

Your Cold How will your cold be tonight? Worse, probably. How about tomorrow? The trouble is, colds always tend downward. Stop this downward tendency with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Your doctor will tell you why it can do this. Ask him all about it. Ask him if he has anything better for coughs and colds. Then follow his advice, whatever it is. We have no secret! We publish the formulae of all our medicines! Lowell, Mass.

The following resolution of condolence was conveyed to Albert E. Wright, recently. It is the desire of the members of King Edward, L. O. L., No. 1064 and Maple Leaf, L. T. B. No. 233, Bedouque, that their sincere sympathy be conveyed to you and your family in the sad bereavement you have been called upon to bear in the death of your beloved mother, and we would direct you to the God of all consolation who is able and willing to sustain you in this your hour of trouble, ever bearing in mind that your loss is her eternal gain. As she has passed to that great Beyond, to hear that well done, thou good and faithful servant. As thou hast been faithful over a few things I will make you faithful over many things enter thou into the joy of the Lord. Signed by T. J. Luman and George Sutherland for committee.

ON Saturday evening last the friends of James Curley met at the residence of John McLean, North Wiltshire, for the purpose of bidding him good bye and presenting an address and gift before his departure to Vernon River where he has been appointed to the position of section foreman of the railway. After doing justice to the good things provided by the host, the chairman, Ewen Campbell, called upon J. M. Nicholson to read an address and present a dress suit case to Mr. Curley on behalf of his numerous friends. The recipient made a suitable reply. Short speeches regretting the departure of the guest and wishing him health, happiness and prosperity in his new position were given by Chas. McDuff, Murdoch McLean, Edwin Edwards, John McLean, Dr. McKenzie, D. Cummings, Ewen Campbell and J. M. Nicholson.

HON. A. B. WARBURTON delivered a lecture in Grandview Hall last Friday night on "Some of Canada's Great Men." For an hour and a half he held the closest attention of the audience while he referred in a scholarly manner to some of the great men of early Canada, which included Jacques Cartier, Samuel Champlain, the famous Indian chiefs Joseph Brant, Tecumseh and others. In this subject Mr. Warburton found full scope for his well known talents and his treatment of it was such as left nothing further to be desired. Complimentary remarks were made by the chairman—Kenneth McLean and A. S. Nicholson and Mal. A. Martin. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered. The learned lecturer to which he suitably responded. The meeting was brought to a close by singing the National Anthem. Miss Minnie Gillis presided at the organ.

Forty eight seals were killed by the Messrs McMillan of Wood Islands on Friday the 14th instant, says the Prince Edward Island Register of March 18th, but a fog coming on they only succeeded in getting eleven on shore. What a source of wealth does the shoals of seals which regularly visit our shores every winter present to the inhabitants of this island. In Newfoundland several hundred seal of vessels are employed every spring in this fishery, which has rewarded the enterprise of many of them engaged in it with affluence and independence; but in vain are all the treasures of the watery elements scattered with a wasteful hand around our shores; the subjects of rival and more enterprising States may revel on them before our eyes, and feast upon the fruit which we refuse to pluck; only let us baffle not heaven when the sordid cares of poverty and old age come upon us; here are the means of riches within our grasp, but avarice and sloth have so benumbed our faculties that we possess not energy enough to rouse us to industry and exertion which alone are wanting to make them ours.

From a commercial standpoint, advertising has been in existence but a hundred years. Try and imagine, if you can how much your grandfather lost, because he could not reap the benefits of The Guardian Want Ads. which to-day are at your service.

The Strathcona and Upton correspondent of The Guardian says:—The Saw Mills at Upton Mills and Ross's were kept very busy all winter. James Rieley is home to his farm also W. Turner, who has been in Uncle Sam's Domain for a long time. It is a pity some more of our young men would not return to their homes.—Rev. Mr. Campbell is preaching here every third Sunday with great acceptance.

The Guardian's correspondent in the East writes:—The sick in these parts are generally improving with the exception of Angus G. Campbell, Priest Pond, who is dangerously ill.—Mrs. Samuel McDonald, Dundas, and daughter Miss Annie were visiting eastern friends on Sunday the 23th.—Mr. Murphy of Ken sington is East, probably in connection with the purchase of Daniel Moran's farm East Brattle.—William Sutherland of Black Road is about moving to the United States.—John Lund has successfully moved the dwelling of Alfred Stewart.—T. S. Robertson is still confined to his house.—George Mooney makes welcome trips to the stables of our cattle feeders.

The Guardian's Pownal Correspondent writes:—Rev. Mr. Chowan preached an excellent sermon in the Methodist Church, Pownal on Sunday April 1st taking for his text Acts VIII, 21-7. Our talented young teacher is again to the front with a splendid program which is to be put on the boards on Friday night 6th inst. The splendid success of the last concert will insure an overflow audience this time also.—First wild geese passed over Saturday evening. As we have a sporting club none were killed; hope the Charlottetown club will be as successful. ## Nervous Diseases No Longer a Fad.

ALL CLASSES NOW SUFFER FROM EXHAUSTED NERVES—SPLENDID RESULTS OBTAINED FROM THE USE OF

Dr Chase's Nerve Food.

"The breakdown of the nervous system is no mere society craze from which it is fashionable to suffer, but is becoming a national calamity which bids fair to rob our descendants of many of those qualities which have done so much to make this empire what it is," writes Dr. Guthrie Rankin, an eminent London physician. "The keen competition of life is now felt in all grades of society, and as the result prostration, paralysis and insanity are becoming more and more common as the natural outcome of exhausted nerves. Sleeplessness, irritability, indigestion, headache and general lack of energy and ambition are among the early indications of nervous troubles, and with women the result is not infrequently derangements and irregularities of the feminine organism."

If a committee of experts on diseases of the nerves were to prescribe for you they would give you just such a formula as that of Dr. Chase's Nerve food, for this medicine is composed of the most powerful nerve restoratives known to medical science. This is no idle boast, as we shall be pleased to prove to you if you will have your physician call at these offices and examine the formula.

What we consider as better proof of what Dr. Chase's Nerve Food will do for you is to be found in the letters of recommendation published from time to time in Dr. Chase's Almanac and in the newspapers of this country.

Naturally and gradually this great food cure forms new, rich blood, the substance from which the brain creates new nerve force. This is the only means by which diseases of the nerves can be actually cured. Stimulants and narcotics give temporary relief, but with great expense to the nervous system. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food slowly but certainly revitalizes the wasted nerve cells and by filling the body with vitality overcomes weakness, sickness and disease.

A favorite means of proving this is by noting your increase in weight while using this medicine. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food slowly but certainly revitalizes the wasted nerve cells and by filling the body with vitality overcomes weakness, sickness and disease.

Would you voluntarily consent at any price to dispose of your eye sight?

I think not, and yet perhaps you are one of those who, by neglect, are irretrievably losing at least a portion of their eyesight.

If your eyes need help, the most likely way to assist them is by wearing glasses, properly fitted.
