JUNEAU, Alaska, March 9 - (AP) - Braving the wrath of spinsters, Democrat William Egan introduced a bill in the Alaska House of Representatives last night calling for a tax of $50 a head on single women. He said his intent was to "further the institution of matrimony, relieve the housing shortage and levy a special tax on the privilege of being single."

IN MEMORIAM MRS. RALPH BEAIRSTO - The community of Malpeque and surrounding districts were saddened to learn of the passing in the Prince County Hospital on Monday, Feb. 21st of Mrs. Ralph Beairsto at the age of 52 years. The funeral service was held on Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 23rd in Winesetown United Church. Although the day proved to be very unfavorable the large church was filled with many friends from far and near who came to pay their last tribute of respect to one who was greatly loved and admired by a host of people for her many good qualities. The deceased was a lady of many fine principles, a friend to all, an active worker in church activities and all the different societies of the community and ever ready to give of her time to help any in need. She will be greatly missed not only in the community, but in her home where all was always made welcome. The funeral was conducted by her pastor, Rev. James Cross, assisted by Rev. J. A. MacGowan in Scripture reading. Rev. Mr. Cross paid a fitting tribute to the life of the deceased as a friend and a consistent church worker. His message contained much comfort to the sorrowing family and friends. The hymns sung were "O God Our Help in Ages Past", "The Lord's My Shepherd" and "Lead Kindly Light". Many viewed for a last time all that was mortal of a loving friend who looked so peaceful in her last sleep, banked with flowers from friends. The casket was carried to her last resting place in the adjoining cemetery followed by a long concourse of mourners. The pallbearers were Messrs. Keith Donald, Frank Beairsto, Preston Green, Ray Lockerby, Vernon MacGowan and John MacNutt. There are left to mourn her sorrowing husband, one son John, student at McGill University, Montreal and one daughter Mary, student at Prince of Wales College, Charlottetown; also an aged mother-in-law in the home and a sister, Miss Reta Buxton, R.N., New York, who came to be with her sister during her illness, also a wide circle of friends to whom deep sympathy is extended.
