FOR OBLIGATORY ARBITRATION

Delegates at the Hague Now Seeking to Create A Permanent Court on Terms Which Germany May Accept.

THE HAGUE, August 20—(Special)—Nearly all of the Governments have sent instructions to their delegates to make an effort to bring about some kind of obligatory arbitration and also the establishment of a permanent court of arbitration in order to save the conference from failure. The efforts of the delegates are now directed towards the arrangement of a treaty of obligation acceptable to Germany, which country, although admitting the principle of compulsion, has so far opposed as a world treaty, arguing that it would tend to minimize, rather than promote obligatory arbitration. It is held that it will only be possible to conclude a convention providing for obligatory arbitration among the powers which agree to do it.

SALVATION ARMY COLONIZATION

For New Ontario, On Ten Township Offered at Twenty-Five Cents Per Acre—Scheme Likely to Be Successful

TORONTO, August 20—(Special)—Fifty thousand dollars may be advanced by Hon. Senator Cox furthering a Salvation Army colonization scheme in New Ontario. It is said the plans have been approved by Gen. Booth and the Ontario Government and now await the sanction of a joint commission. The Government is to sell the Salvation Army ten townships comprising about 230,000 acres in Nipissing at 25 cents an acre and payment will be spread over a period of years. Homesteads will be 100 acres in extent and 144 settlers will be located in each township. Senator Cox says the land and climate conditions were satisfactory and the scheme would probably succeed.

CAPE BRETON TORIES ANXIOUS

SYDNEY, Aug. 19.—The Conservative leaders in Cape Breton are greatly perturbed over the forthcoming appearance of O. E. Tanner, M. P., who is billed as Mr. R. L. Borden's chief platform supporter at the meeting of the leader of the Opposition in this County. It is taken for granted that Mr. Tanner will make a strong deliverance on the question of Provincial Prohibition which he placed as above all other issues in his recent campaign in Hants.

MORE CAPITAL FOR CANADA

MONTREAL, Aug. 19.—The story is that English and French capitalists are about to establish a trust company here with a capital of five millions. Although details are being withheld for the time being, a Montreal financier said yesterday that a large amount of capital would soon be brought to this country, although he could not yet say what turn the affairs would take. He said that capitalists were getting apprehensive of affairs in the United States, and as the political situation was by no means certain in South America, he now believed we would see very large investments made in the Dominion. In a word he considered the trust story well founded.

Warmly Endorses Consolidated Schools—Parents Who Love Their Children Will Make Sacrifices to Secure Them the Best Possible Education.

There was a pleasant outing to the Hillsboro Consolidated School yesterday, the occasion being the visit of Their Excellencies and the viceregal party to that noted institution which the Province owes to the beneficence of Sir William McDonald. The principal dignitaries drove out in carriages, among the number being Lord and Lady Grey, Lady Evelyn and Lady Sybil, the Lieutenant Governor and Mrs. McKinnon, Premier and Mrs. Peters, Hon. Messrs. Cummins, Haskard and Anderson the Mayor and a number of the City Councillors. A much larger party went over by special train which left the City station shortly after ten o'clock and which arrived at Hillsboro considerably in advance of the carriage party. Among those present from other parts were Revs. Gillis, Archibald and McPhee, Alexander Martin, M. P., Walter Sampson and J. Armas Clark of Bayview, Armas Moffatt of New Glasgow, and others. The school grounds were at their best, the vegetation rich and green, the cultivated plots neatly kept, the front enclosure decorated with many miniature flags, and the prospect on every side bright and inspiring. The program included a visit to the class rooms, and inspection of the work in the manual training department, the singing of the Red, White and Blue by the children, the presentation of a bouquet to Lady Grey, an address by His Excellency followed by the singing of the Maple Leaf, a brief address by Premier Peters, the song What Can I Do for England, followed by an address from Dr. Anderson and the National Anthem. The chief interest for the pupils was no doubt the meeting with the distinguished visitors from abroad, while for more mature minds it centered in the thoughtful and inspiring address of the Governor General. A number had driven long distances in order to have the opportunity of hearing him. Lord Grey spoke without notes, and in a conversational tone, modestly disclaiming any intention of making a speech, as that would imply preparation. He had come to see how the school had progressed in the two years since his previous visit which he had greatly enjoyed, and hoped he would be justified in always expecting like fine weather when he came again. Since his previous visit he had crossed British America from Newfoundland to Vancouver, a distance greater than from England to the Caspian Sea. Travelling across this vast and fertile land he saw in a vision when it would be filled with myriads of homes and what the character of that citizenship would be must depend on the influences that hover over the cradle and surround those who are young in years. If these influences tend to produce a God-fearing man-servant population then the future of Canada is safe. Two recollections of his preceding visit came vividly back to his mind. One was of a mother, who with tears in her voice had gratefully contrasted this McDonald School with the school her children had before attended. The other was of eating strawberries under the shade of a tree at the fine farm of Mr. Byrver, Secretary of this local School Board. This led him to speak of the small, ill-equipped school with an underpaid young woman teacher, "merely marking time till the right man appeared on the horizon of her life." Such schools should no longer exist in Canada. Parents who love their children would make any sacrifice, even to very scanty diet in order that their children might have the advantage of proper training and education. If the Maritime Provinces permit the growing work to lure away their best teachers by giving them more salary there would be little hope for this country. He believed the Consolidated Schools had a great work to do and would solve one of the most difficult of our problems. They had fine material to work upon. He was impressed with the fine physique of the Guard of Honor which turned out to meet him when he came. He never saw a finer body of men. They had the great privilege of being brought up in the open fields, the free air and sunlight, Educate our young people and we should have their sturdy manhood at its best and more such farms and such strawberries as he had partaken of at Mr. Boyer's. Schools like this prepare the way for the duplication and multiplication of all that is best in the country, for they train the head, the heart and the hands. It is said the British people are slow to take up with improvements, that it requires three generations before they will adopt a new plan, even if it be a good one. Here he had hoped that improved education such as the Consolidated Schools supply would accomplish the work and bridge the gulf in one generation. In St. John he had seen a farm on which under one good and capable woman a company of boys, walls and strays from the old land, were being successfully trained to be good, industrious citizens. He could not but think what if there were 500 such farms doing, like work. So also he hoped to see the uplifting and educative force of the Consolidated School become more and more a feature of the rural life of the Dominion. His Excellency's address of which the above is a mere outline was frequently applauded throughout and at the close. Premier Peters was warmly in favor of Consolidated Schools and hoped to see them multiplied in this Province. Dr. Anderson spoke officially of the splendid work that had been done by Principal Jones, who at the outset had an exceedingly difficult task before him. He believed the good work would go on under Principal McLennan, and that the school would be an object lesson for the entire Province. Governor McKinnon presented the thanks of the school board, the teachers and pupils of the entire community to His Excellency for his visit and his instructive and inspiring address. NOTES. When the Governor General and his party landed yesterday morning at half past ten they were met on the wharf by Lieut. Governor McKinnon, Premier Peters and Mrs. Peters, Hon. F. L. Haskard and Miss Haskard, Sir Louis and Lady Davies, Hon. J. H. Cummins, Mayor Paton, and the City Councillors, Major Weeks, Admiral Tibery and other officers of the French cruiser Klobber as well as many citizens. After welcomes had been extended three cheers were given by the people assembled, and then the party drove to Government House, preparatory to driving to the Consolidated School. A very pleasant and successful dinner party was given at Government House last night, the guests including the Governor General's party, Admiral Chibery of the Klobber and Madame Chibery (who is accompanying her husband on the present cruise) and other invited guests. Today His Excellency and party will leave by special train for Georgetown to attend the Scottish Gathering. After they leave the Minto, that vessel will leave this port for Georgetown, and upon the conclusion of the games the Governor General and party will go on board the Minto which will then leave for Quebec, as His Excellency is due in Ottawa on the 24th.

SPENT TWO AND HALF MILLIONS

LONDON, Eng., Aug. 18.—Sir Humphrey Francis de Trafford, Bart., of Market Harborough, who came up for his public examination at Leicestershire University Court recently, has had a remarkable financial career. Eighteen years after his father's death Sir Humphrey was consequently in debt to the extent of nearly half a million, and although he was receiving out of the De Trafford estates £48,000 a year, he was paying out of that £22,000 a year for interest on loans and £25,000 for premiums on life policies. The Official Receiver said the whole of the liabilities were not yet filled, but at present they stood at £21,000, with assets £2,175. Asked if he could explain in general terms how he came to get through such a vast sum of money as half a million between 1888 and 1901, Sir Humphrey admitted that he lost large sums of money by betting and horsebreeding.

HON. EDW. BLAKE BACK TO CANADA

TORONTO, Aug. 18.—Hon. Edward Blake, M. P., for South Langford, arrived in Toronto on Saturday, and will live here for a future. He crossed the Atlantic in the Empress of Britain. Samuel C. Blake, the son of the distinguished statesman, said his father had stood the voyage well although the railroad journey from Quebec had been somewhat fatiguing. So far as the ocean voyage is concerned, Mr. Blake enjoyed it extremely and was frequently carried to the deck, where he took evident enjoyment in watching the pastimes of the passengers and discussing the ordinary events of life on shipboard. "Mentally my father is as vigorous as ever," said Samuel Blake, "although of course, he cannot walk without assistance the paralytic stroke having taken away the use of his left side entirely. The doctors, are, however, hopeful that the effects of the seizure will pass gradually away although, of course, it will take so long a time for a complete restoration to physical activity."

QUIDA SUES FOR HEAVY DAMAGES

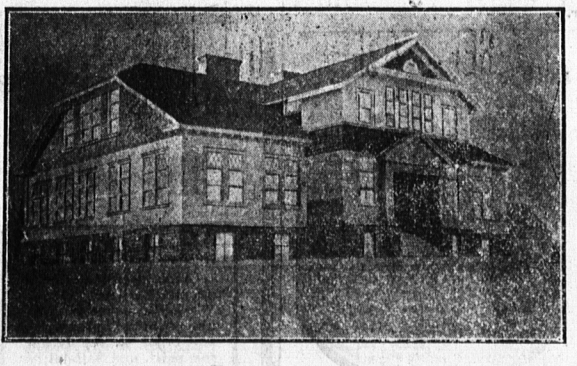

LONDON, Aug. 18.—The Milan correspondent of the Chronicle says that Ouida the novelist, has begun a lawsuit against two sons of the Belgian Consul at Lagos, Tuscany, for £10,000 damages. Ouida, some time ago summoned the defendant for unlawfully entering her domicile and they were sentenced to imprisonment. They appealed and the higher court confirmed the sentence. Ouida in order to save them from imprisonment consented to the case being annulled on their undertaking to pay an indemnity. Their non-compliance with this agreement led to the present suit.

WANT TO THROW BELL OVERBOARD

NEW GLASGOW, Aug. 18.—The Tupper boom has assumed big proportions here since Sir Charles Hibbert's address at Westville, and the Tory workers are clamoring for a change in the candidature. They declare that Mr. Bell's chances are hopeless, and steps have already been taken to enlist leader Boyer's endorsement of Sir Hibbert's candidature. Assurances have been given by the man from Vancouver that if the nomination can be switched his way he will accept the candidature.

AN ELECTION BEFORE SESSION

MONTREAL, Aug. 18.—Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper is here in fighting trim and it is understood that he will not refuse a nomination in his old constituency of Pictou. He told The World to try this (if the opposition can carry 15 seats in Quebec, the doom of the Laurier administration is sealed. When asked what he thought of an election before a session, he said: "I think I know Sir Wilfrid Laurier very well and I believe that if there is a good crop, and it looks as if there might be, and if he can get his cabinet rearranged there will be an election before a session. The premier is afraid of the present house and he no doubt presumes that he can get some new men he will be able to pull through once more, but I believe the country is against him." Sir Hibbert Tupper does not believe that Sir Frederick Burden will make another session.
