

WORTH THE EXTRA COST

That's made by "ROBIN Hood" Spring wheat is pure and bag you'll find a Deed—money back is guaranteed.

ROBIN HOOD FLOUR

THE ROBIN HOOD MILLS LIMITED

Robin Hood Flour

FOR 40,000 MEN

President, said that 40,000 men had been fitted with artificial limbs as the result of the establishment of the Society.

SOVIET IS SEIZING CHURCH TREASURES

MOSCOW, March 3.—The Soviet Government's decree confiscating church treasures for the benefit of famine sufferers was published today. It provides for the taking over of all precious metals and stones, which would not interfere with the interests of the various cults.

Three Points of Superiority

Beauty!

There is no prettier kitchen ware than SMP Diamond or Pearl Ware. Diamond Ware utensils are light blue and white outside and milk-white inside. Pearl Ware utensils are grey and white inside and out. Beautiful ware!

Cleanliness!

There is no cleaner, brighter-looking kitchen ware than SMP Diamond or Pearl Ware, and there is none easier to keep clean. Soap and hot dish water are all you need, because grease, dirt, stain, taint or tarnish can get no grip on SMP enamel. It's so hard and smooth. Wipes sweet and clean like china.

Durability!

There is no more durable kitchen ware than SMP Diamond or Pearl Ware. With reasonable care, good glazed steel cooking utensils last for years. Diamond and Pearl utensils are made of open hearth steel—heavily coated with a specially tough, hard, porcelain enamel. There is no better enameled ware made.

SMP Diamond or Pearl WARE

"A Face of Porcelain and a Heart of Steel"

Do you know that a Diamond or Pearl Ware pot that sold for $1.50 last year, can be bought now for 90 cents?

The Sheet Metal Products Co., of Canada
Montreal Toronto Winnipeg
Edmonton Vancouver Calgary

Provincial Horse Show

Charlottetown March 8th, 1922

The Provincial Horse Show will be held in the AGRICULTURAL HALL, Charlottetown, on Wednesday, March 8th. SPECIAL CONCESSION TO STALLION OWNERS: Fifty per cent of the freight charges on Stallions coming over twenty miles by rail will be paid by the Department of Agriculture.

For particulars and copies of Prize List, apply to, W. Boulter, Secretary, Charlottetown.

THE CENTRAL GUARDIAN

SHOP from Holman's Catalog.

FIRST AID BOOK free to each new or Renewal Subscription.

MARSHFIELD Farmers Institute banquet, March 9th, at 8 o'clock. If not fine, Friday.

WE HAVE A JOB LOT of Women's colored cloth gaiters at 9c. They are worth looking over. Alley & Co. Ltd.

SUBSCRIBERS! Do not miss the chance of getting a First Aid or a Cook Book when renewing your subscriptions.

BASKET SOCIAL and entertainment will be held in the Brudalbane Hall, Friday, March 10th, Longley Programme, Hot Coffee and Tea served free. Admission 25 cents.

TWENTIETH CENTURY COOK BOOK or a Farmer's First Aid Book free to each NEW or RENEWAL subscription received.

THE HUNTER RIVER DRAMATIC CLUB will present "Light House Nan" in the Fredericton Hall on Tuesday night, March 7th. Admission 35 and 20 cts. If not fine first night following.

ALL OF THE LADIES, Oxford Boots and Pumps in our south window are six, five and the price is $3.95, an extremely low one for high class footwear, we can also supply other sizes, Alley & Company, Ltd.

BASKET AND SOCIAL and entertainment will be held in the McDonald Consolidated School, Tuesday, March 7. Admission 25c. Ladies with baskets free. Proceeds for McDonald Women's Institute Good program provided by city to lent. It might stormy following night.

COAL SHORTAGE. The coal situation in a very acute condition in Alberton. With the exception of three cars, which arrived a few days ago, there has been no coal here for over a month. While there has been no privation as yet, conditions are really tending towards it, and the arrival of eight or ten cars would be welcomed. We are reluctant to consider what would have been the plight of some of us had there also been no wood.

ISLAND EDUCATIONALISTS. It is interesting to note the large number of representatives of Prince Edward Island engaged in educational work in Vancouver, B. C. On the staff of the University of British Columbia are the following: Chancellor, R. E. McKenzie; M. D., C. M. F. A. C. S., H. D. The Senate—ex officio—J. J. Willis, B. A., Deputy Minister of Education, Victoria, Hon. John Duncan McLean, Minister of Education, H. C. Shaw, K. C. B. A., Stipendiary Magistrate and Judge of the Juvenile Court, J. S. Gordon, B. A. Municipal Inspector of Schools, Rev. W. Leslie Clay, B. A., D. D. Professors: Department of Mathematics, George E. Robinson, B. A. E. E. Jardine, M. A.; Department of Classics, Lemuel F. Robertson, M. A.; Mechanical Engineering, L. W. Gill, M. S. C.; Civic Engineering, E. G. Matheson, B. A. Sc. M. E., I. C. M. Am. S. E. Prominent in other lines of work are Rev. George D. Laird, land, City Relief; David J. Laird, Department of Agronomy, A. H. B. McGowan, Edward Bayfield, Frank Bayfield, Barrister at Law; Jeffrey and Fred Bayfield, M. D.'s; Arthur J. H. Melish, Barrister at Law and Magistrate for West Vancouver; Albert McNeill, C. B. McNeill, Barrister at Law, P. E. Woodside, Alderman; J. E. Allan and J. O. McLeod, Superintendent of Railway Mail Service, Fred Peckins, George Bagnall, Lionel Peake, M. J. Wright, Richmond Wright, R. H. Stewart, E. E. Earle, and many others—Maple Leaf.

SCOTTISH FAMILIES. In a recent issue of the Nairnshire Telegraph, published in Nairnshire Scotland, a column is devoted to the families in Prince Edward Island, who were descended from residents of Nairn. These families are the MacPhails and the Gordons. With regard to the former, it is said that some few years after the battle of Culloden one Paul MacPhail owned the small property of Invercraig in the parish of Daviot, near the head waters of the river Nairn. Paul had been twice married, and at his death his descendants of his two wives fell out about the successor to the little property. They went to law, and in the end, the estate had to be sold to pay the lawyers. The families scattered, some of them settling in Nairn, one of them becoming Procurator Fiscal for the Burgh. Others of them went abroad, and one family established itself in Prince Edward Island. The MacPhails in general are greatly prospered, and at the present moment two of their sons hold distinguished positions. One of them is Sir Andrew MacPhail, 8th, an eminent physician and learned lawyer of Montreal. The other is a martyr of the Gordon's, near X. Alberton, in whose memory the tablet was unveiled in Alberton Church last July. The other part of the article deals with the Gordons of Montreal. The great Sergeant Robert Gordon of the disbanded noncommissioned officers of the British army in Canada, came to Nairn and married Elizabeth MacPhail, and the martyred Gordons were descended from these. The thrilling story of George Nicol Gordon, and his brother James is then told. Reference is made to the report of the unrolling of the bronze tablet last July.

GOES TO PARIS BANK

LONDON, March 3.—Col. J. B. Donnelly, London manager for the Merchants Bank, has been appointed assistant manager for the Bank of Montreal in Paris. Col. Pope, whom Col. Donnelly replaces, will return to Quebec, where he will become manager of the St. Roch branch of the Bank of Montreal.

RELIABLE REMEDIES and Toilet Preparations

Whenever we are asked to recommend some good remedy or toilet preparation—we often suggest our own make. This is not done selfishly or with an aim of securing a larger profit, in such cases we are prompted solely by the fact that we know our own products are of the highest quality. OUR preparations are prepared upon honor, and all ingredients are of the purest and best. Our line includes:

OUR CORN REMEDY, CHAPLATIONS, COLD CREAMS, HEADACHE POWDERS, TOOTH REMEDIES, COLIC TABLETS, TALCUM POWDERS, EMULSIONS, BEEF BROWN AND WINE, ETC., ETC.

You take no chance in testing the value of our preparations as they are all THE BEST.

Johnson & Johnson

The Quality Drugstore
Cor. Kent and Prince Streets

YOUR NERVES and Your Job.

Medical authorities are unanimous in asserting that poor vision heavily taxes nerve force, and is, therefore, a vital drawback to mental efficiency. UNKNOWNLY—70 per cent. of us all have poor vision, in some degree. Remember correct vision means banished "nerves," more mental energy and efficiency to put into your job. Stop "thinking" that your vision is all right—know! Consult Dr. E. C. Harris for prompt and efficient service, Royal Bank Building. Hours daily from 9.30 to 12.30 —2 to 5.

DR. E. C. HARRIS

Royal Bank Building

STROUD TEA

In 1 lb. and 1.2 lb. Packages.

Use Minard's Liniment for the Flu.

EDS CAFE

Meals served at all hours

EDGAR WHITLOCK
Proprietor
Opposite Stewart's Bakery

RELIABLE REMEDIES and Toilet Preparations

Whenever we are asked to recommend some good remedy or toilet preparation—we often suggest our own make. This is not done selfishly or with an aim of securing a larger profit, in such cases we are prompted solely by the fact that we know our own products are of the highest quality. OUR preparations are prepared upon honor, and all ingredients are of the purest and best. Our line includes:

OUR CORN REMEDY, CHAPLATIONS, COLD CREAMS, HEADACHE POWDERS, TOOTH REMEDIES, COLIC TABLETS, TALCUM POWDERS, EMULSIONS, BEEF BROWN AND WINE, ETC., ETC.

You take no chance in testing the value of our preparations as they are all THE BEST.

Johnson & Johnson

The Quality Drugstore
Cor. Kent and Prince Streets

STOCKS

C. J. 101 1/2
C. G. E. 96 1/2
N. I. 58
A. 36

Abilibi
Montreal
Steamships Pfd.
A. F.
Cen. 78
P. R. S.
Canadian Electric
C. J. X.
Dominion Bridge Ill Com
W. P. G. 35
M. P. 85 1/2
Shaw
A. C.
U. U.
P. F. D.
Wheat, May 140 1/2, July 119 3/4, Sept. 113 1/2.
Corn, May 63, July 65 1/2, Oats, May 40 1/2, July 42 1/2.

BANKS

Bank Royal 196
Bank Royal 196
Bank Nova Scotia
Bank Montreal

MONTREAL EXCHANGE

1937 Victory 104.65
1934 Victory 102.50
1934 Victory 99.80
1922 Victory 99.70

STOCKS

C. J. 101 1/2
C. G. E. 96 1/2
N. I. 58
A. 36

STOCKS

C. J. 101 1/2
C. G. E. 96 1/2
N. I. 58
A. 36

STOCKS

C. J. 101 1/2
C. G. E. 96 1/2
N. I. 58
A. 36

STOCKS

C. J. 101 1/2
C. G. E. 96 1/2
N. I. 58
A. 36

STOCKS

C. J. 101 1/2
C. G. E. 96 1/2
N. I. 58
A. 36

STOCKS

C. J. 101 1/2
C. G. E. 96 1/2
N. I. 58
A. 36

STOCKS

C. J. 101 1/2
C. G. E. 96 1/2
N. I. 58
A. 36

STOCKS

C. J. 101 1/2
C. G. E. 96 1/2
N. I. 58
A. 36

STOCKS

C. J. 101 1/2
C. G. E. 96 1/2
N. I. 58
A. 36

STOCKS

C. J. 101 1/2
C. G. E. 96 1/2
N. I. 58
A. 36

STOCKS

C. J. 101 1/2
C. G. E. 96 1/2
N. I. 58
A. 36

STOCKS

C. J. 101 1/2
C. G. E. 96 1/2
N. I. 58
A. 36

STOCKS

C. J. 101 1/2
C. G. E. 96 1/2
N. I. 58
A. 36

CARS OF COAL arriving daily, also petroleum cake, A. Alyward & Co., Connolly's Wharf, Phone 176.

RENEWAL NOTICES are being sent out. Ask for Cook Book or Farmer's First Aid Book, when renewing. Free to new and renewal subscribers.

HUNTER RIVER DRAMATIC CLUB will present "Light House Nan" at New Glasgow Hall, Thursday evening, March 9th, admission 50 and 25 cents.

NOTICE—Did you renew your subscription yet? If not now is the time and get an animal First Aid book.

CARD OF THANKS—Mr. Daniel McGilivray and daughter, Mrs. William Coady wish to thank their many friends and neighbors for the kindness shown during the illness and death of a loving wife and mother.

THE LATE MRS. G. B. AITKEN—The death, occurred at Lower Montague, Sunday morning after a three weeks illness of Jane Shaw, relict of the late George B. Aitken, in the 80th year of her age. Mrs. Aitken was the daughter of the late Neil Shaw of Montague and was the last of the family to pass away. She was a most estimable Christian lady, of kind hearted, lovable disposition, devoted to home in the 80th year of her age. Mrs. Aitken was the daughter of the late Neil Shaw of Montague and was the last of the family to pass away. She was a most estimable Christian lady, of kind hearted, lovable disposition, devoted to home in the 80th year of her age. Mrs. Aitken was the daughter of the late Neil Shaw of Montague and was the last of the family to pass away. She was a most estimable Christian lady, of kind hearted, lovable disposition, devoted to home in the 80th year of her age.

THE LATE MRS. G. B. AITKEN—The death, occurred at Lower Montague, Sunday morning after a three weeks illness of Jane Shaw, relict of the late George B. Aitken, in the 80th year of her age. Mrs. Aitken was the daughter of the late Neil Shaw of Montague and was the last of the family to pass away. She was a most estimable Christian lady, of kind hearted, lovable disposition, devoted to home in the 80th year of her age. Mrs. Aitken was the daughter of the late Neil Shaw of Montague and was the last of the family to pass away. She was a most estimable Christian lady, of kind hearted, lovable disposition, devoted to home in the 80th year of her age.

PROFESSIONAL SKATER.—The Canadian Professional Speed Skating Championships were held in St. John on Friday, Feb. 24th, and Saturday, Feb. 25th. Eleven thousand people in all turned out together, the fastest skaters in the world were on the ice. Among the starters were Arthur Staff of Chicago International Professional Champion, Edmund Lamy of Saranac Lake former Professional Champion, Bobby McLean of Chicago, former Champion of the world, Donald Baker of Brooklyn Trick and fancy skater was a stater, Gladys Robinson of Toronto, Amateur Champion for women was billed as an added attraction. Arthur Staff won the meet, Edmund Lamy was second, Bobby McLean was third and Everett McGowan fourth. James L. McNulty of St. John was the promoter and manager of the meet. Mr. McNulty is well known throughout Prince Edward Island through his connection with athletics, particularly boxing and hockey. He is a member of the committee of the John Young rink and in the course of his work makes many business visits to Charlottetown.

SCOTTISH FAMILIES. In a recent issue of the Nairnshire Telegraph, published in Nairnshire Scotland, a column is devoted to the families in Prince Edward Island, who were descended from residents of Nairn. These families are the MacPhails and the Gordons. With regard to the former, it is said that some few years after the battle of Culloden one Paul MacPhail owned the small property of Invercraig in the parish of Daviot, near the head waters of the river Nairn. Paul had been twice married, and at his death his descendants of his two wives fell out about the successor to the little property. They went to law, and in the end, the estate had to be sold to pay the lawyers. The families scattered, some of them settling in Nairn, one of them becoming Procurator Fiscal for the Burgh. Others of them went abroad, and one family established itself in Prince Edward Island. The MacPhails in general are greatly prospered, and at the present moment two of their sons hold distinguished positions. One of them is Sir Andrew MacPhail, 8th, an eminent physician and learned lawyer of Montreal. The other is a martyr of the Gordon's, near X. Alberton, in whose memory the tablet was unveiled in Alberton Church last July. The other part of the article deals with the Gordons of Montreal. The great Sergeant Robert Gordon of the disbanded noncommissioned officers of the British army in Canada, came to Nairn and married Elizabeth MacPhail, and the martyred Gordons were descended from these. The thrilling story of George Nicol Gordon, and his brother James is then told. Reference is made to the report of the unrolling of the bronze tablet last July.

SCOTTISH FAMILIES. In a recent issue of the Nairnshire Telegraph, published in Nairnshire Scotland, a column is devoted to the families in Prince Edward Island, who were descended from residents of Nairn. These families are the MacPhails and the Gordons. With regard to the former, it is said that some few years after the battle of Culloden one Paul MacPhail owned the small property of Invercraig in the parish of Daviot, near the head waters of the river Nairn. Paul had been twice married, and at his death his descendants of his two wives fell out about the successor to the little property. They went to law, and in the end, the estate had to be sold to pay the lawyers. The families scattered, some of them settling in Nairn, one of them becoming Procurator Fiscal for the Burgh. Others of them went abroad, and one family established itself in Prince Edward Island. The MacPhails in general are greatly prospered, and at the present moment two of their sons hold distinguished positions. One of them is Sir Andrew MacPhail, 8th, an eminent physician and learned lawyer of Montreal. The other is a martyr of the Gordon's, near X. Alberton, in whose memory the tablet was unveiled in Alberton Church last July. The other part of the article deals with the Gordons of Montreal. The great Sergeant Robert Gordon of the disbanded noncommissioned officers of the British army in Canada, came to Nairn and married Elizabeth MacPhail, and the martyred Gordons were descended from these. The thrilling story of George Nicol Gordon, and his brother James is then told. Reference is made to the report of the unrolling of the bronze tablet last July.

SCOTTISH FAMILIES. In a recent issue of the Nairnshire Telegraph, published in Nairnshire Scotland, a column is devoted to the families in Prince Edward Island, who were descended from residents of Nairn. These families are the MacPhails and the Gordons. With regard to the former, it is said that some few years after the battle of Culloden one Paul MacPhail owned the small property of Invercraig in the parish of Daviot, near the head waters of the river Nairn. Paul had been twice married, and at his death his descendants of his two wives fell out about the successor to the little property. They went to law, and in the end, the estate had to be sold to pay the lawyers. The families scattered, some of them settling in Nairn, one of them becoming Procurator Fiscal for the Burgh. Others of them went abroad, and one family established itself in Prince Edward Island. The MacPhails in general are greatly prospered, and at the present moment two of their sons hold distinguished positions. One of them is Sir Andrew MacPhail, 8th, an eminent physician and learned lawyer of Montreal. The other is a martyr of the Gordon's, near X. Alberton, in whose memory the tablet was unveiled in Alberton Church last July. The other part of the article deals with the Gordons of Montreal. The great Sergeant Robert Gordon of the disbanded noncommissioned officers of the British army in Canada, came to Nairn and married Elizabeth MacPhail, and the martyred Gordons were descended from these. The thrilling story of George Nicol Gordon, and his brother James is then told. Reference is made to the report of the unrolling of the bronze tablet last July.

SCOTTISH FAMILIES. In a recent issue of the Nairnshire Telegraph, published in Nairnshire Scotland, a column is devoted to the families in Prince Edward Island, who were descended from residents of Nairn. These families are the MacPhails and the Gordons. With regard to the former, it is said that some few years after the battle of Culloden one Paul MacPhail owned the small property of Invercraig in the parish of Daviot, near the head waters of the river Nairn. Paul had been twice married, and at his death his descendants of his two wives fell out about the successor to the little property. They went to law, and in the end, the estate had to be sold to pay the lawyers. The families scattered, some of them settling in Nairn, one of them becoming Procurator Fiscal for the Burgh. Others of them went abroad, and one family established itself in Prince Edward Island. The MacPhails in general are greatly prospered, and at the present moment two of their sons hold distinguished positions. One of them is Sir Andrew MacPhail, 8th, an eminent physician and learned lawyer of Montreal. The other is a martyr of the Gordon's, near X. Alberton, in whose memory the tablet was unveiled in Alberton Church last July. The other part of the article deals with the Gordons of Montreal. The great Sergeant Robert Gordon of the disbanded noncommissioned officers of the British army in Canada, came to Nairn and married Elizabeth MacPhail, and the martyred Gordons were descended from these. The thrilling story of George Nicol Gordon, and his brother James is then told. Reference is made to the report of the unrolling of the bronze tablet last July.

SCOTTISH FAMILIES. In a recent issue of the Nairnshire Telegraph, published in Nairnshire Scotland, a column is devoted to the families in Prince Edward Island, who were descended from residents of Nairn. These families are the MacPhails and the Gordons. With regard to the former, it is said that some few years after the battle of Culloden one Paul MacPhail owned the small property of Invercraig in the parish of Daviot, near the head waters of the river Nairn. Paul had been twice married, and at his death his descendants of his two wives fell out about the successor to the little property. They went to law, and in the end, the estate had to be sold to pay the lawyers. The families scattered, some of them settling in Nairn, one of them becoming Procurator Fiscal for the Burgh. Others of them went abroad, and one family established itself in Prince Edward Island. The MacPhails in general are greatly prospered, and at the present moment two of their sons hold distinguished positions. One of them is Sir Andrew MacPhail, 8th, an eminent physician and learned lawyer of Montreal. The other is a martyr of the Gordon's, near X. Alberton, in whose memory the tablet was unveiled in Alberton Church last July. The other part of the article deals with the Gordons of Montreal. The great Sergeant Robert Gordon of the disbanded noncommissioned officers of the British army in Canada, came to Nairn and married Elizabeth MacPhail, and the martyred Gordons were descended from these. The thrilling story of George Nicol Gordon, and his brother James is then told. Reference is made to the report of the unrolling of the bronze tablet last July.

SCOTTISH FAMILIES. In a recent issue of the Nairnshire Telegraph, published in Nairnshire Scotland, a column is devoted to the families in Prince Edward Island, who were descended from residents of Nairn. These families are the MacPhails and the Gordons. With regard to the former, it is said that some few years after the battle of Culloden one Paul MacPhail owned the small property of Invercraig in the parish of Daviot, near the head waters of the river Nairn. Paul had been twice married, and at his death his descendants of his two wives fell out about the successor to the little property. They went to law, and in the end, the estate had to be sold to pay the lawyers. The families scattered, some of them settling in Nairn, one of them becoming Procurator Fiscal for the Burgh. Others of them went abroad, and one family established itself in Prince Edward Island. The MacPhails in general are greatly prospered, and at the present moment two of their sons hold distinguished positions. One of them is Sir Andrew MacPhail, 8th, an eminent physician and learned lawyer of Montreal. The other is a martyr of the Gordon's, near X. Alberton, in whose memory the tablet was unveiled in Alberton Church last July. The other part of the article deals with the Gordons of Montreal. The great Sergeant Robert Gordon of the disbanded noncommissioned officers of the British army in Canada, came to Nairn and married Elizabeth MacPhail, and the martyred Gordons were descended from these. The thrilling story of George Nicol Gordon, and his brother James is then told. Reference is made to the report of the unrolling of the bronze tablet last July.

SCOTTISH FAMILIES. In a recent issue of the Nairnshire Telegraph, published in Nairnshire Scotland, a column is devoted to the families in Prince Edward Island, who were descended from residents of Nairn. These families are the MacPhails and the Gordons. With regard to the former, it is said that some few years after the battle of Culloden one Paul MacPhail owned the small property of Invercraig in the parish of Daviot, near the head waters of the river Nairn. Paul had been twice married, and at his death his descendants of his two wives fell out about the successor to the little property. They went to law, and in the end, the estate had to be sold to pay the lawyers. The families scattered, some of them settling in Nairn, one of them becoming Procurator Fiscal for the Burgh. Others of them went abroad, and one family established itself in Prince Edward Island. The MacPhails in general are greatly prospered, and at the present moment two of their sons hold distinguished positions. One of them is Sir Andrew MacPhail, 8th, an eminent physician and learned lawyer of Montreal. The other is a martyr of the Gordon's, near X. Alberton, in whose memory the tablet was unveiled in Alberton Church last July. The other part of the article deals with the Gordons of Montreal. The great Sergeant Robert Gordon of the disbanded noncommissioned officers of the British army in Canada, came to Nairn and married Elizabeth MacPhail, and the martyred Gordons were descended from these. The thrilling story of George Nicol Gordon, and his brother James is then told. Reference is made to the report of the unrolling of the bronze tablet last July.

SCOTTISH FAMILIES. In a recent issue of the Nairnshire Telegraph, published in Nairnshire Scotland, a column is devoted to the families in Prince Edward Island, who were descended from residents of Nairn. These families are the MacPhails and the Gordons. With regard to the former, it is said that some few years after the battle of Culloden one Paul MacPhail owned the small property of Invercraig in the parish of Daviot, near the head waters of the river Nairn. Paul had been twice married, and at his death his descendants of his two wives fell out about the successor to the little property. They went to law, and in the end, the estate had to be sold to pay the lawyers. The families scattered, some of them settling in Nairn, one of them becoming Procurator Fiscal for the Burgh. Others of them went abroad, and one family established itself in Prince Edward Island. The MacPhails in general are greatly prospered, and at the present moment two of their sons hold distinguished positions. One of them is Sir Andrew MacPhail, 8th, an eminent physician and learned lawyer of Montreal. The other is a martyr of the Gordon's, near X. Alberton, in whose memory the tablet was unveiled in Alberton Church last July. The other part of the article deals with the Gordons of Montreal. The great Sergeant Robert Gordon of the disbanded noncommissioned officers of the British army in Canada, came to Nairn and married Elizabeth MacPhail, and the martyred Gordons were descended from these. The thrilling story of George Nicol Gordon, and his brother James is then told. Reference is made to the report of the unrolling of the bronze tablet last July.

SCOTTISH FAMILIES. In a recent issue of the Nairnshire Telegraph, published in Nairnshire Scotland, a column is devoted to the families in Prince Edward Island, who were descended from residents of Nairn. These families are the MacPhails and the Gordons. With regard to the former, it is said that some few years after the battle of Culloden one Paul MacPhail owned the small property of Invercraig in the parish of Daviot, near the head waters of the river Nairn. Paul had been twice married, and at his death his descendants of his two wives fell out about the successor to the little property. They went to law, and in the end, the estate had to be sold to pay the lawyers. The families scattered, some of them settling in Nairn, one of them becoming Procurator Fiscal for the Burgh. Others of them went abroad, and one family established itself in Prince Edward Island. The MacPhails in general are greatly prospered, and at the present moment two of their sons hold distinguished positions. One of them is Sir Andrew MacPhail, 8th, an eminent physician and learned lawyer of Montreal. The other is a martyr of the Gordon's, near X. Alberton, in whose memory the tablet was unveiled in Alberton Church last July. The other part of the article deals with the Gordons of Montreal. The great Sergeant Robert Gordon of the disbanded noncommissioned officers of the British army in Canada, came to Nairn and married Elizabeth MacPhail, and the martyred Gordons were descended from these. The thrilling story of George Nicol Gordon, and his brother James is then told. Reference is made to the report of the unrolling of the bronze tablet last July.

SCOTTISH FAMILIES. In a recent issue of the Nairnshire Telegraph, published in Nairnshire Scotland, a column is devoted to the families in Prince Edward Island, who were descended from residents of Nairn. These families are the MacPhails and the Gordons. With regard to the former, it is said that some few years after the battle of Culloden one Paul MacPhail owned the small property of Invercraig in the parish of Daviot, near the head waters of the river Nairn. Paul had been twice married, and at his death his descendants of his two wives fell out about the successor to the little property. They went to law, and in the end, the estate had to be sold to pay the lawyers. The families scattered, some of them settling in Nairn, one of them becoming Procurator Fiscal for the Burgh. Others of them went abroad, and one family established itself in Prince Edward Island. The MacPhails in general are greatly prospered, and at the present moment two of their sons hold distinguished positions. One of them is Sir Andrew MacPhail, 8th, an eminent physician and learned lawyer of Montreal. The other is a martyr of the Gordon's, near X. Alberton, in whose memory the tablet was unveiled in Alberton Church last July. The other part of the article deals with the Gordons of Montreal. The great Sergeant Robert Gordon of the disbanded noncommissioned officers of the British army in Canada, came to Nairn and married Elizabeth MacPhail, and the martyred Gordons were descended from these. The thrilling story of George Nicol Gordon, and his brother James is then told. Reference is made to the report of the unrolling of the bronze tablet last July.

SCOTTISH FAMILIES. In a recent issue of the Nairnshire Telegraph, published in Nairnshire Scotland, a column is devoted to the families in Prince Edward Island, who were descended from residents of Nairn. These families are the MacPhails and the Gordons. With regard to the former, it is said that some few years after the battle of Culloden one Paul MacPhail owned the small property of Invercraig in the parish of Daviot, near the head waters of the river Nairn. Paul had been twice married, and at his death his descendants of his two wives fell out about the successor to the little property. They went to law, and in the end, the estate had to be sold to pay the lawyers. The families scattered, some of them settling in Nairn, one of them becoming Procurator Fiscal for the Burgh. Others of them went abroad, and one family established itself in Prince Edward Island. The MacPhails in general are greatly prospered, and at the present moment two of their sons hold distinguished positions. One of them is Sir Andrew MacPhail, 8th, an eminent physician and learned lawyer of Montreal. The other is a martyr of the Gordon's, near X. Alberton, in whose memory the tablet was unveiled in Alberton Church last July. The other part of the article deals with the Gordons of Montreal. The great Sergeant Robert Gordon of the disbanded noncommissioned officers of the British army in Canada, came to Nairn and married Elizabeth MacPhail, and the martyred Gordons were descended from these. The thrilling story of George Nicol Gordon, and his brother James is then told. Reference is made to the report of the unrolling of the bronze tablet last July.

SCOTTISH FAMILIES. In a recent issue of the Nairnshire Telegraph, published in Nairnshire Scotland, a column is devoted to the families in Prince Edward Island, who were descended from residents of Nairn. These families are the MacPhails and the Gordons. With regard to the former, it is said that some few years after the battle of Culloden one Paul MacPhail owned the small property of Invercraig in the parish of Daviot, near the head waters of the river Nairn. Paul had been twice married, and at his death his descendants of his two wives fell out about the successor to the little property. They went to law, and in the end, the estate had to be sold to pay the lawyers. The families scattered, some of them settling in Nairn, one of them becoming Procurator Fiscal for the Burgh. Others of them went abroad, and one family established itself in Prince Edward Island. The MacPhails in general are greatly prospered, and at the present moment two of their sons hold distinguished positions. One of them is Sir Andrew MacPhail, 8th, an eminent physician and learned lawyer of Montreal. The other is a martyr of the Gordon's, near X. Alberton, in whose memory the tablet was unveiled in Alberton Church last July. The other part of the article deals with the Gordons of Montreal. The great Sergeant Robert Gordon of the disbanded noncommissioned officers of the British army in Canada, came to Nairn and married Elizabeth MacPhail, and the martyred Gordons were descended from these. The thrilling story of George Nicol Gordon, and his brother James is then told. Reference is made to the report of the unrolling of the bronze tablet last July.

SCOTTISH FAMILIES. In a recent issue of the Nairnshire Telegraph, published in Nairnshire Scotland, a column is devoted to the families in Prince Edward Island, who were descended from residents of Nairn. These families are the MacPhails and the Gordons. With regard to the former, it is said that some few years after the battle of Culloden one Paul MacPhail owned the small property of Invercraig in the parish of Daviot, near the head waters of the river Nairn. Paul had been twice married, and at his death his descendants of his two wives fell out about the successor to the little property. They went to law, and in the end, the estate had to be sold to pay the lawyers. The families scattered, some of them settling in Nairn, one of them becoming Procurator Fiscal for the Burgh. Others of them went abroad, and one family established itself in Prince Edward Island. The MacPhails in general are greatly prospered, and at the present moment two of their sons hold distinguished positions. One of them is Sir Andrew MacPhail, 8th, an eminent physician and learned lawyer of Montreal. The other is a martyr of the Gordon's, near X. Alberton, in whose memory the tablet was unveiled in Alberton Church last July. The other part of the article deals with the Gordons of Montreal. The great Sergeant Robert Gordon of the disbanded noncommissioned officers of the British army in Canada, came to Nairn and married Elizabeth MacPhail, and the martyred Gordons were descended from these. The thrilling story of George Nicol Gordon, and his brother James is then told. Reference is made to the report of the unrolling of the bronze tablet last July.

SCOTTISH FAMILIES. In a recent issue of the Nairnshire Telegraph, published in Nairnshire Scotland, a column is devoted to the families in Prince Edward Island, who were descended from residents of Nairn. These families are the MacPhails and the Gordons. With regard to the former, it is said that some few years after the battle of Culloden one Paul MacPhail owned the small property of Invercraig in the parish of Daviot, near the head waters of the river Nairn. Paul had been twice married, and at his death his descendants of his two wives fell out about the successor to the little property. They went to law, and in the end, the estate had to be sold to pay the lawyers. The families scattered, some of them settling in Nairn, one of them becoming Procurator Fiscal for the Burgh. Others of them went abroad, and one family established itself in Prince Edward Island. The MacPhails in general are greatly prospered, and at the present moment two of their sons hold distinguished positions. One of them is Sir Andrew MacPhail, 8th, an eminent physician and learned lawyer of Montreal. The other is a martyr of the Gordon's, near X. Alberton, in whose memory the tablet was unveiled in Alberton Church last July. The other part of the article deals with the Gordons of Montreal. The great Sergeant Robert Gordon of the disbanded noncommissioned officers of the British army in Canada, came to Nairn and married Elizabeth MacPhail, and the martyred Gordons were descended from