IN MEMORIAM

MR. JAMES GILLIS

The funeral took place on Sept. 25th, of the late James Gillis of Uigg, who passed away at the Sanatorium at St. John, N.B., Sept. 22nd. After a brief service at the home, the procession proceeded to St. Andrew's United Church, Orwell, headed by representatives of the Canadian Legion. The service was conducted by Rev. A. S. Weir, assisted by Rev. D. M. Sinclair.

Mr. Gillis was born at Orwell, P. E. I. on June 12th, 1877. He went overseas in 1915, with the 102nd Battalion. Wounded in 1917, he returned from the front, to England. In November of that year he went back to France and in the following year was gassed. In March, 1919, he returned to Canada, bringing with him his wife, formerly Miss Wright, to whom he was married in England in 1917.

For three years he then carried on farming operations at Kinross, when his health failed so that he was compelled to enter the Sanatorium at Kentville where he remained for a year. He then returned to his province and made his home at Uigg, where he and his family from that on resided. Tuberculosis however had made such inroads on his health that from that time he was unfitted for work. Everything was done for him that could be done but after a hard and brave fight, he succumbed to the dread disease. He was highly regarded by all who knew him, for his fine personal qualities as well as for his services rendered during the Great War. Concerning his experiences there, he was like most soldiers, very reticent. It is known, however, that he took part in some of the war's most serious action.

After the church service the great crowd filed past the casket which was draped with his Country's Flag, and also surrounded with beautiful flowers. The service was simple but the favourite hymns of the deceased were sung, some words of scripture read by Mr. Sinclair, a brief address by the minister which included a reference to Mr. Gillis' manifest trust in the Divine Care which attended him through life and sustained him to the last. A beautiful duet was sung by Mrs. Gault Murray and Mrs. W. A. Jenkins.

At the cemetery after the committal service, the Legion carried out their impressive military burial rites, under the direction of Mr. McLagan of Montague, the President of the Provincial Branch. The beautiful September sun was beginning to dip towards the west, still shedding its warm light upon the green sward of the quiet churchyard, as The Last Post and Reveille having been sounded by a Comrade, and the word of benediction given by the pastor, the people turned quietly away leaving the soldier who had journeyed far to serve his country, to his well earned rest beneath the soil of the place he loved so well, his home his native land.

Deep sympathy goes out to the bereaved wife and family of five children, three boys and two girls. The floral tributes were lovely and included tokens of love from wife and children, sisters, brothers and personal friends.

Y's Men Sponsor Zasu Pitts—Guy Kibbee—Edward Horton In "Going Highbrow" At The Prince Edward

One of the most riotous comedies of the season was shown for the first time locally at the Prince Edward Theatre yesterday in co-operation with the Charlottetown Y's Men.

It is a Warner Bros. production, entitled "Going Highbrow," rich in humor, unusual situations and sparkling dialogue. This company has a knack of picking out unique and modern subjects, some of which, as this one, play on the fables of the people in general. It is both true to life, up-to-the-minute, and outside of that grand entertainment.

The picture is based on the hilarious play by Ralph Spence and concerns the wife of a Kansas farmer, suddenly become rich, who hires herself a publicity man, and adopts a waitress as a daughter, to launch herself into New York's socially elect.

The Kansas farmer is a simple and honest soul, but is ruled by his dominant wife and the agony he goes through would make anyone laugh.

Guy Kibbee, as the farmer has never put over a finer characterization in his life, in this reviewer's opinion. He makes his character so real, one would think he had the actual experience. As a matter of fact, Kibbee has seen tougher times before he reached screen stardom, and probably did feel the situation personally.

Zasu Pitts, the ambitious wife is always a scream, but in this picture she is given an unusual opportunity to display her artistry.

Edward Everett Horton is excellent in his role of the blundering publicity manager, who stages the plan to go highbrow in order to finance an aristocratic, but impoverished family.

The romantic leads are handled by Ross Alexander and June Marley, both of the Broadway stage, who recently went to Hollywood and are now "Going Highbrow," in a manner of speaking. Both do the fine work that one would expect of experienced stage players.

Gordon Westcott, of course, plays the villain of the production, and Judy Canova, of the famous Canova family, has an important role. If anyone enjoys a good laugh, and who doesn't, they should not miss this picture. They also will have the pleasure of listening to catchy music by Louis Alter and John Scholl.

Ann Harding—Herbert Marshall In "Flame Within" At The Capitol

At last Ann Harding comes to the screen in the type of role that won her fame on the legitimate stage.

It was in a highly dramatic production that the New York critics hailed her as another Bernhardt, a young Duse... but as the result of an early screen success in a light, comedy-drama role she almost invariably has been cast in such parts.

Highly Emotional Role In "The Flame Within" however, which opened last evening at the Capitol Theatre, she portrays the highly emotional part of a noted woman psychiatrist. It is a dramatic, vital absorbing drama every step of the way.

Sharing the star honors with the blonde cameo beauty is Herbert Marshall, who is seen with her for the first time. Marshall is the handsome, capable doctor who seems to always have been in love with the youthful psychoanalyst.

Maureen O'Sullivan, as a neurotic girl, proves that her fine dramatic performance in "Barretts of Wimpole Street" was no accident. She actually surpasses that portrayal in this story.

A newcomer of great promise, Louis Hayward, makes his motion picture debut in "The Flame Within," as the likable ne'er-do-well who becomes involved in two love affairs. After seeing him in this screen play it is not difficult to understand why he was awarded the Vanity Fair medal for the best stage performance of the year in Noel Coward's "Point Valaine."

Stephenson as "Dr. Jock"

Henry Stephenson, as the "holsterous" "Dr. Jock" friend and confidant of Herbert Marshall, gives his usual flawless characterization.

For those looking for something definitely new in story, treatment and stirring dialogue, for those who like romance as it really is and not as some writer imagines, "The Flame Within" will prove an engaging piece of photoplay entertainment.

IN MEMORIAM

WILFRED F. DOIRON

When the leaves were beginning to fall and nature was going to her rest, God chose to call to his eternal rest, Wilfred F. Doiron beloved son of Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse R. Doiron of Mayfield.

Death is sad under any circumstance, but it is very sad when it comes to one in early manhood.

The deceased enjoyed perfect health till about two weeks previous to his death.

During his illness he was visited by his pastor, Rev. Father McDonald, and was fortified by the last rites of the Church. He passed away to his eternal reward on September 26th.

Wilfred was a general favorite among both young and old, being of a happy and cheerful disposition. He leaves to mourn, besides his heart-broken parents, four brothers, Leo, Louis, Reggie, Walter and four sisters, Alma, Muriel, Verna and Yvonne.

The funeral which was largely attended, was held from his home to St. Ann's Church, Hope River. He was laid to rest in the family plot besides his two little brothers. The pall bearers who were all close friends of the deceased were: Alvin Gallant, Vernon Parson, Elmer Peters, Alban Peters, Joseph Buote, Ernie Buote.

May his soul rest in peace.

Powerful Narcotics Ring Uncovered In New Orleans

(A.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Selling of a powerful narcotics ring in New Orleans whose activities were linked with a bizarre revolutionary plot against the Honduran government was announced today by Harry J. Anslinger, the United States Commissioner of Narcotics.

He said 13 men and $75,000 worth of heroin were taken in a series of raids Saturday night in "the most important" capture of the year. He said the ring was responsible for 80 per cent of the narcotic traffic in the United States south and as "sidelines" frequently engaged in liquor smuggling.

To newsmen gathered in his office, Anslinger unfolded a story of revolutionary plans in Honduras which embraced the killing of a government official there.

Investigations begun by his agents last March, he said, "disclosed that the proceeds from the sale of the heroin was to be used for the purchase of guns for the opposition party in Honduras."

These arms were to be shipped before the next elections in the South American republic.

Anslinger said that a short time ago Dr. Francisco Sanchez, director of public health in Honduras, "was killed for refusing to issue a certificate for the release of these narcotics."

"This assassination has been traced to the ring," he said.

Rocked By Earth Shocks

(C. F. Cable)

(By Guardian's Special Wire)

PLYMOUTH, Montserrat, Oct. 6.—Rocked by intermittent earth shocks for two years, this tropical island is trembling again and terrifying its 13,000 inhabitants, living around the coast at the foot of volcanic hills.

There has not been a recurrence of the disastrous quakes of last December and last May, when nearly every stone building on the island was made unsafe, but rumblings of the last week are believed to presage further destruction.

Rumbling near Spoutiers, an active volcano, early in the week was followed by a sharp shock Wednesday. Almost incessant light tremors were felt until another shock occurred Friday. All was quiet Saturday but buildings were rocked again today and the tremor was felt by residents of Antigua, 75 miles away.

All volcanologists in the West Indies are anxiously charting the actions of Spoutiers, fearing lest another disaster like the one of 1902 may be in the making.

FRANCE BALKS AT STIFF SANCTIONS

Laval Hopeful Of Obtaining Mandate For Italy Of Ethiopian Lowlands.

(By Richard G. Massock Associated Press Staff Writer)

PARIS, Oct. 6.—Despatches from Geneva today reported Premier Laval was opposed to immediate application of stiff sanctions against Italy. His attitude was understood to coincide with a large section of the French public.

The anti-sanctions bloc is largely conservative, supported by an important section of the press. They manifested their disapproval of such a course last night when 15,000 of them demonstrated in the boulevards.

Some of the demonstrators shouted "neutrality."

Unlike Laval, whose opposition is based on his hope that Mussolini will come to terms before the League of Nations assembly meets Wednesday, the conservatives' attitude is governed by a fear that exercise of sanctions will throw Italy into the arms of Adolf Hitler.

Plans Talk With Duce

The newspaper Paris-Midi, said Laval planned a weekend telephone conversation with the Italian Dictator. French officials were not available for comment on the paper's assertion that Laval proposed to establish a basis for negotiations acceptable to both.

Laval's agreement with Anthony Eden, Britain's League spokesman, calls for refusal of loans to Italy, a ban on arms exportations and metals for war purposes to Mussolini's Government, and the lifting of the Ethiopian arms embargo as soon as sanctions are voted, according to Geneva correspondent close to the Premier.

"Fertinax," in Echo De Paris asserted that Laval when he talked with Eden Thursday, was prepared to go even further and reduce, if not entirely prohibit, the importation of goods from Italy.

Press View

The usually well-informed newspaper L'oeuvr said, however, that the French Premier favors sticking to a policy of slow, progressive application of sanctions while the British want a full program immediately enforced.

The French, moreover, are authoritatively reported firmly opposed to blockades or military sanctions. Laval is widely represented as hoping to get Italy to accept League mandate over the Ethiopian lowlands and apply the League committee's five's proposition (the rest to African Empire).

(The case of five proposed the appointment of foreign advisers to act as heads of various Ethiopian departments, including police, finance, communications and general administration.)

Asked To Stick by Facts

The French Government was asked to "remain faithful" to its engagements and pacts" in a resolution adopted at a convention at Orleans of Radical Socialists headed by Edouard Herriot, Minister without portfolio.

The resolution expressed the wish that "the hostilities so brutally begun in Ethiopia end as soon as possible without compromising the understandings necessary to European peace or violating any of the essential principles accepted at Geneva."

INCREASE IN R.W.Y. EARNINGS

OTTAWA, Oct. 6.—An increase of 3.9 per cent was shown in Canadian Railway earnings in July, when they amounted to $28,187,198 against $26,206,058 in the corresponding month last year, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics reported yesterday.

Operating expenses increased from $22,085,700 in July, 1934 to $22,754,131, and net operating revenue increased from $3,140,358 to $3,433,067. Revenue freight traffic was heavier than in 1934 by 8.6 per cent and passenger traffic increased by 5.2 per cent. The total pay roll amounting to $14,082,258 was $1,351,197 heavier than last year and the number of employees increased from 123,409 to 128,722.

Greens revenues for the seven months, ended July, were $165,625,376 against $165,399,258 in 1934, but increases in operating expenses reduced the operating income from $14,636,124 in 1934 to $10,534,432.

Seek Permission To Fight For Ethiopia

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana Oct. 6.—Five hundred British Guiana negroes at a conference here today sent a petition to the King through the colonial secretary asking to be allowed to fight for Ethiopia.

"Twenty years ago negroes fought to save white civilization. Surely they cannot now be refused permission to fight for what they regard as symbol of their own civilization," declared T. A. Wright, president of one of the negro organizations represented at the conference.

The resolution expressed the wish that the King should be asked to be allowed to fight for Ethiopia.

Dr. Roberts said a deficit of $100,000 would have to be met if the missionaries were to be retained. The Church hopes to reach 1,000 business men who are willing to contribute $100 each.

"We are going to take our stand here and now and stem the tide," he declared.

Rev. George Williams reported the United Church stood third in missionary givings. Dr. Gordon Sisco suggested there be less talk about money and more discussion of the Church's work, in church circles.

HIS MAJESTY GIVES FORMAL ASSENT TO THE MARRIAGE OF HIS THIRD SON

LONDON, Oct. 7.—His Majesty the King today gave formal assent to the marriage of his third son, the Duke of Gloucester to Lady Alice Scott.

Consent to the marriage was given under the great seal of the realm, the token of executive sovereignty. The seal consists of two massive silver discs, elaborately engraved and hinged together. The cord which is attached to the document of consent is inserted between the discs and molten sealing wax poured in producing an impression as big as a muffin.

The Privy Council at which consent was given lasted only a quarter of an hour. Attending were the Archbishop of Canterbury, Lord Halifax, Prims Minister Baldwin Ramsay MacDonald and Sir John Simon. Except for the ceremony of the formal consent, the council was occupied with routine business.

The King's return to London, it was said, was without significance in the international situation. His Majesty, in fact, is likely to remain only a few days, going to Sandringham for the shooting until just before the wedding.

The suggestion is mooted in Edinburgh that the Duke and Duchess of Gloucester may make their permanent residence at Holyrood Palace.
