ROBERTS TESTIFIES

That Officials of Netherland Railway

HAD TO BE DEPORTED

At Henley Regatta the Pennsylvania Crew Were Victorious.

THE RESULT OF THE FIRST DAY'S REGATTA.
HENLEY, July 3.—(Special).—The Regatta began to-day and the Pennsylvania crew easily defeated the London Rowing Club. Leander also beat New College. Great final expected between these two and the Americans are thought to have a good chance to win.

In Diamond Challenge Cup W. A. Hickman, New Brunswick Immigrant's Commissioner, England, was beaten by S. T. Blackstone.

REPORTING OF FOREIGNERS.
LONDON, July 3.—(Special).—Lord Roberts gave evidence before a commission investigating the claims of foreigners deported from South Africa. Evidence showed that officers and employees of the Netherland Railway were so hostile that many had to be deported. Lord Roberts personally investigated every case and sanctioned none unless they took advocate grounds. He made no difference on account of the nationality.

QUICK TRIP.—The schooner P. L. G. and Alma left this port on Monday and arrived back on Tuesday evening about 9 p.m. with cargoes of Acadian nut and Acadia round coal which is now being discharged for A. Down at Lord's wharf.

A painting by the President of the Royal Canadian Academy, Mr. Robert Harris, has been added to the collection in the Hodgson Memorial Chapel, in connection with St. Peter's Cathedral. The subject is that of our Lord taking the little ones up in his arms and blessing them; and the picture is in memory of the departed children of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Morson.

The marriage took place at Rustico, on July 2nd of Benjamin Gallant, M. P., to Miss Annie Gallant, daughter of Isidore Gallant, M. D., of Boston. The groom was supported by his brother Peter Gallant, while the bride was attended by Miss Bertha Marr. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. B. McDonald in St. Augustus Church, Rustico.

Yesterday the Halifax Herald made the announcement that Mr. Hugh Mainnis late Assistant Editor of the Examiner is now engaged in getting up a special P.E.I. edition of the Halifax Herald descriptive of the resources, and development of the Island—its agriculture, fisheries, dairies, factories, lobster factories, thoroughbred stock, manufactures and pen and ink sketches of its business and professional men.

A GOOD audience attended the lecture at Camp Brighton last night by Rev. T. F. Fullerton. The reverend lecturer gave reminiscences of the Canadian troops in South Africa. He spoke of Taylor and Riggs, describing the former's death. He also said that owing to the energies of the Soldiers' Wives' League and by the help of the Patriotic Fund every Canadian's grave in South Africa had been marked. He was listened to with rapt attention throughout.

Mr. Chesley Ross, book keeper with a grocery house in Malden, Mass., was drowned on Friday evening last. It appears that in company with Ambrose Watling, deceased went out boating in Wakefield lake. After being out for a little while Ross decided to have a swim and when about eight yards to the west of the boat he called to Ambrose to bring the boat out to him. Before Watling had time to get over to him he sank and never came to the surface. On the following morning the river was dragged but the body was not recovered until noon when it was found floating on the Lake. On Sunday afternoon his remains were buried from his mother's residence on Madison Street. It is contended that the cause of the unfortunate young man's death was cramps which affected the heart, aggravated by the intense heat of the day which was the hottest experienced in Massachusetts for many years. The news of the accident was a shocking blow to the parents and family and much sympathy is felt for them in their sad bereavement. Chesley was only in his 24th year, clever, and was beloved by all who knew him. Deceased was well known in Charlottetown, having been in the employ of Mr. A. Down for a number of years.

Supreme Court.

Samuel Cousins, vs William A. Jardine. This is an action brought by the plaintiff against the defendant, to recover damages alleged to have accrued to plaintiff by reason of defendant having neglected to close certain gates along a private road leading from the Gagetown Road through the plaintiff's farm at Alexandra, Lot 49, to the farm of the defendant at Crown Point. The defendant has the use of a right of way across the plaintiff's farm and the plaintiff claims that he has the right to have gates placed across this right of way, and that it is the duty of them, the defendant, to close, after passing through. The plaintiff alleges that defendant in the use of the right of way opened these gates, but neglected to close them, by reason of which cattle got into plaintiff's fields causing damage to his crops. The plaintiff's version of the case was closed yesterday evening and the defendant will present his side of the case to-day, Stewart K. C. for the plaintiff.

Attorney General Peters for the defendant.
All other civil cases have been disposed of and when this one is finished the other business will be concluded for this term.

ENTERTAINMENT AT TIGNISH.—A very successful entertainment was held in Tignish Hall on Friday evening last when the following program was presented: Piano Duet, Misses McTague and Dalton; Vocal Quartet, Fairy Moonlight, Tignish Vocal Club; Oriental Overture, Tignish Orchestra; Address and Presentation to Mr. Joseph Gallant; Drama, The Grecian Bend, Ladies' Club; Violin Solo, (Cake Walk) L. S. Peny; Vocal Duet, What are the Wild Waves Saying, Mr. A. J. McDougall and Miss Hackett; Persean Waltzes, Orchestra; Vocal Solo, If the Waters Could Speak as they Flow by Miss Tazae Chaisson; Piano Duet, Misses McTague and Dalton; Double Quartet, The Daube River, Ladies' Club; Violin Solo, Mr. L. S. Peny; Solo and Chorus, Golden Years, Miss Hackett and Troop; Split Siding Farce, Holy Terror, The Moses Troop, Edward Hackett, Esq., M. P., presided. The very best of order prevailing. The acting in the two dramas was all that could be desired, whilst the instrumental music by the orchestra fairly electrified the audience. When all performed their respective parts, so well, it might be unfair to discriminate, but we cannot but make special mention of the singing of Miss Zoe Chaisson, who made her debut, who possesses a rich soprano voice of no ordinary compass and who will no doubt develop into one of the foremost vocalists of the Province. Advantage was taken of the occasion to read an address to Mr. Joseph Gallant, B. A., who serves his connection with our school and who carries with him the good wishes of all classes and creeds. The address was accompanied by a valuable present.—Com.

THE FIRST SESSION

Of the W. M. S. Presbyterian in Bedeque

WAS HELD YESTERDAY

Returned Missionary Present—President Delivers Annual Address.

The first session of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, Presbyterian, opened in Bedeque yesterday at 2.40 p.m. by the singing of the Doxology. Miss Muirhead, president of the Society led in prayer after which a hymn was sung.

The consecration chapter having been read and a hymn sung Mrs. Clarke and Mrs. Woodside led in prayer. After singing "I am Thine Oh Lord," the meeting was for a few minutes open to any person to take part.

The roll call was then read after which committees were appointed. Mrs. Marsh, returned missionary from India was introduced and heartily welcomed to the meeting, after which the president gave her address, encouraging all the work they had done but, warning them to be instant prayer lest they forget. The meeting was afterwards favored by a short talk by Mrs. Marsh on the work in which she is now engaged. Owing to ill health Mrs. Marsh was unable to speak at any length, but all were delighted to have her with them, and she fully answered all the questions put to her. Mrs. Gunn and Mrs. Whidden were placed in charge of the question box after which Miss Muirhead thanked North Bedeque for the invitation to hold the Convention at that place. The session then closed with a hymn and prayer.

EVENING SESSION

Opened with an anthem by the choir after prayer by Hon. Ben. Rogers, a hymn was sung. Rev. Mr. Whidden then read the scripture which was followed by prayer by Mr. McConnell. After singing a hymn, Mr. Myers addressed the congregation showing the need of much endeavor in mission work and the duty of all to take an interest in it. He closed his address by prayer. A hymn having been sung Rev. W. H. Smith gave an address exhorting all to reconsideration of the teachings of Christ, concerning missions.

A collection was then taken, the choir favoring the audience with an anthem after which Rev. Mr. Smith pronounced the Benediction. The meeting was open to all and was well attended.

TO CONTROL THE SALT OF THE EARTH

NEW YORK, June 23.—The control of the salt of the earth will be the mission of a new combination that an officer of the National Salt Company stated to-day is about ready for launching. It will be an "international trust,"—the first of the sort. The National Salt Company has its offices in the building of the Standard Oil Company at 20 Broadway, and Wall street believes that Standard Oil interests are connected with it. It has a capital stock of $7,000,000 of common and $5,000,000 of 7 per cent. noncumulative preferred shares; and it practically controls all the salt deposits and trade of the United States and Canada.
