—BRIDAL SHOWER— Friends and relatives gathered in New Annan at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moose on Thursday evening, June 10th to shower their daughter Gladys with their gifts and good wishes. The bride-to-be prettily attired in a dress of rose crepe was escorted to her seat under a nicely decorated arch of rose and white by Miss Edna MacInnis. Mrs. Albert Moose rendered the bridal march. The heavily laden basket was carried in by the Misses Shirley Stewart and Betty Huestis and opened by Mrs. Ella Montgomery and Mrs. Lewis Moose, while the humorous verses were read by the Misses Virginia Moose and Audrey Wough. They were arranged on the table by the Misses Florence MacInnis and Carrie Thompson. The gifts included money, silver, glassware, linens bedding and a leather hassock from the Women's Institute of which she was a member. Gladys in her usual friendly way thanked everyone for their gifts, after which all joined in singing "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow." During the evening piano selections were rendered by Mrs. Wilfred Curley and Mrs. Albert Moose. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Lewis Moose, Misses Florence MacInnis and Virginia Moose. At a late hour all departed for their homes wishing Gladys every happiness in the future.

—MUSIC PROJECT DISCUSSED— At the request of the president, Mrs. Harold Woodside, Mrs. Harold Laird occupied the chair. At a meeting of the Women's Institute music project committee at the Kensington Town Hall on Monday evening, June 21st. Following the Creed, repeated in unison the minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary and approved. The financial report, read by Mrs. P. J. Kennedy, showed a balance on hand of $108.15. This was augmented by the proceeds from three recitals. New London $43.40; Long River, $60.31; Free-town, $75.86. Bringing the total amount on hand to $287.92. Expenditures as reported by ten Institutes amounted to approximately $278.00 with one group yet to report. All Institutes represented at the meeting were reimbursed. The meeting, adjourned to re-convene at Nellie's Tea Room, where a social hour was spent in honor of Miss Frances Wells who has given faithful service in her capacity as music teacher in the schools and who is being married at the close of the term. As a parting gift, and by way of extending good wishes for her future happiness, Miss Wells was presented with a beautiful reversible blanket, by Mrs. George Howatt, Park Corner, on behalf of the Institutes. An address was read by Mrs. E. Proffitt, Miss Wells replied, expressing her thanks and saying that she would have pleasant memories of her work here, which she hoped would be kept up, as some of the children have great possibilities. About 25 members of the Institutes with their guests, Miss Wells and Mrs. Kennedy were served delectable refreshments by Mrs. Burns and her staff. A meeting will be held later, when representatives of the various Institutes will confer on the possibility of continuing the project. —Bur.

—WEDDING ANNIVERSARY— Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dunning were waited upon by family, friends and neighbors at the spacious home of their son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dunning, Long River on the occasion of their fifty-eighth wedding anniversary, on Friday evening June 18th, 1948. Everywhere, about the rooms were artistically arranged bouquets of lily-of-the-valley and other spring flowers, delighting to the eye. To the strains of the Bridal Chorus, the "bride", carrying a beautiful arm bouquet of spring flowers and the "groom" were escorted to the seat of honor by their grandson and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dunning, Jr. Rev. G.S. Stevens presided in his well known and capable manner and after brief introductory remarks called upon Miss Earith Dunning, a granddaughter of the guests of honor, who in poetic language, gave away some secrets about "grandma" at "sweet sixteen". Mrs. Allan A. Campbell then read an address on behalf of friends and neighbours and a gift of money was presented by Mr. Elwood Campbell. A handsome mantel clock was presented by Mr. Harry Dunning on behalf of the family. Individual gifts included flowers, glassware, an end table and a bride's cake made by Mrs. Harry Dunning which was later cut and passed to the guests. Mr. Dunning, whose sprightliness has not been dimmed by many years in double harness, addressed his friends in appreciation of their kindness. He said that in their life together they had had many sorrows and many joys, that he would not care to live that life over again but if he did, he would certainly choose the same mate. Mrs. Dunning also spoke briefly, graciously expressing her thanks. The worthy couple then received the good wishes and congratulations of the guests, and a pleasant evening of music and social intercourse was enjoyed by all. Refreshments were served. Among those assisting the hostess were Mrs. Layton Dunning, Mrs. Nelson MacLeod, Mrs. Eustace Rayner, Mrs. Ralph Johnstone, Miss Mae Best and Miss Earith Dunning. Besides the many friends who attended from Burlington, Long River, New London, Spring Brook and Park Corner were Mr. and Mrs. Percy Downe, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dunning Jr., of Charlottetown, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dunning and daughter Marion of Marshfield, Mr. and Mrs. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. MacGregor and Mr. and Mrs. Milligan of O'Leary. —Bur.

"I WONDER WHO'S KISSING HER NOW" AT CAPITOL, SUMMERSIDE

In its spirited explorations into our rich musical heritage in search of top-flight movie material, Twentieth Century-Fox is said to have once again struck a bonanza—this time in the melodic mine of that fabulous minstrel man Joe E. Howard. His most famous tune, "I Wonder Who's Kissing Her Now" (5,000,000 copies have been sold to date) serves as the title for George Jessel's Technicolor production based on Howard's life, starring June Haver and Mark Stevens, and now at the Capitol Theatre.

Some of the greatest names in American show business, including Sophie Tucker, Trixie Figanza, Harry Pilcer, Joe Frisco, Lenora Ulric and a host of others, made their initial hits singing Howard songs in one or another of the 28 stage musicals he wrote. The best of these songs, hardly perennials that continue to top request lists everywhere, are woven into the film's exciting story of the trials, tribulations and romances of a song-and-dance man at the turn of the century and punctuate the musical score of the production which includes the following fav-
