PAINFUL ACCIDENT — Mr. Alfred Duchemin, woodworking plant owner and operator, suffered the loss of three fingers of his left hand last week when a board unaccountably flew through the air catching him on the hand.

ISLANDER PASSES — Word has been received recently by friends in this province of the death of David Corbett, Maple Creek, Sask., formerly of North Granville, E. I. His wife, the former Emily Bertram of Hazel Grove predeceased her husband some two years ago.

DAIRY NOTE — Mr. Everett Haslam and Son, Springfield has recently purchased from Mr. Thomas Wignore, Pleasant Valley a very fine dual purpose shorthorn bull, "Beauty Abbottsford" 2 yr. which will be a great addition to his fine herd.

CITY POLICE COURT — Yesterday morning 19 offenders appeared before Magistrate K. M. Martin. Two charged with unnecessary horn blowing were fined five dollars apiece. A man guilty of having slot machines on his premises was fined $100 and the machine confiscated and contents taken. Another charged with keeping liquor for sale, was fined $50 or one month in jail. An adjudged case of operating a car while intoxicated was given seven days in jail. Of four drunk and disorderly cases three were fined five, $10 and $15 dollars respectively, while the fourth was remanded until today. An offender charged with unlawful possession of liquor was fined $10 and costs or 20 days imprisonment.

HOLY REDEEMER MEETING — The annual meeting of Holy Redeemer Parish Altar Society was held Monday evening with Father Baldwin C. S.S.R. present. The election of officers took place with Mrs. C. Gaudet, Mrs. A. Dowling, Mrs. Gallant on the nominating committee and brought in the following slate for 1946: President—Mrs. H. Toombs; 1st Vice President—Mrs. Alan McDonald; 2nd Vice President—Mrs. P. H. Morris; 3rd Vice President—Mrs. Robert Bradley; Secretary—Mrs. F. Walker (re-elected); Father Baldwin then spoke and thanked the outgoing officers for their splendid co-operation during their term of office. Discussion then took place about the future activities.

JUNIOR RED CROSS MEETING — A very successful meeting of "Toppers" was held in Pleasant Grove S.S.R. Friday afternoon. President Margaret Lamplier called the meeting to order. Beatrice MacDougal, Secretary, read the minutes of the previous meeting which were adopted. Roll call was answered by a grab bag. The program consisted of contests put on by the teacher. Prizes were won by Mary Morrison, Alfred Morrison, Orville Roberts, Luella McCabe and Margaret Lamplier (encored). A duet by Irene Genge and Shirley Curran (encored). The meeting closed by singing National Anthem.

The many friends of Cpl. Willis Reeves are glad to see him home again after spending five and a half years in the Air Force. He is now spending a much needed rest visiting his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. James Thompson, Manchester, N. H.

"COATS Have Gone to all Lengths!"

That's what our Ladies' Ready-to-Wear Department says. When, before has a Spring Coat, been such a chameleon thing . . . made for a mood? Observe the swish and sweep of the much admired three-quarter length coat . . . and the "reed in the wind" appearance of the full length coat . . . a good design with perfect grace in every inch. Just look at the saucy flare of the shorty. So . . . long . . . short . . . shorter we bring you delightful choosing in every model.

There are lovely suits too. . . Dressmaker and Tailored styles, interesting features are the new dolman sleeve . . . flange shoulder . . . and you'll note the prevalence of gay colours . . . gay with good taste!
