—PIE SOCIAL AND DANCE.—A very enjoyable pie social and dance was held in the Labour Union Hall, Summerside, on New Year's Eve, under the auspices of the C. Y. M. L. There was a very large attendance, about 200 guests being present. The pies were very successfully auctioned by Mr. Leo Wedge and fetched a very high sum. The dance which followed was thoroughly enjoyed by all and the Old Year was thus danced out until the music stopped promptly at midnight.—S.

—PASSED AWAY AT HER HOME IN SUMMERSIDE — The death occurred at her home in Summerside last Friday of Mrs. Andrew Arsenault, at the age of seventy four years, after a trying illness of about a year's duration. The deceased was born at Mont Carmel, but resided for a while at Miscouche, where she made many lasting friendships. The family came to Summerside five years ago and in their quiet family life have a wide circle of friends, the deceased being an especial favourite with all classes in the community. There are left to mourn a sorrowing husband and one daughter, Mrs. Beruno Arsenault, both of Summerside. The remains were conveyed by the noon train on Saturday to Mont Carmel and thence to the residence of her brother, Mr. Joseph J. Richard, whence the funeral took place on Sunday to the Mont Carmel Church and Cemetery, Rev. Theodore Gallant officiating, and was very largely attended, showing the high esteem in which the deceased was held. S

—DEATH OF MRS. GEORGE GODKIN.—The death took place at her residence on Church Street, Summerside, on New Year's Day of Mrs. Godkin, widow of the late Mr. George Godkin, who represented Summerside in the Local Legislature for some years and up to the time of his death in 1919 was head of the Customs Department at Summerside. The deceased lady was born in St. Eleanors, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Brown and had resided in Summerside all her married life. She was of a quiet and lovable disposition with many stirling qualities which endeared her to all who knew her. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was always ready to help in all matters of benefit to the community in which she will be very greatly missed. There are left to mourn three sisters and one brother namely:—Mrs. Davis, of Montreal; Mrs. Alexander Clark of Souris; Mrs. (Dr.) Daniel McKay, Summerside and Mr. George Brown of St. Eleanors; also Mr. Eric McKay, a nephew, who resided with her, to all of whom the deep sympathy of the community is extended. The funeral takes place this afternoon at 2 o'clock from her late residence to the People's Cemetery, Rev. C. J. St. Clair Jeans officiating.—S.

—IMPROVEMENTS TO SUMMERSIDE BUSINESS COLLEGE— Miss Blanche MacLean, Principal of the Summerside Business College, has had a very successful half year term and the fact that she has found it necessary to add another room for the accommodation of the students speaks volumes for the popularity of the teachers and the splendid course given at this college. It is understood that the Bock-keeping Department will be transferred to the new room which has been added and that the room which up to the present has been used as the Bookkeeping Department under Mr. Roscoe Jeffery will be used to enlarge the present accommodations for those taking the course of Shorthand and Typewriting. It is gratifying to see this institution of learning making such progress and it is hoped that 1929 will even show further improvements, with a larger number of scholars enrolled.—S

—PASSING OF AN OLD RESIDENT—There passed away at his residence in Summerside in the early hours of Monday morning, Mr. Peter B. Gallant, at the ripe age of 85 years. He was born at Fifteen Point and worked for some years in his early life in the brickyard there, then owned by Mr. Richards. About fifty years ago he came to Summerside, which was a very different place to what is is now. Mr. Gallant could tell many interesting stories of the old shipping days. He was upright and just in all his dealings with his fellow citizens and was a general favourite with everyone. He was the last survivor of three brothers and had no family of his own, only his aged widow being left to mourn. The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon to St. Paul's Church and cemetery, Rev. Urban Gillis officiating, the remains being followed to their last resting place by a number of his old associates.—S

—DEATH OF LIFE LONG RESIDENT OF SHERBROOKE — There passed away, after only a short illness, on Sunday morning at three o'clock at her home in Sherbrooke, at the age of sixty-one years, Mrs. James Andrew Linkletter. The deceased lady, who had enjoyed excellent health all her life, suffered a paralytic stroke in a Summerside store whilst doing her Christmas shopping. She was taken home by auto and for a time rallied to such an extent that great hopes were entertained for her recovery. The improvement, however, was not maintained and the end came quite peacefully. The late Mrs. Linkletter was born in Sherbrooke, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Pickering, and had resided there all her life. She was held in the highest respect and esteem by an exceptionally wide circle of friends and will be greatly missed in the community. She was a life long and consistent member of the Presbyterian Church at Summerside, was a leader in the social affairs of the community in which she resided and was well known for her hospitality and many excellent qualities. Of a family of nine she was the last surviving sister, but all three brothers are still living. Her only daughter, Carrie, died some years ago. There are left to mourn a sorrowing husband and two grandchildren, Herman and Mildred, who have resided with their grandparents since their mother's death; also three brothers, Messrs. Leonard and George Pickering, of Sherbrooke, and Mr. Hollis Pickering, in the Klondyke, to all of whom The Guardian tenders its sincere sympathy. The funeral takes place this afternoon at 2 o'clock from her late residence to the People's Cemetery at Summerside, Rev. C. J. St. Clair Jeans officiating. S

KENTVILLE9; WOLVERINES 2

HALIFAX, N. S., Jan. 2—Turning what was billed as a hockey match into a scoring orgy, the Kentville Wildcats opened the Eastern Nova Scotia Amateur Hockey League at the Forum last night with a nine to two victory over the Halifax Wolverines.

Over two thousand people watched the Wolverines skate themselves into near exhaustion doing nothing, while the Wildcats bagged goals at every opportunity and produced a brand of teamwork that was hard to beat.

The Wildcats enjoyed one of those nights in which everything they did was correct. This sometimes happens in hockey. Goal-tending statistics tell a strange and startling ale. In the three periods Hanrahan stopped 41 shots while Barnaby turned away FORTY.

MISUSED CHANCES

The difference between the teams was not so much in goaling, as in misused opportunities. When opportunities presented themselves to the Wildcats they snapped them up and turned them into goals, while the Wolverines misjudged all kinds of chances.

While the Wildcats played hockey, offensively and defensively, the Halifax boys skated around in circles, batting tons of rubber at the Kentville cage, yet gaining nothing.

The Kentville boys scored all kinds of goals. They scored tallies on long shots, short shots, hard shots, easy shots and just shots. Some of their goals were beauties, some lucky. But when they had chances for scores they made good. A good hockey team is the team that scores the goals. Credit Kentville with nine and figure out for yourself the chances of the Valley boys for league honors this year.

The rout of the Wolverines was accomplished after sixty minutes of fast hockey. Notwithstanding the score the pace was fast throughout, with both teams hitting a clip that did not slacken.

Many of the shots the Wolverines poured on the Wolverine cage were easy ones, but many wide-open-net chances went begging for the want of playing regular positions at the proper time. Half of the scoring strength of the Wildcats was in their ability to play their positions. The other half was the deadly shooting accuracy of the Valley boys. Of course the element of luck smiled sweetly on the Wildcats but, for the most part, the Kentville boys made their own breaks.

The Wildcats treated themselves to four goals in the opening spasm, three in the middle canto and finished up with two in the closing period.

Ten penalties figured in the night's work. Referees Lester Lowther and Maurice "Spud" Beazley were overworked at times, what with the penalties and the scoring.

LEAGUE HEAD LOOKS FOR CLOSE FIGHT

Weaker Clubs Have Strengthened And Will Give Yanks Hard Fight, is Prediction.

CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—The American League pennant race for 1929 will not be a one-ring circus with Miller Huggins the ring master and the New York Yankees the only actors, President E. S. Barnard predicts.

Weaker clubs have strengthened their forces immeasurably, Barnard said, and some, especially St. Louis and Detroit, are certain to give the rampant Yankees a hard tussle for the bunting.

"There is no doubt of some of the weaker clubs having strengthened materially in their efforts to give the Yankees more of a battle than they did in 1928," Barnard said.

"Detroit will take the field with a new manager, Stanley Harris, who gave Washington two pennants and who is expected to give Detroit a winner. The acquisition of Pitcher Uhle from Cleveland and other changes make the Tigers contenders for the pennant.

St. Louis, the sensation of the 1928 race has added several players who are expected to make the Browns stronger. Washington brings back Walter Johnson, the greatest pitcher in the history of the American League as manager. Washington also has added many star minor league players while the trade with Boston whereby Buddy Myer, a third-sacker of great ability, returns to the Nationals, is expected to be beneficial.

"Cleveland will take the field with a revamped infield while two new outfielders may be found in Indian toggery. The new owners of the Indians have shown their willingness to bid for star minor league players and such spirit should inspire the team.

"Chicago has expended money very wisely in its preparations for the 1929 campaign while the deals made by Boston are expected to bring about a decided improvement."

MCKENNA-MITCHELL BOUT DISAPPOINTING

Referee Stops Bout in Tenth Round After Repeated Warnings to Fight.

GLACE BAY, Jan. 2—Pandemonium reigned in the Savoy Theatre here yesterday afternoon towards the close of the Jack McKenna-Roy Mitchell boxing contest, when Referee Casey stopped the bout, after repeatedly warning both fighters for punching low, and after he had on several occasions ordered the men to make a fight of it or the bout would be stopped.

Fifteen hundred disgruntled spectators set up a howl that did not subside for some minutes, and it looked at times as if there would be violence. The boxers, save for the first two rounds made little or no attempt to make a fight of it. The fans expected some action following the second round when Mitchell sent McKenna backwards into a corner with a stiff right, but they were doomed to disappointment for as round after round went by the fight was getting tamer and the fans were thirsting for blood. McKenna was warned for fouling, then Mitchell would receive a warning sign from Referee Casey. This went on from the fourth to the tenth round.

In the eighth Mitchell laid down in the centre of the ring claiming a foul. The fans booed and Referee Casey ordered him to continue or lose the bout. The referee claimed there was not the slightest indication of a foul. Mitchell got up to resume fighting and then the bell rang. He hobbled to his corner but seemed quite fresh when he came out for the ninth. McKenna claimed a foul in the ninth and in the tenth when the boxers showed not the slightest inclination to make a bout of it the referee sent the men to their corners. Then Chief Casey announced that the fight was stopped.

The reports previous to the fight on the street, that the bout was "in the bag" did not put the fans in any gentle mood, when they saw the predictions of the wiseacres had borne fruit.

Many demanded their money back and all sides were heard in condemnation of the exhibition which had been proceeded by three excellent preliminaries.

The house was the largest in Glace Bay since the famous McKenna-Carbone fight, some years ago that drew in $2,300. It looked as if there was renewed interest in a sport that had been slowly ebbing here, but this afternoon's fiasco writes "finis" to the boxing game in Glace Bay, for time indefinite.

Mitchell entered the ring weighing 177 1-2 pounds, McKenna weighed in at 166 pounds. McKenna arose from his chair to beckon to his old trainer and manager Allie Lewis, who was seated in the auditorium. After a consultation Lewis went into McKenna's corner where he remained in an advisory capacity throughout the fight. McKenna looked somewhat out of condition while Mitchell was physical fitness to the highest degree. McKenna took a stiff one on the jaw in the second that slowed him up but he came back towards the end of the round. Save for this lone punch of Mitchell's there was no real heavy hitting. Both were missing in the third and clinching too often to make the round interesting.

McKenna was warned in the fourth for hitting low and as the round progressed without any sign of either boxer attempting to make a fight of it. Referee Casey issued a warning. The action in the fifth and sixty was nothing to cause the slightest excitement. McKenna seemed to be dodging everything that Mitchell attempted to send over and at times it seemed as if the colored boxed really did not wish to score a blow.

The seventh, eight ninth and tenth rounds were almost a repetition. It was announced when order had been restored that the judges, Cecil Sutherland of North Sydney, and Johnnie Gillis of Glace Bay, had given a majority of the rounds to McKenna, but as the fight was stopped it was declared no contest. This raised another storm of protest from McKenna supporters who had backed him heavily.
