When Trusted Men Go Wrong

Every once in a while the daily papers report the shortcomings of an apparently trustworthy and responsible clerk or official. There is no accounting for these unfortunate affairs. They are accidents, and to be provided against as such. Our Guarantee and Fidelity Bonds, insure an employer against the loss entailed by such accidents. We bond clerks, and officials, cashiers and collectors and trusted employees handling money in every department of business. Our bonds are an asset to the employer, and a reliable credential for the employee.

On Thursday night Police Officers arrested Frank Power and Pius Binns City, and they were charged with waylaying and robbing James Arthur O'Neill of the schooner Josephine Swanson in the manner described in The Guardian of the morning after the occurrence. The men appeared before the magistrate yesterday and occupied the attention of the court all the afternoon. O'Neill and Officer Kiggins were the only witnesses examined. O'Neill's evidence bearing on his movements before the alleged assault showed that he, in company with three companions, went down to the drill shed on Wednesday evening O'Neill and a Mr Green left the other two at the drill shed about ten o'clock and walked along Rochford St to Sydney St, then along Pownal St to King and along King toward Queen. When opposite a gangway on King Street they noticed two men standing in the dark and it is understood some passing remarks were exchanged as they walked by. It is supposed that those in the gangway were Power and Binns and probably others. After O'Neill and Green passed by they noticed that they were being followed. They proceeded to Full's wharf where O'Neill says he bade Green good-night and started on return to his vessel. When on the track near M. P. Hogan's factory he was assaulted as already described; hit twice on the back and stunned. After the first blow was struck he turned around and quickly noticed a large one-armed man, a good looking colored chap and another party in the background whom he could not see plainly. The second blow rendered him unconscious and when he came to he discovered the loss of his money. He immediately called the police and officers Walker and Kiggins replied to the call. The case will be continued this morning before the magistrate.

Upon investigation it was found to be an ordinary can such as used for preservation of fruit and vegetables and was filled with uncooked beans. The party was about to enter the palace when the incident occurred, and for a moment it was believed that a bomb had been thrown. The police seized the assailant, who proved to be a Russian named Abraham Eirwsiss, a resident of this city. It is thought that he is not responsible for his act. SOLDIERS AND POLICE BATTLE IN THE STREETS

CHEYENNE, Wyo., June 1—Soldiers from Fort D. A. Russell and a squad of police fought a pitched battle in the streets late last night, in which three soldiers are said to have been wounded by the bullets of the police. The police were forced to retreat to the station-house, where they were besieged by the soldiers until released by a detail of colored troops from the fort. The wounded soldiers were hurried away by their friends. No arrests were made. The trouble grew out of the death of Private Frank Carrol, 200th Cavalry who, it was alleged, was clubbed to death by a policeman while under arrest.
