DOMINION DAY RACES AT SUMMERSIDE

The horse races to be held at Summerside on Monday, July 2nd, promise to be the best ever held in Prince County. The classes are well filled with the Island's best horses. The track has been put in excellent shape and a new judges' stand erected. A special train will leave Charlottetown at 9.30 a. m. connecting with regular train from east. Special fares will be issued on regular train from Cape Traverse and Tignish. The Summerside Crystal Band will be in attendance and the managers are endeavoring to make this the biggest racing event of the season.
