ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.—On Friday evening Oct. 3rd a large number of friends and neighbours gathered at the beautiful and spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Mutch to honor their son Private David Mutch who was leaving the following morning to rejoin his unit at Camp Borden after a short furlough. A complimentary address was read by Mr. Ralph Raynor while Mr. Allison Mutch made the presentation of a pen and pencil set. David although taken by surprise replied in his pleasant and appreciative manner. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing and sing-song under the leadership of Mrs. Richard McQuarrie...

PHILAN-KENNY WEDDINGS.— St. Lawrence Church, Morell, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Tuesday, September 9th when Miss Helen Hilda Kenny, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kenny, Morell, became the bride of Joseph Phelan, son of Mr. Ambrose Phelan and the late Mrs. Phelan also of Morell. Rev. Phelan officiated and performed the marriage ceremony and celebrated the Nuptial Mass. The bride was becomingly attired in a street length dress of light blue with accessories to match. She was attended by relatives and Marguerite who wore a dusty rose dress with black accessories. The groom was supported by his brother Sydney. Their friends and relatives who were invited to the ceremony were invited to the home of the bride's parents where a delicious wedding breakfast was served. The immediate relatives and friends after which the bride and groom left on a honeymoon tour through the Maritimes. They will be returning to their home in St. John's, Newfoundland. Their friends in wishing them many years of happiness, presented to their marriage they were tendered a miscellaneous shower of gifts. The bride was given a lovely and useful gift which testified the popularity of the young couple.

ADAMS-HAMBY.—A very quiet but pretty wedding took place on Saturday evening, Aug. 23, 1941, at St. Paul's Church, Charlottetown, and the Wedding Bells rang out briskly when Miss Addie Jane Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Adams of Conway was united in marriage to Mr. Wilfred Reuben Hamby, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hamby of Winsloe. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Ramsay Armitage. The bride presented a picture of girlish loveliness in a wedding gown of sky blue crepe with white accessories and carried a bouquet of roses and baby's breath. She was attended by her sister Miss Mary Adams who was gowned in Air Force blue and carried a bouquet similar to that of the bride. The groom was supported by his brother Mr. Edwin Hamby. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion by friends of the bride. Following the ceremony the happy young couple, motored to the home of the groom's parents where a delicious wedding supper was served, the table being decorated in pink and white. Scarcely was supper over when the tooting of horns made it clear to all that a happy band of charivari-ers had arrived and after congratulating the bride and groom and being generously treated they wended their way home peacefully. The large number of beautiful presents testify to the popularity of the young couple. The happy couple left on a short honeymoon trip to the bride's home and on their return took up their residence in Winsloe.

60th Wedding Anniversary. It was an event of exceptional local interest that took place on Saturday evening, Sept. 20th at Wood Islands East, when a goodly number of well wishers gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Keenan to celebrate the 60th Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Keenan, who are widely known and a most kindly and well beloved couple. Mr. and Mrs. Keenan, taken by surprise, were led to their seats and heartily congratulated by their family and friends, after which Mrs. Ford Keenan of Murray River read an address and two grandchildren presented the happy couple with envelopes containing a sum of money. Mr. Keenan suitably and feelingly responded for the unexpected token of affection showered upon himself and Mrs. Keenan. This was followed by the singing of "For They are Jolly Good Fellows." After which Vernita Keenan granddaughter rendered a pleasing solo "I love You Truly". The happy feature of the proceedings was the hearty community singing and Violin Music, the groom himself taking part, and worthy of mention were the two Scotch Songs "Loch Lomond and Annie Laurie" by Mrs. Clifford Keenan Sr. It remains to be added that the presence of the song and daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Keenan, along with the grandchildren and great-grandchildren added a significance to the splendid event which will long be remembered by all present. A delicious buffet luncheon was served. The Wedding Table was prettily decorated with cut flowers with the double tier wedding cake in centre of table and rose candles in silver holders at each end. The house beautifully decorated with gladioli and Autumn leaves. Those assisting Mrs. Keenan in serving were Mrs. Ted Crane, Miss Annabelle Duncan, Miss Hazel White, Miss Vernita Keenan, Mrs. Ray Keenan and Mrs. Milburn Keenan and Miss Bell MacDonald. Mrs. Ford Keenan. The gathering came to a close by singing Auld Lang Syne, followed by the National Anthem. Besides six children (4 living) Mr. and Mrs. Keenan have 14 grand children and 10 great grand children.
