary Ann. That, no doubt, will account for Moran being the heavyweight champion of England at the present time. Anyway, Moran must not expect Carpentier, to do as Beckett did if he ever fights him. Carpentier knows the game too well to follow that plan of battle. The French champion is a mighty shifty fellow on his feet; besides he has an active brain that is always working at a mile a minute. And best of all he has the punch that brings home the bacon. But no matter about all that, Moran is a bug, who honestly believes he can beat any man living, not barring Dempsey. Some fighters get that way after being walloped about the head for a number of years, and Moran is one of them, and it's not a bad trait at all, even if it doesn't always get the money. In the centre of the ring, with a shifty fellow who can punch in front of him, Frank Moran is just an ordinary selling piater, but with his man standing toe to toe and trading punches or pinned against the ropes Moran is a bear. A bear because nature has endowed him with a stout heart and unlimited stamina.

A punch that would drop the ordinary run of fighters merely makes Moran set his jaws and swing all the harder. And, make no mistake, that sort of a fighter is very discouraging to the other fellow. Anyway, Frank Moran is now the big noise along the Strand, in London, and other places where the fancy fore-gather in the English metropolis. Hope Frank gets lots of money for himself on the other side, but hope he doesn't dissipate it as foolishly as he did that last chunk he got over here. Frank's business is fighting, not playing a star part as a Romeo. Eh, Frank, what about it?

Minard's Liniment Co., Limited

Gentlemen.—Ever since coming home from the Boer war I have been bothered with running fever sores on my legs. I tried many salves and liniments; and doctor-ed continually for the blood, but got no permanent relief, till last winter when my mother got me to try MINARD'S LINIMENT. The effect of which was almost magical. After two bottles the sores completely disappeared and I have worked every working day since.

ACCIDENTLY SHOT.—Willie Sinclair, aged three years, son of J. Sinclair, of Alma, Albert county, was taken to the Moncton Hospital suffering from a bullet wound in the abdomen. The child was accidentally shot by his brother, who was playing with a twenty-two rifle. The bullet entered the lad's abdomen and came out through his back above the right hip. An operation was performed on the patient upon his arrival at the hospital and his condition tonight is reported serious.

U. S. WAR FINANCE BODY REVIVED.—The Senate passed the agricultural committee resolution directing the revival of the War Finance Corporation as a measure affording relief to farmers. The second section of the resolution which as introduced would have directed the extension of liberal credits to farmers by the Federal Reserve System, was amended to make the desirability of such a course only an expression of opinion of Congress.

BANKERS ABANDON PLAN.—Plans of United States and Canadian bankers to take over loans of between $40,000,000 and $50,000,000 held by Cuban bankers against sugar growers of the island have been abandoned, it was announced after a series of conferences at New York.
