

SHRINERS ARE TREATED TO EXCITEMENT An Escaped Circus Lion Breaks up Session and Mystics Fly in Confusion.

Special to The Guardian. OMAHA, May 27—The Mystic Shriner's session here had some real excitement when a lion belonging to a circus performance broke loose and charged them.

BANK MONTREAL PLOITS SHOW BIG INCREASE Half Yearly Statement of Canada's Leading Bank Is Out.

The Bank of Montreal's statement for the half year ending April 29th is out. It shows net profits for the period of $282,945, compared with $797,765 last year, or at the rate of not quite 12 per cent. on the capital.

Table with columns for 1911 and 1910, showing Net profits, Dividends, Carried forward, LIABILITIES, and ASSETS.

NO CURTAILMENT OF BORDEN'S WESTERN TOUR

OTTAWA, May 26—There will be no special issue of stamps by the Dominion government at the time of the completion of George V., as there was at the Quebec tercentenary.

NEW MANHATTAN BRIDGE HAS FIRST SUICIDE

NEW YORK, May 26—The new Manhattan bridge received its baptism of suicide today, John Gerrity, aged 35, of Brooklyn, jumped from the centre of the span and was dead before he could be taken out of the water, not from drowning, but from the shock of the fall.

EVERY LIFE A SURRENDERED LIFE

AUSTRIAN KING IS SUFFERING FROM ILL HEALTH

Special to The Guardian. VIENNA, May 27—Disquieting reports continue regarding the health of the aged King Francis Joseph.

HAT IN HAND DIAZ STOLE FROM MEXICO

MEXICO CITY, May 26—Porfirio Diaz, for whom during thirty years all Mexico stood, regarding the health of the aged King Francis Joseph.

TRAVEL BETWEEN MEXICO CITY AND VERACRUZ usually is over the Mexican railroad, a standard gauge line with modern equipment.

FIFTY YEARS AT THROTTLE

MONTREAL, May 26—Michael Fennell, the oldest engineer on the Grand Trunk system, who had the honor of driving the engine which carried King Edward, then Prince of Wales, into Montreal died last week, aged 79.

MILLIONS OF FEET OF LUMBER HUNG UP ON MIRAMICHI

NEWCASTLE, May 26—During the past few days several million logs have been abandoned on the Miramichi. The rains on Sunday did not prove as helpful as was thought and many operators were forced to temporarily leave their drives.

EDUCATIONAL COMMISSION IN GERMANY

Special to The Guardian. LONDON, May 27—The Canadian Commission on Technical Training and Education have been in Germany for the past week gathering data from industrial establishments in that country.

SHIPBUILDING COMPANY WANT INCORPORATION

Special to The Guardian. LONDON, May 27—Messrs. Vickers Sons & Maxim have applied for incorporation for their Canadian Company to operate a floating dock at Montreal, with naval works and a factory for construction of steel railway ties and other industries.

1ST MATCH FOR GUARDIAN CUP

The first match for The Guardian Rifle Cup was shot on Kensington Range on Saturday afternoon by the two Charlottetown entries—the 4th Regiment and the Civilian Rifle Club.

Table for CHARLOTTETOWN RIFLE CLUB showing scores for various members and teams.

Other scores by members of the Club are as follows:

TO TIE UP VANCOUVER

VANCOUVER, May 26—Business Agent Pettipiece, of the trades and labor council, has disclosed a plan of the labor organizations of the city for the united action on June 5th, which will tie up every field of industrial life in the city.

COMMUNICATION THROUGH PROVINCE AND WITH MAINLAND

Saturday the Northumberland left this port at 8.20 a. m. for Pictou with passengers, freight, express and mail, docking at 12.00.

SHIPBUILDING COMPANY WANT INCORPORATION

Special to The Guardian. LONDON, May 27—Messrs. Vickers Sons & Maxim have applied for incorporation for their Canadian Company to operate a floating dock at Montreal, with naval works and a factory for construction of steel railway ties and other industries.

REPORT SAYS MADERO'S CAR WAS ATTACKED

Special to The Guardian. JUAREZ, May 27—A brief message to Madero announced that the train bearing the former President Diaz was attacked last night near Tepic.

ALT PARENTS SAW PONY DRAG THEIR BOY TO DEATH

GALT, Ont., May 25—Lloyd, the nine-year-old son of J. W. Robinson, was accidentally killed yesterday.

WOMEN DISPLACE MEN AS PAINTERS

FORT WORTH, Tex., May 24—Women have appropriated another vocation heretofore entirely that of mere men. They have become house painters.

MAY EAT MEAT ON FRIDAY JUNE 23

LONDON, May 26—The Pope has issued a dispensation for Roman Catholics of the British empire, that they will not be compelled to abstain from eating meat on Friday, June 23rd, when King George, after his coronation on the day before, will make his royal progress through London town.

STORM SWEEPS MANITOBA.

WINNIPEG, May 25—A rain storm of unparalleled fury swept Manitoba last night. The total fall reached two inches in some places.

WEATHER FORECAST

TORONTO, May 29—Southerly and westerly winds; mostly fair and very warm with a few local thunder storms.

A WOMAN IS CRUELLY ASSAULTED

Special to The Guardian. KINGSTON, Ont., May 27—Several days ago an unknown man called at the residence of Miss Mary Doyle in Camden township and asked for a drink, which he received.

TO TEACH MOTHERS BY CORRESPONDENCE

BOSTON, Mass., May 24—A school in which by correspondence or otherwise women are trained in motherhood and all its allied duties is the novel plan which has been set on foot.

TO ESTABLISH A MEMORIAL UNIVERSITY

Special to The Guardian. NEW YORK, May 27—Mrs. E. H. Harriman announced today that as a lasting monument to her deceased husband she would establish and eternally endow the greatest university in the world.

PRINCE OF WALES COLLEGE

1st year—Hazel Woodside, Charles Buxton, Millie Piggett, Leila McEwen, Wilfrid Parker, Sara Egan, Norman Lowther, Thane Campbell, Grove Carter, Clarence Drake, Elliot Full, Harold McLean and Laura Simpson.

BOTANY

3rd year—Laura Bain, James McGeachan, Robert McLaughlin, Wendell McKenzie, Annie McGrath.

BIGGAR, SASKATCHEWAN, IS A THRIVING TOWN

BIGGAR, Sask., May 23—Sixty-two miles west of Saskatoon and two hundred and sixty-six miles east of Edmonton, upon the main line of the Grand Trunk Pacific railway between Winnipeg and Edmonton, is situated the thriving town of Biggar.

EXPECTS BIG RUSH OF AMERICAN SETTLERS

WINNIPEG, Man., May 22—Wm. Whyte, vice-president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, estimates the number of new settlers from the United States this year will range between 200,000 and 250,000.

CONDENSED ADVERTISEMENTS

TO ESTABLISH A MEMORIAL UNIVERSITY

Special to The Guardian. NEW YORK, May 27—Mrs. E. H. Harriman announced today that as a lasting monument to her deceased husband she would establish and eternally endow the greatest university in the world.

NEW VESSEL IS LAUNCHED AT GLASGOW

Special to The Guardian. GLASGOW, May 27—The Anchor Line's new steamer, christened the Cameronia, was successfully launched here Saturday.

THE NEED FOR PURE LITERATURE

TORONTO, May 26—"That there is need of every effort being put forth for the circulation of wholesome literature, is very evident from recent revelations. One of the most gigantic and ruinous influences of our day is the immoral literature, including booklets and picture cards, with which our country has been flooded in recent years."

PHYSIOLOGY

1st year—Clyde Auld and Jean McDonald, Aileen Gillis and Ethel Norton, Edith Moore and Gladys Simons, and Carman Wightman.

BOTANY AND AGRICULTURE

2nd year—Alexander McLeod, Storry Hynes, Neil Battie, Laura Houston, Alfred Seaman, William McLean and Leo Wallace, George Lord and Bernice Norton and Russell Smith, Alexander Laird, Bertie McFarlane, Edward Foley, Allan Cole and Katie Hughes and Albert McDonald, Margaret McDonald, George McLeod and Angus McEwen, Bertha Campbell, Ambrose Peters, John Haszard, Murdoch McKinnon, Charles McAlduff.

BOTANY

1st year—Daniel McPherson, Charles Buxton and Charles Rattee, Helen Strong, Clyde Auld and Annie Craighan and Lizzie Goodwin and Edith Howard, Luella Bearisto and Kenneth Martin, William Stewart, Gertrude Love, Thane Campbell, Leah Lejeune, William Hubley and Core Moutain and Wilfred Parker and Clarence Tidmarsh, Katie Currie and Louis McEwen and Gladys Simons, Vans McLean and Malcolm Murchison and Laura Simpson, Hammond Brehaut and Roberta Deacon and Robert Fitzgerald and Charles Rattee, Louis McEwen and William McPherson and Albert Simons and George Webster, Freda Haszard, Daisy Agnew and Michael Griffin.

CONDENSED ADVERTISEMENTS

AUCTION—Clearing sale furniture at C.W. Livingston's residence, 58 Kent St., Wednesday, 31st May, commencing at 11 o'clock a.m., parlor, dining room, hall, bed room and kitchen furniture; open Tuesday for inspection. R. Bearisto, Auctioneer. 5-29dtd.

WANTED—At once, man to act as caretaker for the Golf Links. Man having his own horse preferred. Apply to H. W. Longworth 5-29dlw.

NEW VESSEL IS LAUNCHED AT GLASGOW

Special to The Guardian. GLASGOW, May 27—The Anchor Line's new steamer, christened the Cameronia, was successfully launched here Saturday.

THE NEED FOR PURE LITERATURE

TORONTO, May 26—"That there is need of every effort being put forth for the circulation of wholesome literature, is very evident from recent revelations. One of the most gigantic and ruinous influences of our day is the immoral literature, including booklets and picture cards, with which our country has been flooded in recent years."

PHYSIOLOGY

1st year—Clyde Auld and Jean McDonald, Aileen Gillis and Ethel Norton, Edith Moore and Gladys Simons, and Carman Wightman.

BOTANY

3rd year—Laura Bain, James McGeachan, Robert McLaughlin, Wendell McKenzie, Annie McGrath.

CONDENSED ADVERTISEMENTS

AUCTION—Clearing sale furniture at C.W. Livingston's residence, 58 Kent St., Wednesday, 31st May, commencing at 11 o'clock a.m., parlor, dining room, hall, bed room and kitchen furniture; open Tuesday for inspection. R. Bearisto, Auctioneer. 5-29dtd.

WANTED—At once, man to act as caretaker for the Golf Links. Man having his own horse preferred. Apply to H. W. Longworth 5-29dlw.

FOR SALE—Montague Sash and Door Factory. The undersigned offers this valuable property for sale. Everything in first class condition. For further particulars apply to Isaac Ives, Montague. 5-29dtd.

BOWLING, Burke's Alleys, under market, open lawful days ten to eleven. 2-25dtl.

Minard's Liniment used by Physicians.

CONDENSED ADVERTISEMENTS