As an art, is acknowledged to be par excellence by those competent to judge. but there is tailoring versus so called tailoring. The latter on a par with Hand-me-Downs. The former is easily detected by the ease and grace with which it fits not too tight or loose but gives a charm and style to the wearer, not easily defined by the inexperienced, which will you have. You can get the latter with your eyes shut. The former by enquiry for the store of

THE friends of Mrs D. B. Stewart will regret to learn that at a late hour last night her condition was not improved and that she was very ill.

THE Examiner says: Wednesday Ronald McRae, a resident of Rollo Bay, was killed almost instantly by a tree falling on him while he was in the woods lumbering.

THE Stanley sailed yesterday morning with 950 bushels of potatoes, 75 dressed hogs, 24 pkgs of beef, and mutton, 13 cases of eggs, 200 bus oats, 7 boxes smelt, 20 bls. maize, 5 pgs. leather, 12 pgs. cheese and butter, 15 bags of mail and 3 passengers.

MR. William Meek, who for the past 12 years has been in the employ of Messrs. J. D. McLeod & Co. has accepted a position in the Pasteurized Milk Factory and is now in charge of the delivery department of that institution. Mr. Meek's experience will aid him materially in rendering as efficient a service in the future as when with his late employer.

SOME days ago Mr. William Murray visited the Poor House and while being shown through the institution he was struck with the absence of feather pillows. He brought the matter before a number of ladies and gentlemen of the city with the result that out of 51 required over 40 have already been supplied. The ready response of citizens to do all possible for the comfort of the aged is certainly commendable. Straw has been used for pillows up to the present.

THE GUARDIAN understands that the plans for the new Charlottetown station have not yet been completed. It is probable that the rumor that the Dominion Government were about to take over the ferry wharf was the cause of the imaginary plans of depot. It is understood that the making of land between the ferry and railroad wharf is not unlikely and the works will be moved south to permit of the erection of the station on the corner of Water and Queen Streets.

THE seventh annual meeting of the New Glasgow Dairying Co. was held in the New Glasgow Hall on Tuesday, March 6th. From the large number of shareholders and patrons present, it was evident that a great interest is being taken in the dairying industry in this part of the province. The Sec'y-Treas. report was read and unanimously adopted and showed the factory to be in a very flourishing condition. The following directors were then chosen for the ensuing year: R. E. Bagnall, Wm. Laird, Joseph Bagnall, A. B. Dickleson, Eph. Gallant and James Dickleson—elected and Fred. Bultman, elected in place of Simon Brown resigned.

It has always been thought a most creditable saying that the postponement of an entertainment tends to lessen the interest usually manifested by the entertainer, and depreciates its value in the estimation of the entertained; but if that be true, we had in the fraternal visit of our Prince Edward to Court New London last Tuesday evening, a most notable exception. Disappointed on a previous date from coming together because of the unfavorable conditions of the elements, their disappointment seems but to have enhanced their admiration for the principles of their order via L. B. C. All was done that might add to the enjoyment of the visitor, who in return did everything in his power to entertain the visited. The wives, sisters and lady friends were the specially invited, who generously responded to their honor as evidenced by the well-spread supper board prepared by them. Chief Ranger, Bro. A. K. Henry, most acceptably occupied the chair. The singing of Auld Lang Syne closed a most enjoyable evening, which will long be held in pleasant remembrance by those present.—Cor.

THE Newcastle Advocate says: Isaac P. Bryenton, youngest son of George and Mary Bryenton of Derby, N. B. was called to his eternal home Saturday night Feb. 11th from R. Chester Minn. His death, though sudden was not entirely unexpected as he had been ill for the last four months. For the last 14 years he had made his home with his sister Mrs. J. D. Babur of Stillwater. The funeral services were held at 7.30, Feb. 19th, from the Methodist Episcopal church, Stillwater, under the auspices of the A. O. U. W. lodge of which he was a member. His remains were escorted to the station, and brought to his old home for final interment, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Babur. The funeral services here were held at his father's residence on Sunday Feb. 24th. Deceased was 33 years of age. Father and mother, six brothers and five sisters are left to mourn the loss of a loving son and brother.

To the wife, parents, brother and sisters of our late brother Russel Thomson: We the members of Court Aberdeen, I. O. F. would hereby convey to you our heartfelt sympathy in the great sorrow which in the Providence of God has fallen upon your home. Whatever consolation may be afforded you by the knowledge that your sorrow is in some measure ours, we would hasten to impart. We would assure you that in the esteem and affection of the fraternity of Foresters, and especially in the hearts of the members of Court Aberdeen our late brother occupied a high and honorable place. His kindly heart, amiable disposition and habitually courteous and conscientious demeanor won for him, not only among his Forester brethren, but among all who had the pleasure of a close personal acquaintance with him, feelings of deep attachment and regard. But while we seek thus by the expression of our sympathy and regard to alleviate in some measure the deep and poignant grief inflicted upon you by the death of a beloved husband, son and brother, we realize how little merely human sympathy avails to heal your deeply wounded hearts. We would therefore commend you to the sympathy of our Elder Brother whose mission to this world was to "bind up the broken-hearted" "to comfort all who mourn" earnestly praying that you may experience in your bereavement in great measure the grace and compassion of our Heavenly Father.
