McDonald.—Mr James Hughes, Mill Cove, spent a few days visiting friends in Scotchfort the latter part of last week.—S

NEW RESIDENCE.—A boom in a small way seems to have struck Mt. Stewart during the present year, there being some fine new residences in the course of erection, together with several large barns. Prominent among the residences is one that is being built for Mr. Montague McKay, which, when finished, will be one of the most commodious in the town. The residence for Mr. H. F. Feahan, Mt. L., which will no doubt be a credit to Mt. Stewart, indeed it looks as if Mt. Stewart intends to do its part in keeping up the slogan of "Business as usual" or perhaps business more than usual.—S

The annual League of the cross picnic will be held at Bedford July 19th. Trains leave the city at 9.15 a. m. and 2 p. m. 1881-7-7M11

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. ALEX. ROSS

At Garfield, Belfast, on the 21st. instant, the beloved wife of Alex. Ross in the fifty-seventh year of her age. The deceased was in failing health for some time and endured her affliction with the gentleness and patience of a true Christian. As the end drew near she was not afraid and awaited with upward look until the door opened ajar and her loving spirit entered the Master's presence. She leaves a husband and four sons to mourn the loss of a devoted wife and mother, together with a large circle of friends who esteemed her for her many virtues. Her remains

ENTRIES for horse races, Monday, July 12th, in connection with the Orange Tea, close this evening at 8 o'clock with the Secretary of the C.D.C. at the Canada Fox Exchange.

ALMOST TOO LATE—Yesterday an elderly resident of Pownal had a lively sprint to catch his train, which was well out of the station when he arrived. The conductor, however, seeing his plight, kindly stopped the train for him to get aboard.

HOME GUARD.—The Home Guard, Companies Nos. 1 and 2, turned out in full strength last night under command of Lieut. Stiers. They marched to the park with their rifles and performed very creditably their different drills. Next drill will be on Tuesday evening next.

STOCK SOLD EN BLOC.—Many householders were disappointed yesterday when the auction sale of the grocery stock of Sanderson & Co. was called off owing to the fact that the stock had been bought in en bloc by Mr. A. Robertson, formerly of Bonshaw, now of this city.

SUPREME COURT.—The case against Edwin L. Harrington was continued at the Supreme Court yesterday, when considerable evidence was given for the defence. Council having addressed the jury and the Chief Justice summed up, the jury retired at 4.15. At 5.25 they returned, and the foreman stated that they had found it impossible to come to a verdict. They asked His Lordship for further information as to their responsibility in regard to the law, and having been addressed again by the Judge on the question of intent on the part of the prisoner they again retired. In ten minutes they returned with a verdict of acquittal. Harrington was then discharged.

NEW CAFE OPENED.—Yesterday Le Grand Cafe was officially opened in Goff & Co's commodious building on Queen Street, when the proprietors entertained a number of prominent citizens at a banquet, which was thoroughly enjoyed by the guests. The restaurant is beautifully appointed with all the up-to-date conveniences of the day, and the table at which the guests were seated was very delightfully appointed, while all the delicacies of the season were admirably served with true Chinese dexterity and gave the citizens a splendid idea of the capabilities of the Chinese cooks, under whose management it is conducted. Mr C. Gavin Duffy presided at the banquet, at the close of which a hearty vote of thanks was tendered the hosts.

JOINS EASTERN S.S. CO.—Mr Harold S. Crane for the past ten years travelling agent and purser of the Plant Line steamers, has severed his connection with that company to accept the important appointment of commercial agent of the Eastern Steamship Corporation. Mr Crane, who is well known in Charlottetown, has been appointed for the eastern portion of the Maritime Provinces for the Metropolitan Steamship Company, the Eastern Steamship Corporation, the Boston and Yarmouth S.S. Company and other lines, with headquarters at Halifax, looking after both passenger and freight interests. Mr Crane will have the congratulations of his many friends in the Province and the travelling public on his appointment.

THE SALE of choice milk cows to be held at Daniel Moreside's, North River, will come off Wednesday, July 7th, as advertised. 1828.

PRISONER OF WAR.—Mr. J. F. Peters, son of Hon. Fred Peters, ex-Premier of P. E. Island, now of prince Rupert, who was reported killed or missing is now unofficially reported a prisoner of war at Hanover, Germany.

CHURCH OF SCOTLAND.—Mr M. C. McKinnon will preach on Thursday the 8th at N.M.C. at 7.30 p.m. On Sabbath, the 11th, Mr McKinnon will be at Lot 48 at 10.30, Highfield at 2.30, and in the People's Church at 7 p.m. At these services he will be assisted by his college friend, Rev. Mr. McLeod, a recent graduate of Pine Hill.

HORSE RACES MONDAY.—One of the very best days racing yet given by the C.D.C. will take place next Monday, in connection with the Orange Tea. The Class A trot and pace should prove a very fast and exciting race, as it will have such speedy ones as Hilda S., 2.15, Dr. Sharper, 2.18 1/2, Devilish Dorothy, 2.18 1/2, Princess Etta, 2.20, Dixie Girl, 2.18 1/2 (M.R.), Oakley H., 2.18 1/2, and Angus Dillard. The B trot will have at least six fine trotters, including George Crescens, 2.24 1/2, Picton S., 2.25 (M.R.), Queen Anne, Brenton H. Admiral, etc. Two other classes, a B pace and a C trot and pace, will be run off, with the best horses for the classes.

RIVERDALE.—The semi-annual examination of Riverdale School, No. 62, which was held on Wednesday, June 30th, was attended by a fair number of visitors. The schoolroom was decorated for the occasion with maple leaves, ferns, etc. There was a good attendance of pupils and they were examined in the different subjects by the teacher and aided by the principal, Mr. J. G. Macdonald. The progress had been made since last examination. An interesting programme consisting of singing, dialogues and recitations was rendered by the pupils. At the close of the programme prizes were presented and candy and nuts were distributed to all. The singing of the National Anthem brought to a close a very successful examination.

WEDDING BELLS.—The marriage of Miss Florence M. Trainor and Sylvester J. McGinn was celebrated at the Cathedral in Providence, R.I., on the 6th July. The bride is a daughter of the late Frank Trainor of this city, and groom a prominent business man of North Attleboro, Mass. The bridal couple were attended by Miss May Dougan of Charlottetown, and Mr McCaffery, of Attleboro. Mr and Mrs McGinn will arrive by the Evansville, this evening, accompanied with the bride's relatives in this city. Returning they will visit Niagara Falls and other American cities. The many friends of Mrs McGinn will join in wishing her and her husband bon voyage through life.

CHEESE FACTORY.—The cheese factory at Mount Stewart opened for the season on Monday, June 28th, and judging by the large amount of milk that is already coming in, together with some new routes soon to be added, and cheese making at such a high price, this season promises to be the foremost one for the factory. It is very gratifying to see that the farmers seem to be taking a more lively interest in dairying than has been for the past few years, and this is only as it should be, for it is a proven fact that dairying is one of the most, if not the most, profitable parts of farming. Mr A. L. McDonald, Allisary, is engaged as cheesemaker for the present year.—S

KILLED BY FALL OF COAL.—A distressing fatality occurred in the Hub Colliery, Glace Bay, when Alex. DeGaut, a machine runner, met instant death by being struck by a fall of coal. The unfortunate man, at the time of the accident, was coming up the travelling road on his way home, accompanied by his helper and two loaders, who were on each side of him, when a heavy piece of stone broke a boom and it fell, striking him across the neck and shoulders. He died instantly. Neither his helper nor loaders were hurt in any way. The deceased was born in Prince Edward Island thirty-three years ago, but went to Cape Breton when very young and lived in Dominion until three years ago, when he moved to the Hub, where he had worked ever since. His wife died eighteen months ago, and he is survived by six children. He is also survived by seven brothers and four sisters.

In The Cool Forests Of The North— or wherever it may be spent, the summer holiday is one of the things you can least afford to do without. The best you can afford is none too good if it makes you better able to cope with the work of another year. But, you cannot afford to spend all on holidays and so neglect the protection of insurance. You will need it more than ever while you are away, and you will enjoy your holiday the more if your mind is at ease regarding the future of those dependent upon you. Why not make sure of their future before going away? The best possible guarantee of this is a policy in Canada's oldest life company, the CANADA LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY. W. K.
