WHO WOULDN'T JUMP?

SAN FRANCISCO.—When a motorist passing through Niles Canyon saw a large tarantula in the road, he stopped and captured the poisonous spider in a coffee can. Later while driving, he glanced down and saw the tarantula climbing up his trouser leg. The driver didn't wait to put on the brakes, but leaped out. The car and the spider went into a ditch.

Teacher—"Tommy, are the skins of cats of any use?"
Tommy—"Yes, sir."
"Well, what are they used for?"
"For keeping cats warm."

Changes its own Records

Plays twelve records without attention.—Runs itself for a whole hour. No operating effort on your part.—Just listen.

WHEN you turn on the current, the turntable starts to revolve; a mechanical "hand" takes the first record from the group of twelve and places it on the turntable; the tone-arm moves into position; the sound-box is lowered and the music begins. At the end of the selection, the mechanical "hand" removes the record from the turntable, slides it gently into a felt-lined concealed drawer, and "picks off" the next record from the magazine arm. These operations are repeated until the last record is played, then the mechanism stops automatically.

So magnificent an instrument demands an exterior of exceptional beauty. Victor craftsmen have designed a distinguished cabinet for the Automatic Orthophonic Victrola, in which every luxurious touch that ingenuity can devise has been incorporated. The price of the automatic instrument is $775. Other models of the Orthophonic Victrola Instruments are obtainable at prices ranging from $430. down to $115. Obtainable on convenient terms from "His Master's Voice" Dealers. Demonstrations now going on. If your dealer hasn't one he will order it for you.

Australian Mines Ruined

(British United Press.) SYDNEY, N.S.W., Oct. 8.—Reduction in the price of lead by 50 dollars a ton, in spelter of 35 dollars a ton, and in silver of nearly eight cents an ounce during the past twelve months has almost put the great lead and silver producing mines of Broken Hill, New South Wales, out of business. Immensely flourishing this time last year, even the strongest of the mines are now barely paying their way, and some of the weaker ones are predicting closing down.

Share values in the four strongest operating companies—North Broken Hill, Broken Hill South, Sulphide Corporation, and Zinc Corporation have fallen in the aggregate $13,250,000 in the last three months, and about $20,000,000 in the last five months. On March 31, five dollar shares in the North Broken Hill company were selling at $30. Today they can be bought in a weak market for $19. In that time the market value of the shares have fallen $7,500,000.

Contributing to the parlous condition of the mines are increased output costs, occasioned by the industrial arbitration courts lowering effective underground working hours from 35 to 30 per week, and shifts practically to close down the mines than to keep them going, and two of the weaker companies, Broken Hill Proprietary and Block 14 are contemplating this. Broken Hill is still one of the richest silver-lead fields in the world, as it has been during the last 40 years, and great ore bodies still await mining. On the operations of the field depends the fortunes of the 30,000 people resident in the city of Broken Hill, situated on the western fringe of New South Wales.

Recently another famous Australian mine, the Mount Morgan gold and copper mining company, was forced to abandon operations permanently owing to the low price of copper, extreme industrial handicaps imposed by legislation, and the difficulties of working owing to a fire which occurred in the mine three years ago. Dividends amounting to $80,000,000 had been paid in since the mine opened 40 years ago, and experts estimated that proved ore values still underground total $75,000,000.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. NATHAN MacFARLANE

We were called upon with deep sorrow to record the death of Mr. Nathan MacFarlane, who passed away at his residence in Summerside on Monday evening, at the age of 75 years. He was taken seriously ill ten days ago and never rallied. Mr. MacFarlane was a native of Bedouque and first came to Summerside about forty years ago and entered into partnership in the firm of Messrs. Schurman, Clark & Co. (now Messrs. M. F. Later he became, on his own account one of the leading builders and contractors. Honorable and upright in all his dealings, and taking a great interest in political and civic affairs he soon became a leading citizen and held the respect of all the people. He was for four terms an honored and trusted member of the Summerside Town Council, in religion he was a staunch member of the Presbyterian Church and he will be greatly missed in the civil and religious life of the community. There are left to mourn a sorrowing widow (nee Martha Ferguson, of Summerside) and three daughters, the Misses Bertie, Mattie and Enid MacFarlane, all at home, to whom our most sincere sympathy is extended.
