

THE PRINCE COUNTY GUARDIAN

Offices in Summerside, Miss Amy G. Burrows, Agent, Summer Street, and J. F. Lafferty, Water Street, News Correspondent; and in Alberton, Herbert Clark, Agent.

The latest news first of all.

Rev. F. S. Bamford, Summerside, returned home on Tuesday evening from Liverpool, N. S.

The gasoline yacht Aloha of New York, referred to in yesterday's Guardian, is in charge of Captain Basil Kelly, and should arrive in Summerside tomorrow.

Chas. E. Macdonald, auctioneer, will sell by auction for Wm Cousins, Baltic, on Friday the 24th, at 2 p. m., his stock including seven choice milk cows, six horses, lot young cattle. Positively no reserve.

Hubert McDonald, Summerside, was badly scalded about the arms and chest Tuesday afternoon. The accident was caused by the blowing out of a plug in the steam boiler used in connection with preparing food for the pigs.

The evening train from Charlottetown did not arrive in Summerside last evening until after 8 o'clock. The delay being caused by a "Sun-Kink" in the rail near Milton.

Dr. E. H. Champion of Albany who recently graduated from McGill, left yesterday morning for Vancouver where he has secured an excellent position in the Vancouver general hospital.

Isaac J. O'live, Inspector of Hulls, and Mr. Dalton, Inspector of boilers, St. John, arrived in Summerside last evening and will this morning inspect the ferry boat "Bedeque" and the tug Fred M. Batt.

The forty third annual session of the P. E. I. Baptist Association will convene with the Summerside Baptist Church on Friday, July 1st, at 10 a. m. A good program has been prepared, a large delegation is expected, and a blessed time anticipated.

At the annual school meeting of Central, Lot 16, school No. 62, held on Tuesday last, a resolution was unanimously passed memorializing the government to have that section of the school act regarding non-resident pupils attending district schools changed in order that the parents of these children be assessed on the value of their property in the school district in which they attend as well as in their own district.

The P. E. I. Presbyterian of the W. F. M. S. will hold its annual meeting at Kensington on July 6th and 7th. The executive are endeavoring to secure a returned missionary to address the meetings and it is hoped there will be a large attendance. The usual arrangements have been made with the railway by which delegates can procure return tickets for the first class fare from July 5th to 9th inclusive.

Rev. E. S. Weeks will preach his farewell sermons at Union Corner and Lot 16 next Sunday, 26th. The service at Lot 16 will be held in the Presbyterian Church, as the Methodist Church is undergoing repairs. Mr. Weeks is to be succeeded on the Bedford Circuit by Rev. Levi J. Leard, a native of Alberton, but for several years he labored very acceptably in New Brunswick. Mr. Weeks goes to Mount Stewart and will take up his duties there on July 19th.

The "Perfect" and "Cleveland" Bicycles sold by Brace, McKay & Co, Summerside, have the genuine Dunlop Tires and not the single tube cement tires, as are on cheap American wheels, which this firm refused to handle. A cheap wheel is an abomination, while the "Perfect" or the "Cleveland" means assured pleasure. 6-20dmthrw1w.

The death occurred Tuesday morning after a lingering illness at the home of her sister, Mrs. John Gardiner of Bedeque, of Miss Mary J. Crawford, aged seventy years. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon at two o'clock to the Baptist cemetery, Bedeque. (The above notice is repeated today as the name was inadvertently written Gardiner for yesterday's issue.)

John Sark, ex-chief of the Micmacs of P. E. Island left yesterday morning to attend the twenty-seventh celebration of the Micmac tribe which is to be held at Restigouche on Friday. Ex-chief Sark, who is one of the best Micmac speakers in the Maritime Provinces goes as the representative of the Micmacs of the Province to this celebration and will be the principal Micmac orator of the occasion.

From a Calgary paper of a recent date the following is taken: The marriage of Miss Margaret Jean McKelvie, youngest daughter of Archibald and Mrs. McKelvie, to Ernest Ralph Fairley, Proprietor of "The Fair," was solemnized at 9.30 last night at the residence of the bride's parents 631 4th Avenue West. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. Clark of Knox Church in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends. The house was decorated with quantities of pink and white carnations and smiles. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore her travelling suit of blue cloth with a dainty silk blouse. Her sister Miss J. E. McKelvie played the wedding march. After the ceremony the guests sat down to a wedding supper, the table looking very pretty with carnations as a center and with its dainty linens china and cut glass. Mr and Mrs Fairley left on the early train for the east and will visit Toronto and Montreal returning by way of Detroit and Chicago and will take up their residence on 21st Avenue on their return. (The bride's parents formerly resided in Summerside, where she was book-keeper for Sinclair & Stewart.)
