SCHMELLING IN CANADA

MONCTON, May 10.—Max Schmelling, German contender for the world's heavyweight championship, passed through the city on the Maritime Express tonight en route from Germany to Montreal where he expects to complete arrangements for a bout with Paulino Uzcudun in the near future.
Schmelling arrived on the liner Reliance at Halifax this morning and was met there by his manager, Joe Jacobs, who accompanied him en route to Montreal. Mr. Jacobs said that they would meet officials in Montreal with a view of completing arrangements for the bout between the German heavyweight and Uzcudun which will be staged as a milk fund show in the Canadian metropolis.

DECISION RE OLYMPICS

(Canadian Press)
EDMONTON, Alta., May 10.—Definite decision has been made to hold the next women's Olympic Games in the Prague, Czechoslovakia, in August, 1930, according to a cable received today from the Federation Sportive Feminine Internationale by J. P. Page, coach of the world's champion Edmonton Grads basketball team. A special invitation from Mme. A. Milliat, President of the Federation has been sent to the Grads to compete. Mr. Page stated.

oe, but the same holds true of the price list and entertainment features. Everything is on a bigger scale. That this is being noticed both at home and abroad is shown by the letters which the secretary has recently received. There is keen competition for space to display articles in the main building, inquiries re exhibiting livestock, etc., requests for the racing program in the various parts of the Maritime Provinces and Maine, and a lot of other indications which show that our big provincial exhibition is making people sit up and take notice of us.

HALIFAX WON THE BOWLING TOURNAMENT

(Canadian Press)
SAINT JOHN, N. B., May 10.—The "Silver Pin" has gone to Halifax. The Conn-Martel pinmen outrolled Moncton and Imperials, St. John, in the tournament roll-off today, to win the Brunswick-Balke-Callendar trophy and the championship. These three teams had tied at the close of the tournament last night. Halifax rolled 1539, while the other two fell down in the pinches, the Imperials coming second with 1477 and the McDonald quintet of Moncton highly touted aspirants, wallowing along with a low 1466.
It was a well earned Halifax victory and Martel and his mates received many congratulations on their showing. The champions left on the Halifax train immediately after the game, as did the defeated Monctonians.

REVIEW OF CITY LEAGUE BOWLING

Another very successful bowling season has just terminated, and once more the City Championship has been decided. The smooth working and dependable League of the Cross team, namely the "Rovers" proved themselves top-notchers, winning nine out of their eleven games, which they participated in, and again bringing the honors to the League of the Cross, who last year also succeeded in capturing high honors.

It is really too bad that the winners of second place did not have a chance to prove themselves, as there yet remained two games to be played. According to the schedule games so far completed the Charlottetown Altheys are leading for second honors by one single game, but this team seems to have lost all interest in the schedule, and on two occasions failed to have their team on hand, while the Y. M. C. A. men were on the Alleys waiting to get going.
It has recently been decided by officials that if the Charlottetown team did not wish to complete the schedule the honors for second place would then be awarded to the Y. M. C. A. It therefore looks very much as if the Y. M. C. A. will be pronounced winners of second place.

This year's bowling which has just been completed was equally as good as last year with the exception of the cause which has just been given. The scores this year were equally as good if not better than last year's.
Some of the high scores which were rolled during the league are as follows:

The highest single score of the league was rolled by E. McMillan (League of the Cross) having a score of 365. The highest total for three consecutive games was captured by J. A. Bentley (Y.M.C.A.) making a total of 811 pins. And the biggest pin-fall being made by J. McMahon (L. O. C.) with a total of 7529 which is an average of 685 pins in each game. The League of the Cross made a wonderful record this year, having a total pin-fall for eleven games of 34863 pins which gives them an average of 3178 pins for each game rolled by them in the league, these games being on the three alleys, namely, Ch'town, Y.M.C.A. and L. O. C. The Y.M.C.A. were second with 32530 pins an average of 2957 and the Ch'town, who only rolled ten games, succeeded in getting 29268 or an average of 2926 in each game.

It is hoped that next year the schedule will be still better than the one just passed, and that it will be adopted with the best of interest by the contestants and fans.

Real Pennant Material

By QUIN HALL
In looking over the pennant possibilities in this year's National League scamp, it isn't advisable to totally ignore the chances of the Pittsburgh Pirates.
For a time this Spring it looked as if the Waner brothers and their "posson" would be lacking from the Pirates' line-up when the season broke, but the wise ones knew all along that nothing like this would happen. "Bringing the Pirates into Pittsburgh without the Waner boys would be like sending a runner out on the high seas armed with a cap pistol," they chortled. While it probably would not be quite so bad as that, even the most conservative of the fans realized that Barney Dreyfuss would have to sign up the famous brothers or be forced to listen to much howling from the Pittsburgh house-tops.
Donie Bush is back again at the helm. While the Pirates fans screamed for Donie's scalp early last Spring when the club was in a bad slump, and while Bush was panned unmercifully for the manner in which he handled his players in the World Series with the Yankees, Dreyfuss refused to dethrone his pilot. Later last Summer, when the Pirates got back into the fight in earnest, the bad feeling toward Bush was quickly forgotten and the fans were again flocking to Forbes Field.
Before this season opened Bush figured that the N. L. pennant winner this year would be the Pirates or the Cubs. It is natural for a manager to figure his own team in the fighting for first place at the finish but, on playing strength, Bush has a good foundation for his prediction. He isn't just talking. Pittsburgh has a ball club and will be hard to beat. Naturally the average fan will figure in the Giants and the Cardinals making it a four-team race. And there is a chance — an outside chance — that some dark horse will upset the whole baa! pot, though this is hardly probable.
While Bush will have to get along this year without the services of Glenn Wright, many believe that Dreyfuss pulled a smart deal when he traded the shortstop to Brooklyn and grabbed Jess Petty and Riconda. Petty will win for the Pirates, and it is quite likely that he will do better at Pittsburgh than he did toiling at Brooklyn. Riconda is a handy gent to have 'round, too.
To fill the gap left vacant by the departure of Wright, the diminutive Pirate pilot has shoved Pie Traynor over to short field, where he is proving very efficient. It will be recalled that Pie originally came to Pittsburgh from the Southern Association as a shortstop but was shifted to the hot corner.
Jim Stroner, the recruit from Wichita in the Western League, will probably be used regularly during the year at the third corner. Jim clouted the onion at a .387 clip at Wichita last season, and may prove to be good with the hickory twig in fast company.
Earl Sheely, a .381 hitter with Sacramento in the Pacific Coast League in 1928, replaces Grantham at the initial stop and Sparky Adams will be seen operating the keystone sack.
Bush has plenty of outfielders to work with the Waner boys and a good catching staff, too. Donie enters this year's canter with a better pitching crew than he had a year ago, when a lot of his twirlers were ailing. The Pirates are going to be especially strong on southpaws this Summer, with top honors in this division going to Petty, who is considered by many as one of the best side-wheelers ever to toe the hill in the circuit.
Altogether Bush seems to have a well balanced club. He has just reason to figure the Pirates as pennant probabilities!

The River Pirate Is Splendid Entertainment
"The River Pirate," which opened a two days' engagement at the Prince Edward yesterday, revolves around the dramatic experiences of a youth who "does a stretch" in a reform school, where he is officially taught sail making, but learns the inside workings of crookdom as well.
His instructor, a hard-boiled sailor, is paroled, helps the boy escape, and they team in piracy on a large scale, haunting the drab coves of the waterfront, slipping in and out of huge warehouses and disposing of their stolen material to handy "fence-men," yet always fearing the harbor police with whom they engage in many thrilling battles of wit and body.
The younger boy falls in love with the daughter of their nemesis, a detective, and in the end she regenerates him.
That is merely an outline of the story, as written originally by Charles Francis Coe, and published in the Saturday Evening Post. It does not begin to tell of the superb manner in which the printed word has been conveyed to the screen, nor does it tell of the excellent work of the truly all star cast headed by Victor McLaglen of "What Price Glory" fame, who plays the role of "Sailor Frink" the hard-boiled sailor who turns pirate. Even McLaglen's most ardent admirers are forced to conclude it is his best screen characterization to date. Nor does it tell of the beauty and charm and naiveness as well as dramatic ability of Lois Moran nor of the up and coming work of young Nick Stuart as the younger thief.
The work of the principals truly may be said to be flawless as well as that of the supporting cast, including Earle Fox, whose recent successes in "Four Sons" and "Hangman's House" are well remembered, as "Shark," Donald Crisp, brilliant director who has returned to the screen to play the role of a detective, and Dewitt Jennings.

Hartnett Wins Decision Over Johnny Nemis

TWO HORSES ARE NAMED

SYDNEY, May 9.—Great Scott, 208 1-2, at present in Quebec city, or Major Aubrey 2.11, at present in Prince Edward Island will be the Sydney community horse, according to a decision reached here tonight at a meeting of the Horsemen's club. A committee consisting of H. Morley, G. Jordan and W. Rudderham were appointed to investigate the merits of the two horses, and they are to decide which horse Sydney is to buy. The sum of $2,200 has already been subscribed to the fund and the objective is expected to be reached before the end of the week. A meeting will be held next Monday evening, when final plans will be completed. Ex-Alderman Frank Fitzgerald presided.

Took Eight Of Ten Rounds— Two Even.

(Canadian Press)
HALIFAX, May 10.—Joe Hartnett, local welterweight hammered Johnny Nemis, New Waterford Maritime champion into defeat in a ten round bout here tonight, winning eight rounds and getting an even break in the other two. Nemis failed to carry a round and took a count of four in the sixth, when Hartnett spiked the Cape Bretoner with a short left to the jaw. The fight was one of the best seen here in years. Nemis was cut under the right eye and over the left and bled profusely from the 2nd round to the finish. The decision to Hartnett was unanimous.
