Elmer Rice's Ninth Inning Single Gives All Stars 5-4 Win

A ringing single by Elmer Rice with two out in the last of the ninth and Baldy Williams parked on third was the payoff wallop for the All Stars yesterday afternoon enabling them to take a close 5-4 victory from the visiting Tatamagouche Senators, Maritime Intermediate champions, in an exhibition tilt at the Park diamond.

The All Stars battled from behind an early 3-1 lead the visitors had established in the second innings to knot the count in the last of the fifth 3-3. In the sixth the All Stars took a one-run lead when Cart MacDonald singled and scored on Williams' sacrifice bunt. The Senators replied with a run in the top of the seventh as White, visiting shortstop, led off with a triple into right field and came home on Menzie's single.

Lefty MacAleer bore down hard to hold Tatamagouche scoreless in their last two innings and as the All Stars came to bat in the last of the ninth it was still 4-4. Baldy Williams set the stage for Rice's game winning single when he drove a hot grounder to short that the Senators' short-fielder couldn't handle. Irving McKinnon sacrificed Williams to second and he advanced to third as Charlie Ryan was grounding out to second. Elmer Rice was the next hitter to come to the plate and after waching two called strikes go by he drove a single between third and short to score Williams with the winning counter.

Sid Latta, Tatamagouche's speedballing righthander, pitched a winning brand of ball allowing the All Stars only five scattered hits but eight errors behind him by his teammates ruined his chances for a win.

Lefty MacAleer, All Stars' southpaw ace, turned in a nice pitching performance on the locals mound striking out seven and giving up eight hits over the route. Except for a bad second innings when Tatamagouche scored three runs he had the game well under control.

The locals opened the scoring in the first innings when Cart MacDonald singled, Higson, who had reached first on a second base error, home from second. Tatamagouche came up with their big innings in the second when they collected four consecutive singles off MacAleer, good for three runs, before he made the third out. Jack Gallant got a run back for the All Stars in the second going around the sacks on three consecutive errors. Elmer Rice accounted for run number three in the fifth scoring on an overthrow to second after reaching first on a hit. Cart MacDonald put the All Stars in the lead 4-3 in the last of the sixth leading off with a single, stealing second and scoring on a passed ball. The Senators scored their fourth and last run in the top of the seventh on White's triple to tie the score 4-4 remaining that way until Rice came through with his game-winning single in the last of the ninth.

Good Field For Sporting Club's 10-Mile Race Tonight

Seven middle distance plodders with the expectation of at least three more entering will face the starter in front of the Sporting Club this evening at 6.30 for Joey McDonald's ten mile road race and sports followers are looking forward to a close race all the way.

Headed by John Paul, classy Indian runner the other six competitors are quite capable of giving the smooth striding Paul a battle of it all the way.

Jack Hennessey, winner of the Patriot race, Wallie Shepherd and Johnnie Shepherd and Russell Doyle comprise the Island representations, all in the pink of condition with the quartette reportedly reeling off fast times in practice sessions.

Then there are Gilbert Mason and Ben Buffett, two Cape Bretoners from whom much is expected, and both of whom state they will be well up with the leaders when the finish line nears.

The field is small but classy and one of the largest turnouts of fans ever expected to witness an event of this kind is expected for tonight's event.

Car owners are asked to keep off the course and give the runners every chance.

Following is the course the runners will follow:

Starting at the Sporting Club they go to Gt. George Street; out Great George to Elm Avenue and Malpeque Road; turn at Highfield Church over to North River Road; in North River Road to Willow Corner and then around the Park Roadway to Pownal Street, up Pownal to Grafton to Sporting Club.

Trophies for the event are being donated by Gil Whitney's band that plays at the Club tonight and promoter Joey McDonald.

REMEMBER WHEN

By The Canadian Press

It took three runnings to decide the winner of a race at the Northern Jockey Club in Sydney, Australia, 50 years ago today. Yellow Plush, Tom and Syndicate ran a triple dead heat and Tom and Yellow Plush were dead-heated again on the first run-off. On the third try Tom won by a nose.

Macken Wins Mt'l. Cup

MONTREAL, Aug 11 —(CP)— Brendan Macken, youthful Canadian Davis Cup player won the Montreal Cup Saturday, defeating Henri Rochon, a fellow Davis Cupper 1-6, 8-6, 6-0, 6-2 in the men's singles final match of the Quebec lawn tennis association's Montreal cup tournament held here at the Concordia Tennis Club.

A badly blistered right hand hampered Rochon's game.

Not to be outdone by her brother, 19-year-old Pat Macken walked off with the ladies singles final match, trimming Mrs. A. P. Porter 6-0 6-4 in a game of long line drives.

Teams Being Flooded With Mex. Offers

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 11 —(CP)— The Mexican baseball league "has flooded every team in both leagues with offers to star players," Augie Galan, Brooklyn Dodgers infielder and one of the National league-leading teams representatives in player-owner conferences, said Saturday.

"Offers are coming in every day," Galan said. "And unless some of the owners realize what's coming up next year they may wake up without ball clubs"

NORTH BAY, Ont., Aug. 9—(CP) —"Aces" are getting to be a habit with Bob Barringer, popular professional at the North Bay Golf and Country Club. While playing with Roy Vincer and Bob Ingram, Barringer, a former Northern Ontario amateur champion, today scored the fourth hole-in-one of his career on the 110-yard ninth hole, using an eight iron to make the shot.

The Sporting Club's ten mile road race gets underway this evening at 6.30 from in front of the club and followers of the middle distance game are expecting a gruelling struggle between the entries.

Last night the entry list was swelled by the addition of Gilbert Mason of Sydney, N. S., a veteran not only of the race game but in years as well. Mason is rapidly approaching the 59-year-old mark but looks just as young and spry as a man of thirty. He wouldn't predict as to how he would fare off in tonight's grind but it could easily be seen that he expected to be well up with the leaders when the finish line is reached.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

That was quite a battle All Stars and Tatamagouche Senators put up yesterday afternoon in their exhibition game at the Park diamond with the locals staging their "Merriwell" finish to come under the wire a nose to the good. Maritime intermediate champions the Nova Scotians fielded a fast, well-balanced club and the fact that our own club could take their measure places them well up in this year's rating for intermediate honors.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

Congratulations go to Doug Saunders who won the Prince Edward Island golf championship Saturday afternoon at Summerside. Doug combined an 80 with an 81 fired on his home course for a 161, five strokes better than runners-up Art MacKenzie and Dick Bagnall.

The following tribute appeared in the Ottawa Journal:

Sudden death of Tony Lazzeri recently removed one of the greatest second basemen in major league history. He was one of the old Yankee powerhouses when Ruth, Gehrig and company ruled the baseball world. But he was also the unhappy victim of one of the game's most celebrated incidents, that unforgettable day in 1926 when Grover Cleveland Alexander stepped in to halt the Yankees and carry St. Louis Cardinals to a world's series triumph.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

Lazzeri was one of the central figures in this dramatic windup, the medium through which old "Alex" added another glamorous chapter to one of baseball's greatest pitching careers. The 1926 series had reached the seventh and deciding game and Jesse Haines was picked to pitch for the Cardinals with Waite Hoyt given the call to hurl for the Yanks, whose lineup boasted such stars as Ruth, Gehrig, Lazzeri, Coombs, Koenig and Dugan.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

It was a battle from the outset with the Cardinals coming from behind in the fourth to take a 3-1 lead before the Yanks added another run in the sixth.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

It was with the Cards leading 3-2 and the Yanks at bat in the seventh that one of the most talked of feats in baseball was accomplished. With two of the Yanks out of the way Haines suddenly developed a blister on his pitching hand and walked three men in a row to fill the bases.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

With Lazzeri at bat, Manager Rogers Hornsby of the Cardinals called Haines from the mound and sent word to the bull pen to send in Alexander. The latter since has told how "I came out from under the bleachers and I saw the bases filled with Lazzeri standing in the box."

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

Then came a duel between a great clutch hitter and one of the game's most renowned pitchers. The first pitch Alexander sent was a curve, which Lazzeri missed. The next one was a straight ball and Lazzeri connected while all the Yankees on base started moving. It was a hard-hit ball, but it had a tail fade and it landed 10 feet into foul territory in the left field bleachers.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

There were no more straight ones after that. Alexander followed with a curve ball and Lazzeri missed it for the out. To finish out the piece the veteran Cardinal hurler set down the Yanks in order in the eighth, got the first two of them in the ninth before facing Ruth. With the count three and two on him the Babe drew a walk, but with Bob Meusel at bat the Yanks decided to let Ruth run. That was the end. Catcher Bob O'Farrell of the Cards threw to second and Hornsby tagged Ruth for the final out.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

But the last two innings were an anticlimax. The great moment of that series had passed after Lazzeri had missed a homer by 10 feet and then missed Alexander's third strike.

Doug Saunders Winner Of Island Golf Championship

Doug Saunders, Charlottetown, climbed the heights of provincial golfing greatness Saturday afternoon when he led a field of Prince Edward Island golfers in the second stage of the Island championship at Summerside with a sparkling 80 for the par 72 course. An 81 turned in for the opening 18 hole round of the title hunt at the Belvedere course gave him a total 161 for the 36 hole competition.

Five strokes behind the youthful Saunders were clubmates Art MacKenzie and Dick Bagnall while in third position was Joe Mahar of Charlottetown with a total 168 for the 36 holes.

M. J. Dowling who led the opening round of the tournament with a 78 "picked-up" and faded from the play, Dowling is awaiting a ruling on an application for his reinstatement as an amateur.

The new provincial golf champion is a war veteran having served as a lieutenant in the navy. Saunders in pre-war years won the New Brunswick-Prince Edward Island junior golf title and in the same year was a member of the Maritime Willingdon Cup team.

Divisional prize winners in the competition follow:

Sox And Yanks Break Even In Double Bill

By The Canadian Press

The American League leading Boston Red Sox and New York Yankees divided a long drawn-out double header Sunday before New York's largest attendance of the year—72,320 paid admissions. After the Red Sox had won the opener 7-5, the Yankees came back to win the nightcap 9-1. Darkness halted the second contest after 6 1-2 innings.

The wild opener, which took three hours and 28 minutes to play, saw 10 pitchers used, five for each side, with 21 bases on balls issued.

Aided by Joe DiMaggio's 18th home run, Lefty Joe Page coasted to his sixth victory with a two-hit performance in the abbreviated nightcap. Boston's only run came in the second inning when Rudy York tripled and tallied on a balk of Page. George Stirnweiss, with two doubles and a triple, drove in three runs for the Yanks.

The split left the Sox still 13 games out in front with the season's series between the two teams deadlocked at seven victories apiece.

Anchors Win First Game

Scoring nine of their eleven runs in the first two innings Anchors defeated Cardinals 11-7 yesterday to go one game up in the best of three semi-final series for the Holy Redeemer softball league title.

"Sonny" Stull, young son of Ray Stull, former speedball hurler pitched the Anchors to their victory bearing down hard to limit his opponent's scoring to three innings.

Shipyards Winners Over Middleton

HALIFAX, Aug. 11—(CP)— Halifax Shipyards downed Middleton Cardinals 2-1 Saturday in the opening game of the newly-formed Halifax-Middleton Baseball League.

The league was formed last week when Middleton of the Valley League and Arrows and Shipyards of the Halifax and District League dropped out of their circuits because the Nova Scotia Amateur Baseball Association disqualified five of their star players on the June 1 residence rule.

Saturday's game was a pitching duel between Middleton's Lefty Latteri and Ken Sweeney of the Yardmen. Both allowed four hits apiece over the nine-inning route.

Donagh Team Are Winners

A Holy Redeemer baseball team yesterday absorbed an 8-6 defeat at the hands of a Donagh squad in a game played at the latter place.

It was the second meeting of the two teams with the Holy Redeemer squad winning the first 10-9.

Leo Trainor officiated behind the plate with L. Heron on the bases.

Amherst Team Winners Over Summerside

The Amherst Legion ball team defeated the Summerside Legion at the Summerside driving park diamond Sunday afternoon by the score of eight to two.

The visitors pounded out eleven safe hits off pitcher Gil Williams while the home boys were getting six singles off Clouette the Amherst flinger. Both teams committed four errors.

Although the same number of errors was chalked up by both teams the visitors covered more territory in the field and accepted more chances. Amherst nine also showed superiority running the bases. Batteries, Amherst Clouette and Dupuis, Summerside, Williams and Deighan.

Dr. F.C. Dougan To Start Races Old Home Week

A great number of people visited the Exhibition Grounds yesterday afternoon and evening and admired the way they are dolled up for Old Home Week. Hundreds viewed the horse barns and got acquainted or reacquainted with the trotters and pacers that will be fighting it out in the home stretch for four afternoons of this week. Many were friends of the drivers that they had not seen for perhaps a year or even more and it was nice to watch the happy expressions on their faces.

Never in the history of the track, or in fact any Maritime track, has such an array of horses been brought together. Actually there are 112 munching hay and oats there with 18 to 20 from nearby points on the Island and some from the mainland that will be in place tonight. The whole town is alive with horse talk reminding a Boston visitor of Lexington Kentucky where the trots are the feature of the year. Among the big guns from the "hub" city of Boston here for the first time is Allan J. Wilson, manager of Suffolk Downs, largest race track in Massachusettes.

The Charlottetown Hotel is packed with guests and thousands of others are being accommodated in hotels, cabins and private homes stretching as far as Kensington. Officials say that this meeting looks to be the greatest crowd puller of all time, but they feel confident that they can handle it comfortably with the large seating and other accommodation at the grounds. Tonight the various vaudeville acts from New York, Boston and other centres will be in. The advance guard of Bill Lynch's show arrived last evening by special trip of the boat and train and the big job of setting-up will be in full swing this morning.

The officials who will handle the races are:

Starter: Dr. F. C. Dougan, Charlottetown.

Judges: W. S. Brown, Charlottetown; S. Thane Belyea, Fredericton, H. Silliphant, Summerside.

Timers: L. B. MacMillan, Byron Brown, Charlottetown; Dr. A. A. Lockhart, Summerside.

Clerk of the course: W. J. Brown

Assistant clerks: W. H. Beaton, Charles Reardon.

Numbers clerk: James Herrell.

This morning at ten o'clock the horsemen will draw their positions for the races which take place tomorrow afternoon. The following are the classes and probable starters:

Hogan Wins Professional Tournament

(By Wilf Gruson, Canadian Press Staff Writer)

WINNIPEG, Aug. 11— (CP)— Little Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pa., won his ninth tournament this year to bring his earnings to $29,500 when he captured the Canadian Professional Golfers' Association open tournament at Naikwa course Saturday with a 72-hole total of 281.

The game's leathery-faced "mighty mite" turned in a four-under par 68 over the final 18 holes to nose out Dick Metz of Arkansas City, Kan., by one stroke and take the $2,000 first-place prize money.

Metz pulled even with the 133-pound shotmaker twice on the back nine after being one down on the outgoing stretch, but he made a bad iron shot on the final hole that led to a bogie five instead of the par four. Thus he had to accept the $1600 offered for second place.

Both players tied for the runner-up spot at the three-quarter way mark with 54-hole totals of 213 and the top spot for the full four rounds was in sight for either one after British open champion Sammy Snead of Hot Springs, Va., who started his final round as leader with 211, and bespectacled Ellsworth Vines of Chicago finished their final 18 holes tied for third place with 283.

They had to settle for a third-place tie as Hogan and Metz came home in their sub-par rounds in the wake of Snead's par-matching 72 for the final 18 holes and the three-under-par 69 of Vines, the leader after the first and second rounds. The third and fourth place money of $1,000 and $800 was pooled and split between them.

Finals Reached In Golf Play

Art MacKenzie and Doug Saunders, newly crowned provincial golf champion, advanced to the finals of the Charlottetown Golf Club Championship play in a series of matches played recently.

Saunders defeated Joe Mahar one up after 20 holes of competition while McKenzie disposed of Cecil Dowling three and two.

MacKenzie and Saunders will meet in a 36 hole competition for the title some time before August 25th.

In a "rookie" playoff match Angus McEachern defeated Gordon Wellner three and two.

Katz Are Eliminated By Sockers

Last evening before a large gathering of fans the second game in the semi finals of the Knights of Columbus softball league between the Bobby Sockers and Katz was played and resulted in a victory for the former and they will now enter the finals with the second group winners. Both teams played smart ball, however the Sockers had too much on the ball and pounded out a 19 to 9 verdict. The winners had two big innings to their credit, the second and ninth, when they accounted for twelve of their runs.

Highlights of the game were homers by Hennigar and Lund of the winners. Smart catches by Coyle, Weir, Bryenton, McInnis and Landrigan of the Katz and McNeill, S. MacDonald, Hennigar and J. MacDonald of the Sockers.

They lined up as follows:—Bobby Sockers: McNeill, Lund, Hennigar, MacDonald, Pickard, MacMillan, S. MacDonald McMahon and Doyle.

Katz—M. Doyle Coyle, Murnaghan, Landrigan, Power, Weir, Bryenton, McInnis, Walker.

Umpire at the plate—J. Ready. On the bases—M. Williams.

The next game this evening between the Cundall Kids and Misfits.

LONDON —(CP)— School children cannot have their milk allocation at home during the summer holidays because the food ministry has been unable to find a workable scheme, said John Strachey, food minister.
