GOOD CHEER EXPRESSED—Messrs C. E. Pratt and Son, St. Peter's, are sending a pretty little booklet to their customers and friends this year which contains an expression of goodwill to all their friends for the Christmas season.

Church that is to be, without lamenting the loss which, in the past, has emphasized and intensified our disunity from our fellow Christians.

Here, in Scotland, we are watching your movement with intense interest. You are setting an example to the whole Christian world. You are seeking to demonstrate to that world how brethren can dwell in the unity to a common faith, and in undivided loyalty of service to one living and eternal Lord. That is a great and brave enterprise, and in the blessing of God—the God and Father of us all—cannot fail you.

May all good be with you. Ever yours sincerely, D. CATHELS

The above letter was received by Dr. Sclater from Dr. Cathels with permission to make public use of it.
