DECEMBER 14, 1892.

Town Topics:

Town Topics the past week have not been uninteresting and of course first the list comes the weather. We have had quite a spell of it, and consequently quite a time to talk over it, so that at present little remains to be said, except as it effects the approaching Christmastide.

Yes, Father Christmas once again draweth nigh and we can hardly believe he is so near. But he is not the same rosy-cheeked old gentleman we used to know. It is a little old fellow not in furs, but in a sou'wester and a mackintosh and—instead of moccasins—a pair of galoshes. He has come to us this way for several years now and really we begin to lose respect for him. We should only give him one more chance to reform and "dress up" again and if he fails to do so this year then let us postpone Christmas season to the middle of January. What say ye on the Rialto?

The Masonic Bazaar occupied a good deal of attention during last week The booths were on the whole dissappointing after the praise showered upon them before they were put up, but nevertheless they added much to the appearance of the hall. The Bazaar was well patronized. This we were pleased to see as Charlottetown wants a good Opera house badly, and the Temple company deserves every encouragement in the effort to supply one. The hall will no doubt be a credit to the city if it is properly fitted up, as no doubt it will be. The Masons, by the way, are under a deep debt of gratitude to the ladies for their industry and self-sacrifice in connection with the bazaar.

Our grievous mistake was made in connection with the bazaar which we trust the Masons, or anybody else will not allow to be repeated. This was the lottery feature of the bazaar. The principle is bad and the practice liable to have a demoralizing effect If it is harmful to participate in the Louisiana lottery or the Quebec lottery for large cash prizes, as nearly everybody admits, it is then it is harmful to participate in a lottery for valuable household effects, and the danger of slipping from the latter into the former is quite apparent. Let us by all means discourage the false theory of trusting to chance and hold out instead the sure reward of perseverance and industry.

Whatever hope may still be entertained of the Hotel Scheme it is of no use to disguise the fact that that it has one foot at least in the grave. More money is wanted and unless the capitalists come forward nothing can be done. Meanwhile valuable time is being lost. The project should be settled at once. Advertising schemes should at once be arranged to induce the people, who during the winter begin to plan their summer tours, to come to the Garden of the Gulf. But while the project touches everybody's heart it touches very few pockets. Evidently money massed in the hands of a few is, in this community, not a very desirable state of affairs.

Local Politics are very quiet. Our people take little interest in these things between election and sessional times. Even the political papers are quiet—all except the belligerent Watchman whose editor hammers away at "the powers that be" with annihilation in one eye and expectation to be called in at any moment to form a new government in the other. The House will likely meet as usual in early blustering March and may prove an interesting session.

The daily market will be buried with the old year. It has proved a failure and naturally enough. It takes a big city to support a daily market and Charlottetown is neither big nor growing. We are capable of growth, but evidently "Barkis is not willing."

Local Stock and Dairy News.

SAINT PETER'S BAY CHEESE COMPANY:

At a meeting of the stockholders of the above company the following board of directors was appointed, viz, John P. Sullivan, Charles Waye, John Steele, John Sutherland, James Walsh, Adolphus McEwen, James A. McKinnon, Crawford Hayden and Alexander Stewart, and at a meeting of the directors they appointed Charles Waye, President; John P. Sullivan, Treasurer and the undersigned Secretary. It was also decided to call twenty-five per cent of the subscribed stock on the 20th day of January next and that each director canvas for the sale of stock not yet taken. Hoping that each shareholder will promptly respond to said call

ANDREW LEWIS, Secretary.

Size of Table Napkins.

Fashion has decreed that a napkin shall not be put on the table a second time until it has been washed, writes Maria Parloa in the December Ladies' Home Journal. Few housekeepers, however, have the means to provide themselves with such a supply of napkins, not to speak of the laundress to care for them; so the napkin ring is still a necessity in the average household. It is important, however, that the supply be large enough to admit of their being changed two or three times a week. For general use a dinner napkin is to be preferred, unless a separate set of table cloths and napkins are desired for breakfast In that case the napkins should be smaller than for dinner.

Fringe is rarely used except on fancy doilies. The plain, square napkin comes in all sizes from twenty inches to the size of the dinner napkins, which measure twenty seven inches, and the cost is any where from one dollar and a half to fifty dollars a dozen. At five or six dollars a dozen one can get napkins that are good enough for ordinary use. The cheaper and smaller ones are unsatisfactory.

The Penny Readings.

The Penny Readings in St. Paul's School Room last evening under the auspices of the Y. P. S., attracted quite a good audience and were of a very pleasing character. Hon. L H. Davies presided. The program was quite a varied one. The children's chorus by Mrs. Mitchell's children was very sweetly sung and the part choruses, under the leadership of Rev. Mr. Hamlyn, were rendered in a pleasing and spirited manner. Mrs. Norton was at her best in a very pretty solo. Mr. Davidson sang "The old Cathedral Bell" with fine effect. Mr. Cook was heartily encored for his "Hurrah for England," and Miss Milly Palmer showed an exceptionally fresh, sweet voice in a pretty song. Miss Amy Moore readered a difficult piano solo admirably, and Miss Mary Palmer's enlivening selection was also much enjoyed. The piece of the evening was Miss Gertie Davies' reading "Curfew must not toll tonight." Miss Davies manifested histrionic talent of an unusually high order and held the audience almost breathless during her recital of the well known piece. Mr. Geo. Peake read a popular selection "Handy Andy" in his usual happy way. The entertainment closed with the National Anthem. Messrs Willis Bros kindly loaned a beautiful piano for the occasion.

The Rector of St. Paul's desires to thank all those kind friends who in any way contributed to the success of the evening's entertainment.

The Land of White Gloves.

At the anniversary of the Sunday School Union, Dr. B. W. Chidlay of Ohio,—a native of Wales,—after spending fifty-six years in Sunday school work in America, said: "I was taught to read the Bible in the language in which I was born, in the Sunday school. The Principality of Wales is known as the land of the Bible, of the Sunday school, and of white gloves. When I was in Wales some time ago I saw a number of men making for where the court was sitting. I said her, as an American,—for I have been an American for seventy years—I would like to see a Welsh court in session. I was shown in, and saw the judge putting on a pair of white gloves. I asked what did it mean I was told that there were no cases for trial Nobody had been arrested for the past two months. The Bible and the Sunday school have made Wales what it is."

It has been stated that there is not an infidel book published in the Welsh language. One thing is certain, the Bible is read, and preached, and loved there; and while in five counties in the north of Ireland it is has required twelve policemen to every ten thousand people, mainly to keep order among those who do not read the Bible; and in the south of Ireland, where the Bible has not been so much read, it has required forty six policemen to each ten thousand people to keep them in order; at the same time it has been stated that in one county in Wales no policeman was required

It will be a long time before a judge will wear white gloves in an judicial district where the Bible is neglected, where whiskey is drunk, and where every workman is required to be a member of some oath-bound secret clan or gang before as a peaceable and honest man he can earn an honest living. Ignorance, whiskey, and superstition, among a people who do not read the Bible for themselves, who do not make their own bargains, but who are bound hand and foot under the control of foreign leaders, will ensure crime enough to keep the jails and prisons well filled, and prevent any judge wearing white gloves.

Letter from E. W. Taylor.

LA DIESAND GENTLEMEN,—I beg to inform you that importations of new and beautiful goods in our line received almost daily for some time past have made our stock the most extensive and complete we ever had. Besides the staple articles and household silverware that nearly every one needs we have many nick nacks and novelties hard to describe and a large variety of jewelry and watches in trays and packages that we would esteem it a favor to have the pleasure of showing you. Our Christmas advertisement to appear later.

E. W. TAYLOR,
Watchmaker, Jeweler, and Optician.

Miss Lettie Huntley

Is the sister of Mr. W. S. Huntley of Cortland, N. Y., a well known carpenter and builder. Her frank statement below gives only the absolute truth concerning her illness and marvelous recovery by the aid of Hood's Sarsaparilla. She says:

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"Dear Sir:—Twelve years ago I began to have hemorrhages and four years ago became so low that the physicians told me

There Was No Hope

and I should soon die. I could not be moved from my bed. Under my face were napkins continually reddened with blood from my mouth. I could eat nothing and had no action of the bowels for a week. The doctors said the cause was ulcers in the stomach. At this time my mother said she wanted to make one more trial, and asked if I would take Hood's Sarsaparilla. I told her it would be

A Waste of Money

but finding it would comfort her, I began taking it. In a few days the bloating began to subside. I seemed to feel a little stronger, but thought it only fancy. I was so weak I could only take ten drops of Sarsaparilla at first. In two weeks I was able to sit up a few minutes every day. In a month I could walk across the room. One day I asked what they were to have for dinner, and said I wanted something hearty. My mother was so happy she cried. It was the

First Time I had Felt Hungry for Two Years

I kept on with Hood's Sarsaparilla and in six months was as well as ever in my life. It is now four years since I recovered, and I have not had a day's sickness since, nor any hemorrhage. If ever a human being thanked the good Lord on bended knees it was I. I know that Hood's Sarsaparilla, and that alone, unquestionably Saved my Life."

Messrs. Sager & Jennings, the well known druggists of Cortland, say that Miss Huntley "is a highly respected lady; her statement of what

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Has done for her is worthy the highest confidence." Hood's Pills cure Liver Ills.

—OF—
P. E. ISLAND.

PERSONS using the Telephone would find talking much more satisfactory if they would observe the following Rules:

1st. Speak with your mouth about four inches from the transmitter.

2nd. Speak in a moderate tone of voice, not too loud, and distinctly.

3rd. Place the Telephone so as to cover the Ear, just as if you wished to shut out all other sounds. Do not press too hard on the Ear.

It is possible to talk and be heard when standing back two or three feet from the transmitter, if you shout loud enough, but it is not a pleasant mode of conversation, is entirely unnecessary, and is a useless waste of wind and lungs, besides being very annoying to all within range your voice.

Doctor's Bills High, Shoe Bills Low

An ounce of precaution in the shape of a good pair boots is worth many a pound of curative pills, and yet too many people, by thoughtlessness neglect, or false economy in trying to make an old pair do a little longer, go on paying the doctor to cure what a good pair of boots would have prevented. Don't delay any longer, but call at once and supply yourself at R. K. JOST'S new Shoe Store, at the well-known stand at "Stamper Corner." Also at the old stand North Side Queen Sq.

CUSTOMER—Who are those pieces for?

GEO VATCHER—Oh! For customers, to be sure!

C.—Whose are they?

V.—Why, they left their orders, and I am going to send them.

C.—Is that so! Do you send prices?

V.—Why, of course I do!

C.—But you cannot sell as cheap as the large stores down town?

V.—I would like to know the reason why? My expenses are light. Such as rent and light. No help to pay. Don't keep a team, and a lot of other things that takes money.

C.—Well now, that is it! I never thought of that, and you won't be undersold?

V.—No Sir, not if I know it!
