ORANGE LODGE IN ANNUAL SESSION

AFTERNOON SESSION

The 68th annual session of the Provincial Grand Orange Lodge of Prince Edward Island met on the afternoon of Wednesday, March 13th, Grand Master C. E. MacKenzie, presiding.

An exceptionally large number of members from all parts of the Province assembled. The reports of the various officers showed a marked increase in interest and membership that of the treasurer showed the Association to be in an excellent condition.

The general feeling of thanksgiving in the recovery of His Majesty the King was put on record.

Reference was made to the fact that this Association is meeting in the Lodge Rooms of the oldest Orange Lodge in the Province, namely, Boyle, L. O. L. No. 614 which has been in continuous existence for 80 years.

The Lodge adjourned at 6 p. m. for supper, and will re-assemble at 8 p. m. for the evening session when the election of officers for the ensuing year will be held and for the transaction of further business of the Association.

EVENING SESSION

During the proceedings of the Lodge the Protestant Orphanage received some attention and it was realized that great things had been done and we rejoice that the Protestant Public are supporting the work so well.

Past Grand Master L. B. Miller being detained at business from the early sessions, was in the evening received with applause. He was requested to address the Grand Lodge, and with well chosen words gave some notes of history of the Orange Orphanage, now the Protestant Orphanage and made reference to the generous gift of Mr. J. D. O'Connell, "The Children's Friend" for the benefit of the children of both Orphanages on our fair Island.

Both Institutions are in most admirable condition.

The following resolution was received an approved and it was ordered to be given to the Press:

RESOLVED that this R. W. Grand Orange Lodge of the Province of Prince Edward Island at this time assembled note with disapproval and resentment the interference of representatives of French Speaking Roman Catholics in the administration of the Public School systems in various Provinces of Canada and more recently that of New Brunswick. We deplore such interference and would warn our fellow French citizens that cases of this kind militate against the harmony and goodwill which should prevail amongst us, and may unhappily lead to reprisals from English speaking peoples of the Dominion. We as loyal Orangemen are supported in this protest by the constitution of this Dominion which has attained to its present prosperity by the recognition of one school, one flag and one language.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

R. W. Grand Master—Rev. G. T. Spriggs.

R. W. Deputy Grand Master—J. Vernon Moore.

R. W. Junior Deputy Grand Master—J. J. MacLeod.

R. W. Grand Chaplain—Rev. D. V. O'Meara.

R. W. Grand Secretary—W. W. Mutart.

R. W. Grand Treasurer—Murdoch MacLeod.

R. W. Grand Lecturer—Charles Proud.

R. W. Grand Marshal—D. M. Bernard.

R. W. Grand Auditors—R. A. Proffitt, J. A. Murray.

R. W. Deputy Grand Secretary—P. M. MacCaull.

R. W. Deputy Grand Lecturer—W. H. Sharpe.

R. W. Legislative Committee: Isaac Carter, A. J. Matheson, C. E. MacKenzie.

Representative to M. W. Legislation Committee—Murdoch MacLeod. Grand Organizer—C. W. S. Bentley.

ROME, March 13—General Umberto to Noble, leader of the dirigible Italia expedition to the North Pole last summer, has resigned his rank and office and the resignation has been accepted, it was officially announced here today. The report of an official investigation commission last week held Noble responsible for the disaster in which the dirigible was wrecked while returning from the North Pole and seven members of the crew lost.

LADIES AID MEETING—At the regular monthly meeting of the Prince Edward Island Hospital Ladies Aid, the President, Mrs. W. E. Bentley occupied the chair. The date for the annual flag day was set for Easter Saturday, and further plans were made for the auction sale. Routine business was transacted.

CENTENARY ISSUE—The Founders' Centenary Number of the Canada East War Cry has just been received, and is in every way an excellent issue. The coloured design and printing of the paper is a splendid example of the printer's art, and there are well written articles on incidents in the life of the late General Booth and on the work of the Salvation Army since its inception a hundred years ago. This special issue is one which no one interested in the work of the Salvation Army should miss.

Miss Violet and Malinda Murphy, is visiting in the city the guests of Mrs. W. McKenzie 5 Park Terrace.

PLEASANT EVENING SPENT

A very enjoyable "social evening" in connection with the work of the Presbyterian Church at Long River, was held recently at the old Senter Montgomery residence, at Park Corner. A very large number were present, all parts of the surrounding country being represented, some coming from as far as New Glasgow. The guests were received by the members of the Montgomery family, Mrs. Eliza and Miss Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. Heath Montgomery. The place was an ideal one for such a large gathering, every one being able to move around in the spacious rooms in perfect comfort. Mr. Leo F. Ferguson presided, while the following programme was carried out:

Instrumental music, Mr. Harold Bernard, Miss Millie Pidgeon, Mrs. I. Bernard, Mrs. Charles Paynter, violins, banjo, piano.

Solo—Miss Elsie McKay. Reading—Miss Lucy Haynes. Solo—Miss Georgie Campbell. Violin Solo—Mr. Charles Paynter. Solo—Mrs. Eliza Campbell.

Pantomime, by Misses Muriel Montgomery, Elsie McKay, Lucy Haynes, Georgie Campbell. Every number was accorded much applause and insistent encores had to be responded to. While a dainty lunch was being served by Mrs. Montgomery assisted by the ladies of the congregation, many of those present joined in singing old-time songs, and a general musical feast, the piano accompanists, being Mr. Ernest Dunning, Mrs. Charles Paynter, Mrs. Eliza Campbell.

A hearty vote of thanks was moved by Mr. John E. Cousins, seconded by Mr. Allan Campbell, and tendered to the Montgomery family for their splendid hospitality. Mr. Montgomery in acknowledging this said it gave him much pleasure to welcome so many of their friends and neighbors, and at the same time help along a good cause. The amount contributed during the evening came to upwards of forty dollars.

TRANSATLANTIC TALK

OTTAWA, March 13—Instead of firing the shot "heard round the world," a lady in her home here in Ottawa yesterday afternoon smacked three nice kisses heard across the Atlantic Ocean and halfway across Europe, and acknowledgement of a receipt of these kisses in the Aussig, Czechoslovakia, came back within 35 minutes of conversation audibly, even eloquently.

It was the fourth highly successful transatlantic wireless telephone conversation between Ottawa and a European point and, incidentally, it exceeded all its predecessors in distance, being 4,100 miles.

MUSSOLINI'S FEIDE

ROME, March 13.—Conciliation between Church and State in Italy was declared by Premier Mussolini as one of the chief things that would cause the Fascist regime to live in history, when he delivered a speech today before a wildly enthusiastic and deeply appreciative audience of some 4,000 Fascist chiefs, composing the first quinquennial Council of Fascism. The meeting was held in the Royal Opera House, and the Premier's speech reviewed the achievements of his Government.

Corrine Griffith at the Prince Edward

If the original "Garden of Eden" was any happier than Corrine Griffith's choice of a vehicle for her first United Artists Picture, it was indeed an Utopian environment, where the atmosphere would have easily surpassed the most fulsome praises by Florida or California realtors of their own particular brand of ozone. For Miss Griffith's "The Garden of Eden," which was shown yesterday at the Prince Edward theatre to an enthusiastic and crowded house, is, perhaps, her best effort to date. Both in story and performance it sets a high mark for future productions and augurs well for her new association.

Pictorially, the production is as good as an eye-wash. The color photography is particularly beautiful, and is not dragged in by the heels, as is so often the case where color sequences are used. Only that part of the picture which reveals little Toni's dream of fame and operatic triumphs is shot in color, and the fantasy of the treatment makes this process peculiarly appropriate.

Not in many a pallid moon has such intriguing material come to the screen, combining as it does distinctive characterization, unusual situations and a subtle blending of drama and comedy. Miss Griffith's own part—that of an unknown little cabaret entertainer who through a chain of ingenious circumstances breaks into Monte Carlo society as the "daughter" of a Baroness—gives this charming star one of her best opportunities to display her remarkable ability. That she invests the role with a touch of comedy is particularly fitting; and it adds one new string to her histrionic bow. Miss Griffith can be a clever farceur—she is always the lovely Corinne, and if given an opportunity, is always a fine dramatic actress.

"The Garden of Eden" takes its name from the gardens of the Eden Hotel, just outside Monte Carlo, to which place the little Toni Lebrun, an unspiced girl with an ambition for grand opera and only a sordid cabaret experience to recommend her, is taken by the costume mistress of the Palais de Paris, who has the right to call herself a Baroness. She meets Richard Spanyi, son of a long line of wealthy and snobbish society folk; as bashful and repressed when he comes to propose as any Freudian subject could be, but naturally a sprightly young man. And through various vicissitudes Toni welcomes— one might almost say "pursues"—the man of her heart, only to turn him down when he finally proposes, because she is not what he thinks her. But that is fixed up and a wedding date is set. The scene in which Miss Griffith walks out on the wedding guests in her "unmentionables" is one of the most dramatic and at the same time amusing ever filmed. Only Miss Griffith could do it justice—and, incidentally, it is not justice to those who have not seen it to explain the situation further.

Charles Ray has the best role of his career as Richard Spanyi and he shows a remarkable understanding of the motives that govern this unusual character. Louise Dresser makes a splendid Baroness Rosa. The whole supporting cast, which includes such good names as Lowell Sherman, Edward Martindel, Maude George and Hank Mann, is excellent.

and is hoped that, as more join the body the day will not be far distant when first class rest rooms and offices may be provided in the city.

All, however, depend on the support the association will get.

It is proposed not only to send circulars to every motorist in the province, but also to see each one personally, to induce him to join.

It is proposed at first to have an annual fee of $2.00, later, perhaps, there might be an additional higher fee charged for extra privileges, such as towing in damaged cars, and other such service to the needy motorist.

Mr. J. A. Hillion approved of what had been done, and suggested the resolution be put to a vote.

Mr. R. E. Mutch hoped the organization would not be just confined to the city—that it would be province wide.

Mr. Ben Acorn spoke enthusiastically in favor of the project, saying that the map alone which had formerly been supplied would be well worth the fee of $2.00.

Dr. C. R. Jenkins, Mr. F. T. Morrow and Mr. F. J. Casey, also joined in the discussion expressing their approval of the proposed organization.

The resolution was then put to a vote and unanimously adopted.

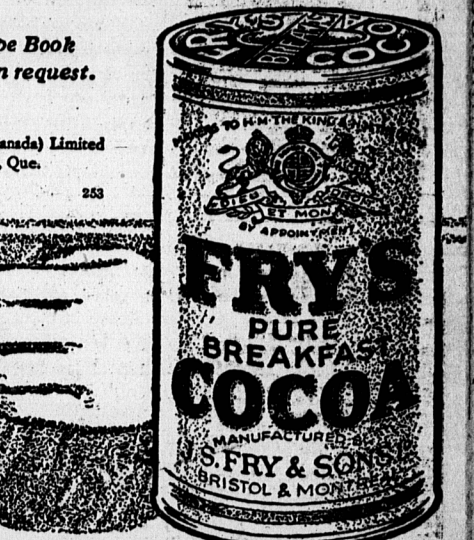

Nearly forty members were enrolled, and many pledged themselves to bring in other members.

Mr. Justice Arsenault in closing the meeting stated that organization would be carried on at several different centres throughout the province.

port trade in Canadian grain her day was decidedly dull and little business was done with United King and continental buyers. Outside sales of a few cars of grain for export to country points. The spot was quiet and the under spring and winter wheat grades flour and values were well maintained. The milled market was quiet and firm. Standard grades of rye and oats sold well at unchanged prices. The arrival of large supplies of eggs from United States at a price less developed in the local market for fresh grades and prices were reduced one cent per dozen. Receipts were 1,621 cases. All grades of potatoes were reduced today. P.E.I. grades were six cents lower while N. B. grade mountains were 1-2 to 5c less. The reduction in fire rates from Quebec points to Montreal was blamed by the trade for the drop. P. E. I. green mountains 40 1/2 and whites at 67c per 90 lbs. in bulk. Maple Leaf brand selling at N. B. green mountains at 50 to 52 per 90 lbs. in bulk. Quebec potatoes were offered at 45 to 47 1/2 per 100 lbs. in bulk. The bean market moderately active and firm. Canadian handpicked sold at $5.60 per 100 lbs. and yellow eye at $4.20 per 100 lbs. The feature of the local situation was the easier feeling developed and prices scored a drop of 1-4c per lb., which was attributed to the weaker cable advices received from London for New Zealand grades. The trade was fair. Receipts 446 pkgs. In summer made West cheese an easier feeling developed. July made colored in 100 and 200 lots was offered at 22 1/2 cents per lb. But the tone of the market for current receipts remained steady on account of supplies coming forward. The light stock on spot. There was some inquiry for colored goods 18 3/4c to 19c per lb., while white moved slow at 17 1/2c to 17 3/4c lb. Receipts were 308 boxes.

The Markets

EGGS

OTTAWA, Ont., March 13.—The weaker feeling on Canadian egg markets which became evident the first of the week continues today and prices are again working lower.

TORONTO—Receipts of eggs here are increasing and the market is lower. Brokers report making sales of Ontario eggs at extras 41-42c; firsts 39-40c; delivered. Dealers are quoting country shippers for ungraded eggs, delivered, extras 36-40; firsts 34-38; pullet extras 33; seconds 28-30. Prices to retailers are extras 46-47; firsts 44-45; pullet extras 39-40; seconds 38.

MONTREAL—Wholesale egg prices here have declined 1-2c per dozen, following the arrival of several cars of American eggs here. Prices to retailers are now quoted at extras 50; firsts 48; seconds 44.

HALIFAX—Receipts of local eggs on this market are very light and are being cleared on arrival. The market however is being affected by lower outside quotations and dealers have reduced their paying prices to country shippers to extras 40-42; firsts 35-36; seconds 30-32.

ST. JOHN—This egg market is lower in sympathy with the general price declines elsewhere and as result also of a slight increase in local receipts. Consumption however continues good and many eggs are being diverted for hatching purposes so that no pronounced change in the market is expected until after Easter. Dealers are quoting country shippers for ungraded eggs delivered, cases returned, extras 35-40; firsts 32-35; seconds 27-30.
