$80,000 RANSOM

sought to erect was told tonight by state Commissioner of Public Safety Needham.

"Last night," he said, "the Merchants National Bank of Boston requested Capt. Bligh of the state police at the State House to furnish an armed guard for the transportation of money.

"Capt. Bligh sent Sgt. Delaney, armed and in plain clothes. Delaney returned to the State House about 7:00 o'clock this morning and reported to Bligh that he, in company with Mr. Bacon (President of the Bank) and two other men had gone to Harwichport to the house of Mr. McMahon conveying a sum of money which he believed to be $80,000.

"This information was reported promptly to us at Harwichport whereupon Lt. Sherlock and I went to Mr. McMahon's home, where we had an interview with Mr. Lee.

Interviews Father

"After the interview we were told the little girl had been delivered to the father the preceding night (spokesmen for the family said the actual hour was 3 a. m.) and the money paid and that in accordance with an agreement made with the kidnapers of the little girl, the father, Cyril Buck and one Harold Sawyer were on the boat 'Bob' (Lee's craft).

"Upon receiving information of the party on the boat we at once left for Woodshole, where Commander R. S. Hatch had by prearrangement reserved two speed boats for us."

Then he told of locating the 'Bob' and taking off its passengers, including the father and daughter. He said his understanding was that the ransom money was paid on shore and not at sea.

Word Spreads

Word spread like fire through this little community after a group standing on the shore of the harbor spotted the unmistakable figure of 'Peggy' on the deck of the coast guard boat. The usual calm of Cape Cod Bay vanished as they gathered in excited groups to talk and speculate.

Women wept openly as they gave vent to their feelings of relief. The strain of the last three days, while searchers looked far and wide for trace of the girl, was suddenly ended.

But the scene quickly shifted. Out from the huddle of coast guard craft the boat bearing Margaret, her father and officials pushed its prow.

The crowd on shore was mystified by the departure, but soon learned the boat was headed for Woodshole, a coast guard base.

U. S. CONSULATE (Continued from Page 1)

now be obtained from a consulate on the mainland, probably at Moncton.

The shipment of live foxes and fox pelts, which formerly made considerable business for the consulate here, has practically ceased in recent years. The issuing of regular invoices was discontinued about two years ago.

Immigration activities, which also bulked large in the business of the consulate some years ago, declined sharply since the restrictive immigration measures introduced at Washington. In 1929, 1300 visas were issued here as against 46 last year.

Consular invoices and food certificates, which numbered 1476 in 1930, declined to 1077 last year.

These are given as probable reasons for closing, news of which will be learned with regret by all our citizens.

U. S. Consul Bickers and Vice Consul R. J. Cavanaugh have made many warm friends and acquaintances during their period of office here.

Long Established

The establishment of the American Consulate at Charlottetown goes back to at least 1853, the year 1858 being the earliest for which records of invoices and passports were kept.

The records also show that there were other United States Consulates in Prince Edward Island many years ago; for example, at Stanley Bridge from 1883 to 1888; at St. Peter's as early as 1880; at Summerside, Georgetown and Alberton in 1883, and at Souris in 1884.

The consular agency at Summerside was closed in May 1931.

Other Consulates in the Maritimes are at Moncton, Fredericton, St. John and St. Stephen in New Brunswick, and Halifax, Sydney and Yarmouth in Nova Scotia. None of these offices is likely to be closed, at least for the present, the volume of business being considerably larger than in Charlottetown.

ORDER PLACED—An order has been placed by the Provincial Government for the purchase of 5,000 reflectors for vehicles. Distribution of the reflectors to farmers throughout the Province is anticipated at an early date.

PROGRESS REPORTED — The question of a fourth year course at Prince of Wales College was discussed by the Board of Education and a delegation of citizens last evening. While definite decision was not reached by the Board, favourable progress is reported and the matter will be given further consideration at an early date.

LOBSTER CATCHES SMALL — The catches of lobsters thus far this season have been small, due largely to unfavorable weather conditions, and to the presence of ice in many sections. High winds were responsible for the smallness of the catches on the north side, while on the south shore large quantities of ice made fishing difficult, and only one shipment of crustaceans arrived in the city from that quarter.

ters, with space provided also for the scores of Nova Scotia exhibits that will be on view during her summer sojourn at the big fair.

Bluenose will be berthed quite close to the fair grounds, on Lake Michigan.

Late in summer, the lake may be the scene of another contest between the International Fishermen's champion and the American challenger she defeated in 1931, Gertrude L. Thebaud.

A challenge from Captain Ben Pine of the Gloucester fisherman has been accepted by Captain Walters and the company that is bringing Bluenose to the fair and it is possible that the pick of Canadian and United States fishing schooners will be seen in action in a skirmish on the lake before Bluenose comes back home.

Island Member Suggests Simpler Income Forms

OTTAWA, May 5 — (C. P.) — Simpler income tax forms were suggested in the House of Commons today by A. E. MacLean (Lib., Prince). During the discussion of the income tax resolution, Mr. MacLean informed Hon. E. N. Rhodes, Minister of Finance that many farmers found it difficult to make out the form as at present drafted. Would it not be possible to get out some simpler form of questionnaire which might be filed at the first instance? Then, if the income tax department required further information it could be procured.

He could quite understand the feeling of certain people on seeing an income tax form for the first time, responded the Minister. However, this perplexity soon wore off, and then it was not so much the complicated form as the figure in the lower right hand corner which caused sadness. He was informed by his officials that the form was as simple as possible, but if Mr. MacLean had any suggestions he would be glad to turn them over to the officials for consideration.

Scout News and Notices

No Police Required

It is interesting to note that no police are required at Boy Scout gatherings, and no police will be on duty at the 1933 World Jamboree being held in Hungary this July. In 1929 some 53,300 Scouts from 73 different countries and parts of the British Empire met at Arrowe Park, Birkenhead, England. The Birkenhead authorities, learning that this canvas city of youth would include in its population thousands of lads from the Great War, on the opening day posted police at strategic points about the park "to keep the peace." By the end of the second day the last "Bobby" had been withdrawn. Boyhood, as yet unspiced by suspicion and hate, plus the Scout code of world brotherhood, had made misunderstandings impossible. Friendliness and confidence were taken for granted, without regard to color, creed, race or language. A frequent scene was a laughing group of boys, all of a different country, hands on one another's shoulders, joking and "talking" somehow with gestures and polyglot invention of their own called "Jamboreese." At the end of the two weeks' camp one of the heads of the Canadian Scout contingent, chatting with the police inspector of the area, inquired what he thought of the gathering. In accustomed phraseology, the inspector replied, "There wasn't a single case of crime or disturbance to report."

REPORT OF RAILWAY DELEGATION

Mr. C. R. Rogers reported on the delegation which waited on Mr. McKinnon, Superintendent of the Island division of the C. N. R. in reference to the change in time table from the west of the Province. Although they urgently asked that the train arriving at Summerside at 10:30 a. m. be retained, they did not get any concessions. Mr. Winslow J. Lidstone stated that 102 passengers arrived the Monday previous to the change on the 10:30 a. m. train and that 90 came into Summerside to do business.

The Monday on which the train schedule was changed there were about 200 passengers but that was on account of the lobster factories opening. The following day there were only 80 and only a few went into Summerside. Mr. J. Le Roy Holman made the suggestion that the people in the west should be asked for their opinion as to whether they preferred the early train or the train at 10:30 a. m. and to send their opinion to the Board of Trade.

Summerside Board Of Trade

The regular monthly meeting of the Summerside Board of Trade was held on Thursday evening and some important matters discussed. Resolutions were passed in connection with the railway time table west of Summerside; American duties on imports from the Maritimes; co-operation of business men with home industries. Other matters submitted were increased tourist facilities and Marine report. Mr. B. W. Robinson presided over a good representation of members. Mr. Robert Gordon, the Secretary, read the minutes of the previous meetings.

MARINE REPORT

Mr. John E. Campbell, although the last to submit his report, struck an optimistic note for future business in Summerside. As chairman of the Marine Committee he gave a most encouraging report of his negotiations with various shipping companies during the winter, with the result that Summerside will have much more business this year through shipping channels.

Mr. Campbell stated that he had had two questionnaires ask him for reports of shipping facilities at the port of Summerside. One from the American Consulate at Charlottetown and one from a large Montreal shipping concern, who also asked if aeroplanes could land at Summerside. Through the courtesy of Mr. H. T. Holman and Mr. McFarlane, an extensive report had been prepared and submitted in reply to the questions and was favourably received. Another steamboat company indicated their intention, if they get sufficient freight, of operating a line of steamers fortnightly from ports on Lake Huron direct to Summerside.

The S. S. Gaspesia is expected to make her first call on the 14th inst. Her first two trips will be largely freight. When her summer schedule starts, it is understood that a motor trip to Charlottetown from Summerside for tourists will be a special inducement, and it is anticipated that it will increase the tourist trade. A steamer from Europe with fertilizer and one from Barbadoes with molasses is expected within a few days. The Marine Department at Ottawa has promised to place a buoy at the east side of railway wharf.

8763-4-7-1 mth LESS RESTRICTIONS

Several communications were read at the commencement of the meeting, which were received and filed. A letter was read from the Board of Trade at Lunenburg, N. S., asking for the co-operation of the Board in removing the duties into the United States on fish, either fresh, salt or frozen.

This matter was discussed at some length, and it was proposed to draft a resolution to ask that all Canadian products should enter the States with less restrictions.

A letter was read from the Charlottetown Board of Trade, asking for the support and co-operation of the Summerside Board in the development of home industries. Much discussion took place on this subject. Mr. Robinson expressed the opinion that more money would be circulated and kept in the country if the business men co-operated with the manufacturers and farmers in Island industries.

He advocated the growing of more and better wheat, which could be ground at Island mills and thus the farmers would have their own feed for poultry, which in these times of a scarcity of money was very important, as farmers might grow careless in feeding and thus lower the high standard of our Island dairy products. He said, that last fall he had over 3,000 grists at the mill. C. R. Rogers moved that a committee of Messrs. J. Le Roy Holman, L. R. Allen and W. E. McDonald, look into this very important matter.

United Kingdom abandoned the gold standard. From an opening of $3.92 to the pound, the dollar slumped nine cents, although it recovered to close at $3.974.

The chief cause of the dollar's decline is said to have been selling by continental operators who are speculating on the United States inflationary policy. This selling reportedly emanated mainly from Paris. Another factor affecting the dollar was the customary seasonal rise in the value of the pound.
