Says Imperial War Cabinet Impractical

LONDON, Dec. 16.—(CP)—Dominion Secretary Clement Attlee said today formation of an Imperial War Cabinet or Supreme Allied War Council "sounds nice and logical but, unfortunately, it is completely impractical."

"You cannot conduct a war by means of a mass meeting," Attlee added in an address to the Royal Empire Society of London.

"It is impossible for responsible leaders to be continuously absent from their countries nor can they give plenary powers to someone to represent them in a supreme council."

"The assemblage of delegates who would have to report back very important questions to their governments would slow down the whole machine."

Attlee gave these statistics on armed men in the Empire—

Canada (pop. 11,419,896)—active army, 335,000; navy, 45,000 and 460 ships; air force, 150,000.

Australia (pop. 6,997,326)—navy, 20,000; air force, 100,000; army, 250,000.

New Zealand (pop. 1,732,810)—overseas army, 66,000; air force, more than 27,000.

South Africa (pop. 3,003,897 European)—in 1941: army 130,000; air force 22,000.

Newfoundland (pop. 239,588)—one man in every four between the ages of 20 and 47 has volunteered to serve abroad.

Southern Rhodesia (pop. 69,013 European; 1,372,906 Native)—air force, more than 1,000 Europeans.

In Memoriam

DR. ADA MACKAY

Dr. Ada Elizabeth MacKay, 831 Yelania Ave., for many years a sanitarist, died Saturday at her home. She was 78 years old. She had retired from practice two years ago.

Dr. MacKay was born on Prince Edward Island, Canada, and was graduated from Prince of Wales College there. She received an M. L. A. (Master of Liberal Arts) at Mount Allison University at Sackville, New Brunswick. She received doctors' degrees from Washington State Naturopathic Association and Universal San-practice College. She taught elocution at Pacific College in Newberg, Or., and has been a dramatic reader. She was a member of the First Presbyterian Church.

Surviving are her husband, John; two sisters, Mrs. Thomas McRae of Seattle and Mrs. Frank Howard of Prince Edward Island; and a brother, Dr. H. P. Howard of Everett.

Funeral services were held in the chapel of Arthur A. Wright and Sons' funeral home. The Rev. Angus Matheson of Georgetown Presbyterian Church conducted the services, assisted by the Rev. Paul McConkey of First Presbyterian Church.

Remarkable Child In Cast Of Gusty Picture

A new baby star has arisen on Hollywood's horizon to add his name to the list started by Jackie Coogan and continuing down the years to Baby Sandy.

The newest infant actor is Baby Harold Michael Barnitz, thirteen-months-old, apple-cheeked youngster who makes his screen bow to the public in the picture "Butch Minds the Baby," which also features Virginia Bruce, Brod Crawford, Dick Foran, Porter Hall and Shemp Howard.

Bright Future Predicted

Director Albert S. Rogell, who directed the picture, calls Baby Mike "one in a million" and predicts a brilliant screen future for him.

"Butch Minds the Baby," based on an original magazine story by Damon Runyon, comes today to the Capitol Theatre. It is the story of a hardened, but sentimental safecracker who meets the baby under unusual circumstances. "Butch," the safe-cracker, is a "three-time loser" that is, he has been convicted three times, and on more offense will send him "up the river" for life. Despite this risk, "Butch" pulls on the fast job, but finds himself in the undignified position of having to take the baby along with him on the safe-cracking expedition.

Has Human Interest

The story of "Butch," said to be Runyon's favorite character, contains the same hard-boiled human interest elements which made "Fule the Miss Marker" such a screen success.

LONDON.—(CP)—Somebody should tell British farmers that Christmas cheer is assured. Shakespearian Milton, in a letter to Keats, said Italian Minister of Education Bottai, complaining that bombs had damaged art buildings and statuary.

Queen's Canadian Special Christmas Fund For Children

The Queen's Canadian Fund is conducting a special appeal for money to give Christmas cheer to British children who are deprived of the traditional family Christmas.

Many of them are war orphans, many of them are children still suffering from the effects of bombing. Many others have not seen their parents for months or years.

Officials of the Lord Mayor's Fund are making the plans and will organize the scheme.

There will be no administrative expenses deducted either in Canada or the United Kingdom, from the public subscriptions. The dollar given to the Queen's Fund "Children's Christmas" appeal will be devoted in its entirety to this cause.

No attempt will be made to ship goods in kind. Cash only will be transmitted, and subscriptions should be earmarked "CHILDREN'S CHRISTMAS." Every cent will be used to bring something of good cheer to children for whom Christmas Day this year would otherwise be just like any other day.

The Lord Mayor of London has cabled the warmest appreciation of this Christmas appeal. It is supplementary to the Fund's continuing appeal for war victims of all ages, whose needs still continue and may sharply increase in the winter raids.

Children's Christmas contributions may be sent to:—

or to any of the Fund's collecting agencies, which include the Royal Trust Company, Charlottetown.

Received recently:—

Staff Officers' wives of the R. A.F., proceeds of dance $200.00.

CONCERT-SOCIAL BY MISSION BAND UNITED CHURCH

On Friday a delightful evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Cairns, Burnside Road, when the Mission Band in connection with the Summer-side United Church held a combined concert and social under the direction of the superintendent, Mrs. John Scott. This Mission Band was organized eight months ago and already has promise of being a splendid organization. The children, ranging in age from 4 to 12 years of age, without exception did their parts unusually well.

Mrs. Scott announced the following program: Chorus, Tell Me the Stories of Jesus; piano solo, Miss Frances Waugh; the Mission Band Purposes, by Miss Mary Tredenic; duet, Away in a Manger, Miss Birdie and Miss Mary Cairns; solo, "Beautiful Christmas Eve," Miss George Burgess; piano solo, Frances Waugh; exercise, A Cry from the Heavens, by Birdie Cairns, Vera MacArthur, Bradie Clark, Wilfred MacArthur; solo, True Christmas, George Burgess; recitation, Little Brown Girl and 1. Betty Lou Tredenic; solo, Silent Night, Frances Waugh; recitation, John Tredenic; solo, George Burgess; piano solo, Frances Waugh.

At the conclusion of the program a story was read by Mrs. Scott. The children put their mite boxes in a nicely decorated basket and a generous contribution was given by the audience. The Lord's Prayer in unison was the concluding number. The pianists were Miss Frances Waugh and Mrs. Clark MacQuarrie.

Bradie Clark read an address to Mrs. Scott and Betty Lou Tredenic presented her with a framed picture in appreciation of her work in the Mission Band.

Following refreshments music was enjoyed, piano duets being played by Mrs. Ben. Cairns and Mrs. Brenton Waugh. Several Christmas carols were sung and old time songs. A vote of thanks was given the Cairns family for making such an enjoyable evening possible.

Dorothy Dix Says—

A woman has to take care of her little children, is the most subject slavery on earth. There isn't a moment of the day or night when there isn't an incessant call for M-o-o-l-l-i-e-e. There are little mouths to be fed. Little bodies to be bathed and dressed. Formulas to be fixed. Clothes to be laundered. Restless little feet to be watched. Naps to be taken. Quarrels to be settled. Bumps to be kissed and made well. And when Mother has a single idle moment she can always change the baby.

Little children are all work and no play, but the pleasure comes when you feel your babies' head upon your breast and little arms around your necks; when tiny helpless hands cling to yours, and you watch little minds unfold. Troublesome as your babies are and much as they have gotten on your nerves, I'll bet that you would not exchange them for the most carefree existence in the world.
