Dainty Garments for Tiny Tots

A NOTABLE RANGE OF PRETTY THINGS FOR THE WEE FOLK . .

We have prepared with particular care this season for the demands of the little citizens. We think that many a tired mother will find in this ready-to-wear room of ours, a considerable amount of comfort in the opportunity of securing many sorts of garments all ready for the small folk to put on and wear. And the prices are moderate too—we think. Anyway we would like extremely well to show you the goods we have—and will just mention you a few lines that are good for the smallest ones.

The first line of which we will speak is a cream cashmere, lined throughout, has a large collar finished with frill of Jap Taffeta, at . . . 2.35 Still another very pretty style, is made of cashmere, and has a handsome sailor collar, made up of shirred silk and has hemstitched frill of same . . . 3.10 A notably pretty silk coat, is shirred around waist, the base is trimmed with band of silk insertion, and hemstitching, has very pretty collar trimmed to match . . . 3.95

Coats of Style and Goodness

THE superiority of this ready-to-wear room of ours seems to be generally admitted—every line we handle is of the best—and the prices in all cases are as reasonable as we can arrange them.

We handle the products of the best coat makers in Canada, and in each case, we have had the first selection from all their samples, for Charlottetown. That is why our coat styles are attractively different and distinctive . . .

Today we want to introduce a few lines, most of which are new. No, they are not low priced—but every garment is so thoroughly excellent in style and material, that you can rest assured that you will get every cent's worth of value that your money will buy. See for yourself.

A pretty shower proof coat, is fitted, has Gibson shoulder, and trim flat collar finished with straps and buttons, the new sleeve is finished with fancy cuff, made of pin tucks and straps . . . 19.50 A very pretty full box back coat comes in a heavier weight cravenette, is made in green and fawn striped effects, double breasted, has velvet collar and fancy buttons . . . 12.95

A distinctive idea also in 7 8 length made of graceful Gloria. In tan, full box back, has patch pockets trimmed with small buttons. This is certainly one of the most attractively stylish summer garments we have shown . . . 16.50 A decidedly new garment is a steel grey cravenette, 7 8 length, full box back, cut with collar and revers, has bias strap piping on side seams, front and back, making a very trim garment . . . 13.00

Another big line of shirt waists by express yesterday.

Councillor Reddin informs The Guardian that the property on Water Street owned by him, to which attention was drawn by a correspondent in this paper a few days ago, has remained in its present condition because of the fact that a man hired to fix it up and put it in good shape has been ill unable to carry out his contract.

The Detroit Free Press of June 2nd, has an extended notice of the marriage of Miss Ida Ellis, daughter of Henry Theo Waring Ellis, a barrister of Windsor Ont., to Walter J. Hayes, a young banker of Detroit. The marriage was one of the most brilliant functions of the kind, ever seen in Windsor County. The maid of honor was Miss Mary Bartlett, of Charlottetown P. E. I.

An inquest into the death of Michael Gillen of Charlottetown, who was killed in the Royal Bank building St. John, N. B., was to be held in the court house there on Thursday evening next at 7 o'clock. Daniel Mullin, K. C., who has been retained to act in the interests of the widow and child of the deceased, has said, that no further steps would be taken in the case until after the inquest.

Over in Pictou, there is a wide awake athletic club which is holding a big field meet of Maritime Province at Isles on Dominion Day, July 1st, and though there may be other points of attraction the sports at Pictou will be worth while attending. The associates of the local athletic clubs and Y.M.C.A. have received full particulars and many Charlottetown athletes will probably go over. The prizes are silver cups and gold and silver medals and it is anticipated that a number of them will come to Charlottetown. The P. A. C. have secured a one dollar rate on the "Northumberland" for that day.

The Halifax Herald says:—The death of a cured of Halifax on the 10th inst., of Mary W., daughter of the late Dr. Thomas Desbrisay, of Dartmouth, in his day one of the best know physicians in the province. Her decline in health during the past year has been very perceptible. She was 69 years of age, and was a gentle, cultured and lovable lady, and a member of a family which has given to the medical and legal professions and to the church, men whose names are honored wherever known. Dr. Thomas Desbrisay, of Lunenburg, is a brother. Other brothers were the late Judge Desbrisay, the late Rev. Mr. Desbrisay, of Charlottetown, and the late Dr. Charles Desbrisay.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place yesterday morning at the Arlington House, when Harry Court, baker, of Falconwood Hospital, was united in matrimony to Miss Katie Matheson, formerly employed at the same institution. Fred Court acted as groomsmen, while Miss Mary Matheson, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid. Only the nearest relatives and most intimate friends were present. Rev. W. W. Lodge officiated. The groom's presents to the bride and bridesmaid were elegant brooches. The presents were numerous and costly, and bore worthy testimony to the popularity of the contracting parties. Among them was an elegant combination dinner and tea set from Dr. V. L. Goodwill, and an nice raton chair and parlor table from the hospital staff. After the ceremony the guests sat down to a sumptuous luncheon prepared in Mrs. Bishop's best style, after which all drove to Donaldson to the home of the groom's father where the evening was spent with music and song.
