DAWES WILL NOT SERVE INTOXICANTS

(Special to the Guardian)
WASHINGTON, June 25—A statement by Ambassador Charles G. Dawes in London today, that he would not serve liquor in his London home, and that the Embassy under him would be dry, had enough force to blow off a lid clamped tight by many administrations. It revealed that American diplomatic posts abroad are dripping wet, protected by a Supreme Court decision limiting enforcement to territory over which the government has actual sovereignty.

It is doubtful if Mr. Dawes ever started more troublesome reverberations by any act in his career. Preceding administrations have soft peddled the situation, although complaints from missionaries in China and temperance travellers have threatened damaging publicity. Mr. Dawes acted entirely on his own. The State Department has issued no orders to dry up legations and embassies—any such orders would not be legal.

learned something about the Island tonight," he said.

His Grace, the Archbishop of Edmonton, after complimenting the pupils on their entertainment, commented on the wonderful work of the congregation of Notre Dame de Grace, the daughters of Marguerite Bourgeois, and what a great influence they have exerted on the women of Prince Edward Island. "The Church in Canada has had a glorious history, he declared, but I do not know of a place where it has been more glorious, more interesting, more truly supernatural than Prince Edward Island."

Bishop Morrison also voiced his appreciation of the excellence of the programme, and especially complimented the singing of the pupils. He referred to the heritage left by the early pioneers of the Church and the opportunities which allow "a well-balanced education that makes for good womanhood."

An address of welcome was charmingly read by Miss Margaret Campbell.

Today's programme of celebration, which has already been published, is repeated here for the convenience of the public:
9.00 a.m.—Consecration of Basilica.
1.30 p.m.—Dinner for Clergy at Allamoor.
7.30 p.m.—Pontifical Benediction of Blessed Sacrament.

BERLIN, June 25 — President Von Hindenburg in collaboration with his Cabinet, has drawn up a manifesto to the German people which he will sign and have published June 28, on the tenth anniversary of the signing of the Treaty of Versailles. It was understood it would be brief and would call attention to the day "as a sad memorial to the German people." In addition it probably will deny Germany's sole responsibility for the world war.

Grand Jury Stress Danger Of Speeding

Attention Drawn To Violation Of Motor Vehicle Laws With Respect To Victoria Park And Other Matters Of Public Importance At Yesterday's Supreme Court Sit- ting.

The danger of reckless and excessive driving, particularly through villages and past schools and at cross roads, the violation of the law regarding the running of automobiles in Victoria Park and the need of standardization in weights of leaves of bread sold in Queens County were referred to by the Grand Jury in their report presented yesterday at the opening session of Trinity Term of the Supreme Court. Reference was also made to the advantages of the proposed new Sanatorium and to the work of eliminating bovine tuberculosis in dairy cattle.

The Court met yesterday morning at 11 a. m., Mr. Justice Hazard presiding with Mr. Justice Arsenault on the bench.

The following were the Grand Jurors:

Alfred E. Dewar, Charlottetown foreman; James C. Irving, Vernon; J. Walter Jones, Lunenburg; Moses Byrne, North River; John H. Myers, Hampton; J. Leeming Murphy, Millvale; Theodore Ellis, Donaldson; John R. Munn, Marshfield; Charles H. Chandler, Charlottetown; G. Frank Hutchison, Charlottetown; James McKenna, Mermaid; John A. MacDonald, Southport.

In his address to the Grand Jury Mr. Justice Hazard said his duty in charging them was a pleasant one, there being not a single criminal case on the docket. Where there are no criminal cases on the docket it is open to the Grand Jury to bring up any matter which may be investigated. If any Grand Juror has any information or knowledge of any crime it is his duty to make known the fact to the attorney general. The only special duties they would have to perform was the inspection of the jail, asylum and poorhouse. It was their duty to go through those places and report how they found conditions. He referred to the tuberculosis sanatorium and they being representative men of the county it was not necessary for him to say much. There was no institution that was more needed than one of this kind. He deplored the number of cases of tuberculosis in the province. This institution will be for the whole province and he hoped the Grand Jury would have a good word for the move.

The Grand Jury returned to visit the institution named above. An absent debtor case was then called.

The case of William J. McEachern vs. Chas. I. Anderson, an absent debtor case, was then disposed of.

In the case of Harry H. Cox vs. Alex. Baker, action on promissory note, judgment of $315.52 was given the plaintiff by consent. Johnston K. C. for plaintiff, MacDonald for defendant.

Grand Jury Report
The Grand Jury returned and submitted the following report:
June 25, 1929, to the Hon. John Alexander Mathieson Chief Justice and his associate Judges:
May it please your Lordships:
We, the undersigned appointed Grand Jurors for the present term of the Supreme Court of Queens County, Prince Edward Island, beg leave to report as follows:
We are pleased to note there are no criminal cases this term. We have visited the Falconwood Hospital and the Provincial Infirmary and the Red House, and found everything in a most satisfactory condition, except as regards fire protection. More hydrants should be installed with necessary hose and more fire escapes.

The inmates number as follows:
Hospital, 142 men, 116 women.
Red House 14 women.
Infirmary, 48 men, 48 women.
Total, 190 men, 178 women.
This is a smaller number than last year by 23.

We visited the Queen's County Jail and found the building well kept, but poorly ventilated. There were 19 prisoners for the following offenses:
Prohibition, 12.
Vagrancy, 3.
Drunkennes, 1.
Theft, 2.
Indecent exposure, 1.

We recommend a fence to surround the Jail to prevent the public from communications with the prisoners. The Court House building is in need of cleaning and repairs. There is shortage of fire proof, vault room where documents could be properly filed and stored.

We view with alarm the increasing recklessness of some motorists who drive at an excessive rate of speed, particularly through villages and past schools and at cross roads. We note that the Order of Council of Aug. 8, 1922, regarding the running of automobiles on Victoria Park is being daily violated and recommend that it be strictly enforced.

There seems to be a lack of standardization in the weights of leaves of bread sold in Queens County. A uniform rate of loaf should be established.

We are especially pleased to know that very soon a Sanatorium will be available for those suffering from tuberculosis. We hope that the disease may eventually be wiped out. In connection with this campaign we commend the work of eliminating bovine tuberculosis from our herds of milch cows.

For self and fellows,
ALFRED A. DEWAR,
Foreman

The case of Jones vs. A. Horne & Co., will be heard this morning, when a special jury will be empanelled to hear the evidence. The action in this case arises out of the operation of a motor truck by an alleged employee of the firm of A. Horne & Company. It is claimed that in passing through Market Street, between the Post Office and the Market Building, the defendants' vehicle struck Mr. Jones, knocking him down; and for injuries received the plaintiff claims damages. The plaintiff's contention is that the motor truck was not in proper working order, that its brakes were not working, etc. The defendant's plea is that they are not liable for damages in the circumstances. It is understood that the special jury to be empanelled will be composed of motor car drivers having experience in the technical questions likely to come up.

The Court meets this morning at 11 a. m.

BIG LOSS IN POTATO CROP

PRESQUE ISLE, Me., June 25—With the marketing of the 1928 Aroostook potato crop practically over, estimates are that the loss to the growers of the county will figure around $10,000,000. A very large proportion of the crop was sold at prices below the cost of production and there was practically no market at all for anything but the highest grade stock and best seed. This was due to the heavy production all over the country with a big acreage and full yield and the flooding of the market from every potato growing region.

SUMMERSIDE, June 25—The annual meeting of the East Prince Liberal Conservative Assn. was held in the Town Hall, Summerside at 2 p. m. C., acted as secretary.

The President, in his annual address referred to the visit of the Hon. R. B. Bennett to Prince County last summer and advocated the formation of Women's Conservative Clubs and Young Men's Clubs in the riding, and outlined the duties that should be carried out by the chairman of each poll in organization work. He gave due credit to the Hon. J. A. McDonald, M. P. for King's for having placed the vote for the second car ferry in the estimates. He also referred to the efforts being made at the present time by the Conservative party to bring about protection of the home market for the farmers of Canada. He further stated that the Conservative party were taking no part in the coming plebiscite and each member of the party was quite free to vote as his own conscience dictated.

The former officers of the Association were on motion re-elected en bloc as follows:

President—Mr. D. B. McDonald, North Bedouin.
