

IMPORTANT READING MATTER SELECTED FROM THIS WEEK'S NEWS FOR THE GUARDIAN'S SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY. Very Rev. F. C. Kelly, D. D., President of the Catholic Church Extension Society, arrived on the Cedric, which reached New York on Saturday of last week. He has been to Rome on the business of the Society and we are glad to hear that his representations have been accorded a favorable hearing by the Vatican authorities. Dr. Kelly is a wide-awake, forceful and aggressive leader, and the interests of Extension are safe in his hands.—Catholic Register. (Dr. Kelly is a brother of Joseph A. Kelly of the P. E. I. R., Charlottetown.)

A despatch from Vancouver, B. C., says that C. Plummer Hill, General Manager of the coal mine at Hillcrest, Alberta, wired Premier Borden that he had just been through the Crow's Nest Pass, and the conditions were appalling. He asked the Premier to arrange some sort of a scheme by which the miners should be allowed to work and the trouble should be adjusted later. Mr. Hill blames the labor agitators from Indianapolis. He says that even if the miners now resume it will be impossible to supply the demand for coal. (Mr. Hill is well known in Charlottetown, his wife being a daughter of the late T. A. McLean.)

In his recent sermon at the laying of the corner-stone of the new St. Ignace's Church, Winnipeg, Man., Father James M. Reardon, editor of the St. Paul Catholic Bulletin, struck a high note. He showed clearly the limitations of human reason when it approaches the investigation of Divine Revelation, and the Supreme gift of religion for human regeneration. Father Reardon is one of the most forceful and scholarly pulpit-orators in America today, and his Winnipeg sermon will long be remembered by those who were privileged to hear it on the occasion of the corner-stone laying.—Catholic Register. (Father Reardon is a native of Charlottetown.)

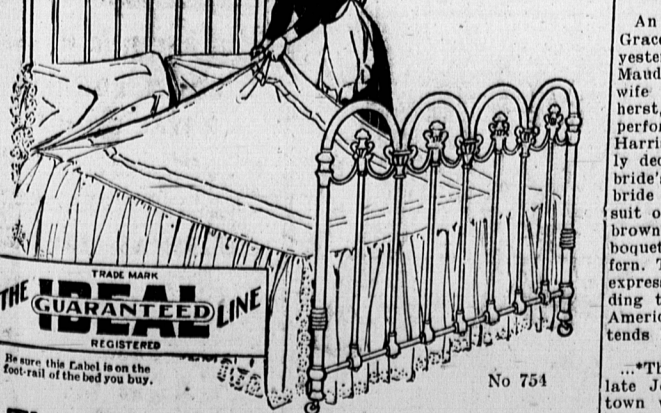

TUESDAY. Mrs. John Lea, of Paris Street, received on Friday and Saturday for the first time since her marriage in June. Mrs. Lea received her guests in her handsome wedding gown of white satin. Mrs. Clark, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Paul Lea, mother of the groom, assisted in the wedding. Mrs. M. C. Siddall, aunt of the bride, poured tea, and Miss Ethel Ryan and Miss Kitty Humphrey, of Moncton, Miss Charlotte Chapman of Chicago, and Miss Constance Milner served. Miss Marion Lea ushered.—Sackville Exc. Mr. Lea has many relatives in this Province.

One of the oldest men in Prince Edward Island passed away Sunday at Johnston's River in the person of Patrick McDonald, aged 99 years. His death took place at the home of his son Michael. He was a native of Dublin, Ireland, and is survived by his two sons, Michael and Patrick, the latter residing at Bangor, and four daughters, Mrs. Cornac McManus, Dorchester, Mass.; Mrs. John O'Hara, Roxbury, Mass.; Mrs. A. Doucette and Mrs. James Egan, Charlottetown. The funeral takes place this Tuesday, morning to Fort Augustus Church where a Requiem Mass will be sung by the parish priest, Rev. Allan Macdonald, after which the remains will be laid to rest in Fort Augustus Cemetery.

J. Alex Boyver formerly of Bunnbury, Lot 48, but now of San Francisco, who with his daughter Mrs. Boyver Smith, has been in the Province since July visiting his many friends in Charlottetown, Lot 48, Cavendish, New Glasgow, Montague and other places on the Island, expects to return to his adopted home about the 17th inst. He expects to join his daughter, who is at present in Boston visiting friends, and travel homewards visiting New York, Washington and New Orleans en route. Mrs. William Miller, Mr. Boyver's eldest sister, will accompany them to the "land of flowers" where she may remain during the winter, after which she will visit her sister Mrs. Henry McGregor and family, who are expected to make Vancouver, B. C., their home in the near future. Mr. Boyver made his home while in the city, with the family of his late brother William W. Boyver of 32 Elm Ave.

"The will of heaven our will shall be, We bow to the Divine decree, To God's behest."

Such is the prayer of a resigned and self-sacrificing mother, a sorrowing sister, Mrs. I. E. Ellis, and eight heart-sick brothers—Frank, John, Hugh, Thomas, Joseph, Peter, Wilbert and Raymond.

RASH 'SO BAD BABY CAME NEAR DYING

Head Broke Out. Spread to Arms, Legs and Entire Body. Itched So He Would Scratch Until Blood Ran. One Box of Cuticura Ointment and Nearly One Cake of Cuticura Soap Cured Him. Has Had No Return.

"When my boy was about three months old, his head broke out with a rash which was very itchy and ran a watery fluid. We tried everything we could but he got worse all the time. I tried to spread it with my arms, legs and then to his entire body. He got so bad that he came near dying. The rash would scratch till he would scratch till the blood ran, and a thin yellowish stuff would be all over his pillow in the morning. I had to put mittens on his hands to prevent him tearing his skin. He was so weak and ran down that he took fainting spells as if he were dying. He was almost a skeleton and his little hands were thin like claws. "He was bad about eight months when we tried Cuticura Remedies. I had not laid him down in his cradle in the daytime for a long while. I washed him with Cuticura Soap and put on one application of Cuticura Ointment. He was so soothed that he could sleep. You don't know how glad I was to feel better. I took one box of Cuticura Ointment and pretty near one cake of Cuticura Soap to cure him. I think our boy would have died but for the Cuticura Remedies and I shall always remain a firm friend of them. He was cured more than twenty years ago, and there has been no return of the trouble. I shall be glad to have you publish this true statement of his cure." (Signed) Mrs. M. C. Maitland, Jasper, Ontario, May 27, 1910. For more than a generation mothers have found a speedy, agreeable and economical treatment for their skin-tormented little ones in Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Although they are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere a liberal sample of each may be obtained free from the Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., sole props., 53 Columbus Ave., Boston, U.S.A.

family sorrowful but happy, from her Sisters in St. Paul, who knew and loved her well, from a host of friends and relatives in this her Island home, goes up the fervent prayer: "Requiescat in pace."

After a somewhat lingering illness death came on Sunday the first inst. to Aeneas McClusky, son of Patrick McClusky, Mills Bonwell, in the 23rd year of his age. About six months ago he complained of a lame leg at which time he went to the City Hospital, Charlottetown for treatment. Here he remained, suffering intensely though very patiently, for three months, when he removed to his sisters, Mrs. Anni Monaghan, North Wiltshire. He was doing nicely for a time. But unexpected complications set in and he died as a result. The deceased, up to six months ago, was a very strong, hardworking and industrious young man. Of a kindly disposition, he was always ready to assist a neighbor when it came within his power and consequently all who knew him esteemed and admired him in life and now deeply deplore his death. He had many amiable qualities and was a faithful attendant at his parish church, St. Anne's, the pastor of which administered to him the last rites. His funeral took place from his father's residence on Tuesday the third inst. to St. Anne's Church, Lot 65 and was largely attended. Rev. Dr. Curran sung the Mass of requiem for the repose of his soul. He is survived by a father, two brothers and four sisters who have the sympathy of all in their sad bereavement. The pall bearers were—Aeneas Clarkin, Michael McCaffrey, Wm. Keegan, Wilfrid Bradley, James E. Coaly and Michael Clarkin. May he rest in peace. "Not dead but gone before. How long before us, who can tell? May we, like Thee, in thought adore. In every action serve Him well, For eye hath not seen, now Mortal known. The peace God giveth to His own," THURSDAY.

W. T. Huggan, city, went to Sea View yesterday morning to attend the funeral of the late Lorne Campbell, who died at his home there on Monday from typhoid fever. He was a son of the late Honorable William Campbell and was a splendid young man whose death is deeply deplored. He was only thirty years of age. He is survived by two brothers, James and William in British Columbia and a half-brother Hugh; and one sister, Mrs. James S. Cousins of Park Corner, all of whom have the sympathy of the community in their sorrow.

An interesting event took place in Grace Church at seven o'clock yesterday morning, when Miss Maud S. James became the wife of Harry Biden, of Amherst, N. S. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. Wm. Harrison. The church was very prettily decorated for the occasion by the bride's numerous girl friends. The bride was attired in a trailing suit of navy blue and wore a golden brown hat. She carried a beautiful bouquet of roses and maiden hair fern. The happy couple left on the express yesterday morning on a wedding trip to New York and other American cities. The Guardian extends heartiest congratulations.

"The regrettable death of the late John A. McDonald of Georgetown which occurred last Friday is much deplored. At noon his lifeless body was found suspended from one of the beams in a warehouse used as a boat-house on Water Street, near the railway station. It was noticed that for the past few days he had been acting rather strangely and it is thought that while his mind was thus temporarily affected, the deplorable occurrence took place. Mr. McDonald was at one time telegraph operator in Montague but for many years he has resided at Georgetown where he generally followed the sea, being engaged in fishing. In recent years he has had charge of the launch used in connection with A. A. McDonald Bros. lobster factories, at Amnure Island. He was a kind-hearted, genial man, a good neighbor, and devoted to his home and and two daughters, who will have people in their great burden of sorrow the deep sympathy of the towns- row.

The death occurred at Stanhope at an early hour on the morning of Sept. 20, 1911 of Isabella Percival, dearly beloved wife of George Alexander. She was born in Charlottetown, February 1834, and was a daughter of the late Robert Percival. She had been ailing for two years, during which her sufferings were very intense at times and especially during the latter part of her illness. She entered the Prince Edward Island Hospital twice where all that was possible was done by medical skill and kind nurses. She leaves six children to mourn namely: Rev. R. P. Alexander, N. A. of Aoyana, Japan; Dr. W. W. Alexander, Lachute, Quebec; Rev. G. H. Alexander of Michigan, Miss Hiro-ski, Japan; Mrs. Wm. Mellett, Wetaskiwin, Alta. and Mrs. Charles Hughes, Cozehead. Mrs. Alexander was a true Christian lady and during her life was fond of quoting the Scriptures that sustained her and gave her strong faith. It can truly be said that her family grew up to call her blessed.—Com.

FRIDAY. "A. J. McDonald, Souris, has been on a visit to the South. Mr. McDonald went with his brother Capt. Joseph A. McDonald master of the S. S. Lyra. They left New York on Oct. 4th for Trinidad and had a very rough passage. On arriving there Capt. McDonald was ordered to Mexico and owing to the length of time the trip would take his brother preferred to return by mail boat to New York and arrived there on the 11th after a quick trip. While in Boston Mr. McDonald had the pleasure of watching the Columbus Day parade last week and to form some idea of its length it might be mentioned that there were over thirty thousand persons in it, over one hundred bands and it took four hours and ten minutes for it to pass Tremont Street viewing stand. There is no truth in the statement which appeared in the Guardian to the effect that Mr. McDonald was to be married while in New York.

On Sunday, Oct. 1st, 1911, there passed away at South Kildare district, Alberton, Mrs. Alexander Clark, at the advanced age of 82 years. The early part of her life was spent at "Huntly" in the home of the late John Gordon, father of the missionaries to Erromanga and no doubt her great interest in missions was due to her years passed in that home. Mrs. Clark had more than the ordinary number of friends in the settlement to which she belonged, and her cheery presence will be greatly missed in the homes, where she was always a welcome guest. An aged husband, one daughter and six sons survive her. (Pioneer please copy.)

The government steamer Minto arrived yesterday after three months buffeting with the busy weather of the far north. The Minto went to Fort Churchill and Nelson River, and on the way through Fox Strait had a bad hole made in her bow by the ice. The damage had to be repaired from the weather in Hudson Bay was more open than usual, but was equally and uncomfortable all the time the steamer was there. The Minto left Halifax on July 12th and was preceded by the schooner Christie G. Thomey. The latter is on her way to Halifax. The steamer Eric, of Newfoundland, took a cargo of coal to the Bay for the Minto. On the way home the Minto visited Baffin's Land, where the missionaries were reported starving. They found the report to be incorrect. Sgt-Major Haytor, of the Canadian Mounted Police, who has been at Fort Churchill for the past two years, returned on the Minto. He served with distinction in the South African war and was promoted. On arrival here he was informed that he had been granted two months' leave of absence and consequently will proceed to his old home in England to visit his friends. Captain McPherson and all on board the Minto are in good health. Capt. Anderson, of Ottawa, who went to the Bay in the interests of the government, also re-

Chews the Way to Health. What are you doing to give your children sound and healthy teeth? Out of 11,374 children inspected by the Medical Inspector in the schools of Toronto nearly 3,000 cases of physical defects were found. Of these 2,027 were credited to decayed and imperfectly formed teeth. Sound teeth and good bones come from thoroughly chewing a food that is rich in the phosphates. You can't build them with mushy porridges, soggy pastries or sweetmeats. Shredded Whole Wheat contains all the necessary phosphates in a digestible form. You HAVE to chew

SHREDDED WHEAT. The crispness of the shreds compels thorough chewing and a thorough mixing with saliva, which is the first process in digestion. Shredded Wheat Biscuit every morning for breakfast, served with milk or cream, will build sturdy, robust youngsters and is a preventive of stomach and bowel disorders so common to children. Being ready-cooked and ready-to-serve it is so easy to prepare a nourishing meal with it in combination with fresh or preserved fruits—a meal that is deliciously satisfying to grown-ups as well as youngsters. Your grocer sells it.
