AUGUST smilth augustly!

IT'S A CASE of intellectual farming when a man's feelings are harrowed.

AN EXCLAMATION of joy comes 4th when a mother discovers her baby's 1st 2th.

STILL AT IT. Mary had an automobile. And she ran it like a man; 'Twas a handy 40-horse power.

Mary couldn't make her payments. And they took the car away; Then she was almighty lonesome.

THE MOVIES. (By Little Benny.) The Movies are ware people go.

Everybody goes to the Movies. Children, ladies and gents, There's lots of places ware they'd rather be.

By buying your ticket before you go in. And give it to the man at the door.

And that's all bes standing there for. O everything's dark in the Movies.

And the ushers see "Heers a isle with a seat in it."

And if the picture is exciting you watch it.

By waking up and taking a peep. A MAN OUGHT by all means to have at least two weeks' vacation.

CAMPING OUT. Now's the time a fellow goes Camping out;

Oh, it's really lots of fun. Camping out; You rise with the peep o' sun.

There's many a man now wearing ENGLISH & SCOTCH WOOLLEN CO.'S clothes who could well afford to pay twice, yes, three times our price.

L. A. GAREAU, President, English and Scotch Woolen Co.

CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION

THIRD DISTRICT.

Mr. William Gibson, Mr. Wm. Holman, Mr. P. W. McLeod, Mr. Wm. Duffy, Mr. Charles McDonald.

FOURTH DISTRICT.

Mr. John Fraser, Mr. A. D. Ross, Mr. A. D. McDonald, Mr. J. S. Martin, Mr. William Acorn.

Mr. Murdoch Kennedy was elected a member of the Dominion Executive to act with the president, who is a member ex-officio.

On motion it was declared that Clause 12 in the new by-laws, which prevented Dominion and local officials acting as delegates should be struck out.

Mr. A. McLean, M. P. at the urgent request of many of the electors then stepped to the platform and gave a spirited address in which he stated that when Mr. Nicholson and himself appeared before the conference of the electors in 1911 they were elected by the largest vote ever polled by Liberal Conservatives.

They went to Ottawa at a time when Prince Edward Island had many grievances, such as communication, subsidy and representation.

It had been advocated for many years that a tunnel was the only feasible means of linking up this island with the mainland.

Mr. Nicholson consulted with Sir Robert Parkes, one of the greatest engineers in the world as to the tunnel scheme.

"It is a feasible proposition," said he, "but it will cost a great sum of money, will take twelve years to construct, and will cost $20,000,000."

Mr. Nicholson said he had secured $100,000 in the pockets of the Liberal members of the Senate to prevent the Island getting it.

Unfortunately the war came on, and the financial prospect of the Island was a very gloomy one.

Things to be proud of in this connection, however, in six weeks after the declaration of war 33,000 men were ready to serve the nation and were transhipped across the ocean to fight for the ideals which made the Empire what it is.

Mr. Nicholson said that he was proud of the accomplishment. Instead of the 50,000 men as first intended, Canada had now sent 350,000.

In 1914 a political truce had been arranged, "I must say," said Mr. Nicholson, "that a certain number of Liberals had been signing an agreement at the Government ever since and have not kept the truce."

Mr. Nicholson said he was pleased to meet such a large and enthusiastic gathering of the party. He said that the satisfaction of knowing that he had been in the front of the people, there had been some dissatisfaction he admitted, but that was due to the fact that they had been unable to get positions for everyone who desired or deserved them.

He reminded them that that was impossible in the short time the Government had been in power, and that when Sir H. D'Almeida was in office many Liberals had the same fault to find against him and he incurred a great deal of ill will which was not at all justified in the circumstances.

At the close of Mr. Nicholson's address the following resolution moved by Mr. L. P. Tanton, seconded by Dr. McMillan was carried unanimously.

RESOLVED.—That this Assembly of Liberal Conservatives of Queens County take pleasure in expressing our confidence in the Government of Canada under the distinguished leadership of Sir Robert Borden.

The establishment of our Car Ferry and the generous addition of one hundred thousand dollars to our subsidy in prompt fulfillment of his pre-election promise—to "carry out the terms of Union and settle our long standing grievances"—entirely Sir Robert Borden to the gratitude and lasting esteem of this Province.

"The Great World's War"—involving the most stupendous army creation and preparation of military equipment in the shortest possible period—has placed obligations and responsibilities upon the rulers of the Empire and her Dominions without parallel in human history.

It must be of source of gratification to the people of Canada, that our statesmen have measured up to the needs of this great trust reposed in them, and that our Government has so nobly responded to every call of duty, and so successfully grappled with the many grave issues confronting them.

An army of over a quarter of a million has been recruited, equipped and safely transported to the field of conflict to uphold Canadian honour, to bravely contend for the peace of the nations and to distinguish themselves upon the field of battle.

Contracts for war supplies immensely in excess of all precedent, gold and funds surpassing in extent every financial record of the past have been amply provided for. All this has been done with a speed and a tact which has elicited the wonder and admiration of the greatest writers and most practical thinkers of our day.

It is a matter for the further sincere satisfaction, that notwithstanding the enormous amount of money expended, under the most urgent demand for expedition and haste, severely searching the rigid investigations of the ablest of jurists and most competent of commissions has failed to implicate either the Government or any of its members in a dishonest act or corrupt transaction.

We also congratulate the Government upon their successful general policy which has maintained confidence in the stability of our financial institutions, encouraged agricultural and industrial enterprise, inducing splendid increases of the revenue and an abounding prosperity in the trade and commerce of the Dominion in defiance of the disturbances caused by an appalling war.

The meeting adjourned after cheers for Sir Robert Borden.

AFTERNOON MEETING. The old guard Messrs. Nicholson and McLean proved the choice of the delegates at the big meeting in the afternoon. The delegates filled the hall and splendid order prevailed, and great enthusiasm was evident throughout.

DON'T WORRY CLUBS are not making much progress in Germany.

IT'S USELESS for any man to kill himself trying to save his life.

LEFT OVER SPRING "POME." Let all the poets harp it; But wouldn't it be just divine, To have a beatless carpet?

GAS METRES. Hub (with newspaper)—I see that the French have gained two hundred metres from the enemy. Wife—Two hundred metres! I suppose the Germans made another of their gas attacks.

THE AMATEUR CARPENTER Breathes a man with soul so dead Who never to himself hath said: When on his thumb, the hammer fell!

A society for disseminating religious literature once sent a bundle of tracts to a railway manager for placing in the waiting room, with the title: "A Route to New Jerusalem." He returned them with the message: "We cannot place the tracts, as New Jerusalem is not on our system."

NATURAL BENT. "Do you believe we ever show our real bent when we are children?" asked Hink of the genial philosopher. "Yes," replied the genial philosopher. "I know a barber in this town who at the age of five was the most disagreeable shaver you ever saw, and always mixed up in some sort of bad scrape."

THE CHARGE OF THE "LIME" BRIGADE. (New York Sun.) Half an inch, half an inch, Half an inch short! Whether the skirts be for Mother or daughter, Briefer the dresses grow, Fuller the ripples now, While whisking glimpses show More than they oughter.

Forward the dress parade, Is there a man dismayed, No—from the sight displayed, None could be sundered, Theirs not to make remark, Clergyman, clubman, clerk, Gaping from noon till dark, At the Four Hundred.

Short skirts to the right of them, Shorter in front of them, Flannel and bird— All sorts of shapes and pegs, In hose of strips and plaid, Hued most exceedingly glad, Sporting in spats run mad, Come the short-skirted.

Flashed all their ankles there, Flashed as they turned in air, "What will not woman dare?" "Though the exhibits show Some of them blundered," All sorts of shapes and pegs, Broomsticks, piano legs, Here and there fairy shapes, Just buff to walk on eggs, Come by the hundred.

When can their glory fade, O—the wild show they made, All the world wondered, Grand dame and demoiselle, Shop girl and Bowery Belle— Four Hundred, 'Tm. Oh, well, Any old hundred.
