

The Balkan Sideshow

Transylvania — Rich Prize

Like an artist's conception of pastoral peace is this view of gently rolling farmlands in the Rumanian province of Transylvania. But they are the heart of contention between Rumania and Hungary, whose quarrel over possession of the lush pastures and rich grain fields keeps the Balkan war pot boiling.

Nazi Planes for Rumania

These war planes are German Heinkel bombers, pictured as they were being prepared for shipment to Rumania from Germany. It was such a German-made plane, piloted by a Rumanian, which was reported to have shot down a Hungarian bombing plane, creating a crisis that brought Axis powers into action for a quick showdown on the Hungarian-Rumanian quarrel over Transylvania.

McDiarmid Downed In U. S. Tennis Tourney

By Bill White
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—(AP)—Welby Van Horn, who set the tournament on fire last year, was the only fatality among the seeded stars at the second day of the National Singles Tennis Championships today at Forest Hills. Van Horn's conqueror was 22-year-old Harris Everett of Jacksonville, Fla. The scores in the long match were 3-6, 5-7, 6-3, 6-0, 15-13. Standing out in sharp contrast to the rest of the matches was the manner in which national champion Bobby Riggs opened the defence of his title. Pitted against Ernie Sutter, the former intercollegiate champion, Bobby covered worlds of court and showed virtually no flaws as he romped through 6-2, 6-2, 8-6. Canada's only representative, Don McDiarmid of Ottawa, fell before the surer strokes of Charles Mattman of New York in a second-round match. Mattman was pressed in every set by the Canadian champion but he came through in three straight, 7-5, 6-4, 9-7. Frank Kovacs laughed his way to a 6-1, 2-5, 6-1, 10-3 victory over the former Danmouth captain, J. Norman Anderson, while Don McNeil was the cautious workman in beating Joe Fishbach of New York, 6-4, 6-4, 9-7. They were joined by Frankie Parker, who beat back the two-handed South American champion, Pancho Segura, 6-3, 6-1, 7-5; by Joe Hunt, Henry Prusoff, Betsy Grant and Elwood Cooke, none of whom looked good enough to give Riggs much trouble. Helen Jacobs eliminated Cecile Bowes of Philadelphia, the national tennis racket champion, 6-1, 6-0. Alice Marble breezed through Josephine San Filippo of Brooklyn, 6-0, 6-1 and Sarah Palfrey turned back Nina Brown of England by the same scores.

White Sox Swamp Tigers
NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—(AP)—The unpredictable Chicago White Sox put the "Indian" sign on Detroit Tigers at Chicago again today. Scoring seven runs in a first inning marathon, the Sox trounced the Tigers 10-2 to throw another damper on Detroit's American League pennant chances and put the third-place Tigers four full games back of the league-leading Cleveland Indians. It was Detroit's eighth straight loss to the White Sox. Detroit, dropping a half game behind the second-place New York Yankees, lost the services of Barney McCosky, possibly for as long as a week.
