 OF LOVE

Passionate, pulsating, powerful! A love drama with vibrant Vilma a radiant, innocent peasant girl. Her life empty, tame — until there came an officer, a lieutenant of hearts, a love expert. To her it was life, love, happiness; to him, a game.

DISTRICT CONVENTION

The second annual District Convention of Springfield, Norboro, Kelvin, Graham's Road and Emerald, was held in Springfield Hall on Monday, Aug. 26th. The afternoon session at 2.30 opened with the Institute Ode. President, Mrs. Bertha Walker, in the chair. The address of welcome which was given by Miss Lillian Matheson, Springfield, was responded to by Miss Mary Walker, Kelvin. The minutes of the last District Convention were read and adopted. A report of the year's work in each Institute was then read as follows: Norboro by Mrs. George Bowness; Springfield, by Miss Lillian Matheson; Kelvin, by Mrs. Mabon Stavert; Graham's Rd., by Mrs. James M. Campbell; Emerald, by Mrs. Watson Fyfe.

A very helpful talk on Institute work was then given by the Supervisor, Miss Schurman. An instructive report of the Biennial Convention held in Saskatoon in June, 1929, was given by Miss Lulu Yeo, and was greatly enjoyed by all present. Followed by Mrs. Robert Bowness was followed by instrumental music by Mrs. Peter Sinclair and reading by Mrs. James Somers. A very interesting and entertaining talk was then given by Miss Caroline Campbell, dealing with sanatorium work and the double-barred Tuberculosis Cross. A vote of thanks to the speakers of the afternoon was moved by Mrs. Hugh Stewart, seconded by Mrs. M. T. Lambie and was tendered to them by the President. A very pleasing demonstration on cold drinks was given by Miss McPhail.

The following officers were then elected: President, Mrs. Bertha Walker; secretary, Mrs. Hyatt Haslam. There being no further business the meeting adjourned until 8 o'clock. Evening Session.

The evening session opened with singing of O Canada, followed by community singing. The following was the program: Dialogue, by three children; ten-minute speech on "Canada among the Nations," by Miss Margaret Lambie; instrumental music by Graham's Road members; solo, by Mrs. Harold Leard; duet by Misses Dorothy and Pauline Cruwys; instrumental music by Graham's Road members. The speakers of the evening were Dr. Creelman, Mr. C. M. Williams and Col. Full, who were very enthusiastic in sanatorium work and stressed the great need of such an institution on Prince Edward Island. A very interesting discussion then took place which showed the people how this institution would be maintained and financed. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the

In Memoriam
MRS. CATHERINE BOYVER
 Many citizens heard with regret of the death of Mrs. Catherine Boyver who passed away on Tuesday after an illness of only one day.
 The late Mrs. Boyver was enjoying the best of health and on the day previous to being taken ill, Sunday enjoyed a motor drive to the country with the members of her family. On Monday she was taken seriously ill and despite the best medical attention passed away on the following day.
 Although of a somewhat retiring disposition, the deceased by her kindly manner made many friends, as was testified by the numerous floral offerings which were banked about the remains.
 The late Mrs. Boyver was a faithful and consistent member of the Baptist church and although not taking an active part always took a great interest in all church affairs.
 She leaves to mourn the following sons and daughters: Elmer, accountant of the C. N. R. City, Ira now residing at the Pas; Mr. (Dr.) Pickard, Winnipeg, and Mrs. Bruce Huggan, Mrs. H. L. Bethune, the Misses Vergie and Blanche all of this city. Her husband predeceased her in 1909.
 The funeral was held yesterday at
