Vapo-Cresolene

Established 1879

Whooping Cough, Croup, Bronchitis Cough, Grip, Asthma, Diphtheria

Cresolene is a boon to Asthmatics

Does it not seem more effective to breathe in a remedy to cure disease of the breathing organs than to take the remedy into the stomach?

It cures because the air rendered strongly antiseptic is carried over the diseased surface with every breath, giving prolonged and constant treatment. It is invaluable to mothers with small children.

Those of a consumptive tendency find immediate relief from coughs or inflamed conditions of the throat.

The Fernwood building which now stands on the corner of Church and Summer Streets, Summerside and which, when rejuvenated, will be a strikingly, handsome one, is a house with a history. It was built by the late Judge Pope at a cost of $18000 and at the time was probably the most elaborately and expensively finished private residence in the province. The material was selected by Mr. Pope personally and he spared neither pains nor expense in hunting up just what he wanted. That he selected wisely is evidenced by the present condition of the building. Its clear pine clapboards are as sound and whole as when the building was erected. There is not a knot nor a defect visible in the whole outside covering. The roughboarding is planed, grooved and tongued pine; the window casings are hard or pitch-pine and perfectly weather proof. There are marble mantles in eight rooms, all handsomely finished. The stair rails are of solid mahogany and all the inside finish in the building is of the best. The house has been vacant for many years, owing partly to its inconvenient location and largely to the cost of maintenance inseparable from such a large and elaborate house. It could have been sold but for the fact that no contractor would undertake to haul it to Summerside and it lay an idle and expensive ornament to its owner, until Dr James McDonald purchased it last Autumn with the intention of moving it into Summerside. For a time it threatened to become a white elephant on his hands. He solicited every contractor in the province offering almost all kinds of money for moving it but no one would undertake it. They all declared it impossible. The doctor however was not hankering after white elephants and he decided to move it in himself. He accordingly ordered the building of such apparatus as he considered necessary; engaged about twenty men and began the job. In thirteen days after he started the main building 55 x 36 ft and 30 ft post was placed in position on the site of the burned Russ Hotel, an annex 35 x 20 ft having been located on a lot owned by him on North Market Street. The job was a big one, there were many obstacles in the way and Dr James McDonald deserves and is receiving, unbounded credit for his pluck in accomplishing it. He purposes fitting it up at once as a hotel. That the undertaking may prove a success and net its plucky owner a handsome profit is the hope of all those who have been interested spectators of the progress to Summerside.

THE Presbyterian choir is to be congratulated on the entertainment given last night in the Market Hall, Summerside. Long before opening the program every seat was occupied. The program was particularly pleasing, every number being encored. Miss Morray had already delighted Summerside audiences and she fulfilled every expectation. Her rendering of Angus Macdonald was exceptionally good as were also the several selections she gave on being recalled. Miss Harrison who for the first time faced a Summerside audience, was also particularly good in her selections and in her rendering of them. The old favorites Mrs. W. S. Bearisto, Miss I. F. Schurman, Miss Ida Melrose, Miss Irene Duncan and Miss Perle Hinton performed their several parts exceedingly well and appeared in quartettes and double mixed quartettes. Fred McSween gave a solo and was recalled some half dozen times. The audience appeared to be insatiable. Miss Lilian Cunningham gave a violin obligato solo in conjunction with a tenor solo by Fred McSween, with Mrs. Campbell as accompanist on the piano. Miss Ruby McDonald one of the coming players gave a beautifully rendered piano solo; Mrs. T. W. Bates gave a splendid rendition of a humorous selection, Farmer and Wheel. The accompanists were: Mrs. Campbell, organist of the Presbyterian church, Mrs. Strathie and Mrs. Gordon, Master Robert Gordon, aged 10, surprised and delighted the audience with a vocal solo exceedingly well rendered, considering his age. Mrs. Campbell, under whose direction the entertainment was given, deserves much praise for the unqualified success that attended her efforts.
