CHARLOTTETOWN AND ELSEWHERE

It pays to buy in this Province. There were no taxes before the Charlottetown Police Court yesterday.

Oswald Wright, Charlottetown, was a passenger west yesterday afternoon.

A. and Mrs. Barlow, Charlottetown, leave this morning for Ottawa.

Miss E. O'Connell, Charlottetown, leaves this morning for Boston.

W. and Mrs. Wilson, Charlottetown, were recent visitors to Sydney.

B. Roy Holman, Charlottetown, was a visitor to St. John recently.

Mrs. James Riely and Miss Mary Riely, Fodhla, leave this morning for Boston.

Rollie Norman, Moncton, was a passenger from Charlottetown to Miramichi yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Sullivan, of Prince Edward Island, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon. She is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Robt. Hutchison, St. George street.—Moncton-Exc.

Mrs. Robert Hutchison, who has been spending the summer months in Summerside, P. E. I., the guest of her parents, W. and Mrs. Clark, returned to the city yesterday afternoon.—Moncton Exc.

Miss Penelope Davis, Edmonton, who has been visiting in Charlottetown, was a passenger to Summerside yesterday afternoon en route to New York, where she will resume her studies.

Any person in this Province, who intends to visit New York City, either for business or pleasure, may find it to their advantage to write "P. H." care of Guardian, Charlottetown.

Major Leigh and Mrs. Leigh, Charlottetown returned from a trip to Boston, New York, and other points. The enjoyment of the trip was marred by a regrettable accident to Mrs. Leigh, who had her ankle broken, when in New York.

It was a number of young men who gave the enjoyable dance in Smallwood's Hall, Charlottetown, Wednesday evening as referred to yesterday. The guests of honor were Miss Penelope Davis and Weston Peake, both of whom were visiting in the city.

Martin Monaghan, son of J. H. Monaghan, Charlottetown, had his wrist badly broken by a fall the other day. He was taken to the Charlottetown Hospital where the bones were set by Dr. Dorsey, and the patient is now doing well. (From Yesterday's Evening Guardian)

J. J. Johnson, Charlottetown, went to Summerside this morning.

Mrs. Harry Weeks, Charlottetown, left this morning on a visit to Moncton.

Benj. Carter, Charlottetown, has picked from one tree twenty-one bushels of Wolf River apples. Mr. Carter claims that this is one of the largest yields on record.

Adjutant and Mrs. W. H. Squarebriggs has improved since being on after a three months visit to Charlottetown and vicinity. Mr. Squarebriggs has improved since being on the island. After a few weeks visit at St. John they return to New York to take up their former work in the Salvation Army there.

Word has been received of a very pleasing event which took place on the 26th of Sept. 1912, at the home of Mrs. D. A. Martin, 918, N. Henry St., Butte City, Montana, when Lillie C. Taylor of Weston, Mass, daughter of Wm B. Taylor, Mill View, P. E. Island, was united in marriage to Samuel Lamont of that city, son of Rev. Murdoch Lamont, Glasgow, Scotland. The Rev. I. I. Dalton performed the ceremony in the presence of numerous friends of the interested parties. Miss Lottie M. Willis was bridesmaid, with Ewen Hume, acting as groomsmen. The bride was very handsomely attired, and was the recipient of many pretty and valuable gifts. After the ceremony, all partook of a sumptuous supper, prepared by Mrs. Martin. Mr. and Mrs. Lamont are now at home in their beautiful new residence 1003, Wankelaw Street. The Guardian extends heartiest congratulations.

The Island Condition Powder gives excellent results. We know of none better and guarantee each package. If you are not satisfied with the results we will gladly refund your money. We prepare this powder ourselves and use only the purest ingredients. 25c full lb. price. E. A. Foster, Central Drugstore, Sunnyside.

Miss Elsie Henderson of Union Road is under-going treatment at the P. E. Island Hospital, Charlottetown.

D. A. Wedlock, Charlottetown, was a passenger to Summerside this morning en route to St. John.

The Northumberland left Charlottetown at 8.25 this morning for Pictou with a small passenger list and a general cargo of freight.

The eastern express arrived in Charlottetown today at 9.30 a. m., on time; the southern accommodation at 9.35 a. m., on time; the Cape Traverse accommodation at 11.40 a. m., on time.

Rev. J. Edward Rendle engaged in Missionary work among the Indians of British Columbia on behalf of the Canadian Methodist Church conducted the morning service in the Cornwall Methodist Church last Sunday morning to the edification of all concerned, and those who were privileged to hear him. In the same place Tuesday evening he related his work and experiences in his field of labor. An enjoyable treat, humorous, earnest, pathetic by times it was intensely interesting and left no doubt in the minds of his hearers that his heart was in his work.

The W. M. S. of the Cornwall Methodist Church held their October meeting on the evening of the 3rd at the home of Henry and Mrs. Hyde. The attendance was excellent and the stated services were not excluded. A profitable time in prayer and conference and mission class study was passed after which a generous supply of refreshments for the body was handed around partaken of by all and much appreciated. The September meeting was rendered interesting by the attendance of Mrs. (Rev.) Saml. Howard of Brockville who gave a most interesting paper on the church's mission, needs, illustrated by most telling diagrams.

The Sunday School Rally Day service held in the Methodist Churches at North Wiltshire, Kingston and Cornwall last Sunday were an unqualified success and great credit is due the workers. The scholars, teachers, singers and reciters all acquitted themselves remarkably well. The grand old Union Jack accompanied by a portrait of King George 5th was very much in evidence and the Cornwall service closed with the National Anthem. The decorations were most tasteful with a wealth of autumn flowers and leaves. It would be invidious to single out names, but the names of the Superintendents and organists—North Wiltshire Howard and Balderston, Miss Clara Balderston, Kingston, George Cruwys, Miss Lela Barrett and Cornwall James Howard and Mrs. Frank Howard.

Our lady patrons are continually remarking on how bright and clean our store is. We have installed all the latest and most modern fixtures and everything is kept under glass to insure freedom from dust and dirt. We have a large staff of capable clerks who will see that your every want is attended to. Give our store a call the next time you are down town. The McKinnon Drug Co., Corner Gt. George and Kent Sts. 10-11Mtd.

Diamond Rings

Nobody wishes to buy a flawed, imperfect diamond. It may be a pretty stone but the fact that it is flawed, detracts greatly from its value, and it is not appreciated.

And yet, it is not easy for the layman to detect the presence of such defects: he must depend upon his jeweller.

Now my stock of diamond rings has been selected with particular care, and nothing but the best grade of gems has been purchased.

Usually, I know that I have priced these high grade goods at a substantial margin of profit, than is usually expected.

It will be to your advantage therefore to see these goods.
