STRONG AND VIGOROUS.

Every Organ of the Body Toned up and invigorated by

Mr. F. W. Meyers, King St. E., Berlin, Ont., says: "I suffered for five years with palpitation, shortness of breath, sleeplessness and pain in the heart, but one box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills completely removed all these distressing symptoms. I have not suffered since taking them, and now sleep well and feel strong and vigorous."
Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills cure all diseases arising from weak heart, worn out nerve tissues, or watery blood.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON.

DECEMBER 9.
BARTIMEUS HEALED.
Mark 10. 46-52. Memory verses, 50-52. GGLDEN TEXT.
Lord, that I might receive my sight.—Mark. 10. 51.

OUTLINE.
1. Seeking a Saviour, v. 46-48.
2. Saved by faith, v. 49-52.
Time.—Near the end of March' A.D. 30.
Place.—Near to Jericho.

LESSON HELPS.
46. "They came to Jericho"—Jesus was now making his last journey to Jerusalem. "Blind Bartimeus"—"Blindness is especially frequent in the East."
47. "When he heard it was Jesus of Nazareth"—According to Luke, the blind man himself heard the disturbance and asked the cause; in answer to which inquiry the multitude told him of the passing of Jesus. "He began to cry out"—Immediately. But what if he had remained silent? (1) What destinies turn on a cry! "Thou son of David"—Though modern commentators have differed as to the genealogy of Jesus, this son of Timeus with his companions, confessed the pedigree of Christ.—Whedon. The descendant of the son of Jesse stood before Bartimeus in the person of the Son of a man. "Have mercy on me"—It would be a small thing for Jesus to put his fingers on his eyes and make him see. (2) He is greater than our uttermost requests.
48. "Charged him that he should hold his peace"—It was an offence against decorum for a wayside beggar to salute the passing Rabbi. "He cried the more"—He cared more for eyesight than for decorum. (3) It is such importunity as this that wins the blessing.
49. "Jesus stood still"—The world's Sacrifice on his way to the cross had time to stop and give sight to a ragged beggar "Commanded him"—Nor could they disobey Christ's command. "Be of good comfort"—And he surely was. All the pulses of his soul leaped for joy.
50. "Casting away his garment"—His outer robe, that hindered his rapid movement. "Came to Jesus"—The literal suggests the figurative. (4) Have you so come for sight?
51. "What wilt thou"—Not that Christ was ignorant, but that he might test their faith. "Lord"—In reverence. "That I might receive my sight"—How many years since he has seen? Has he ever seen?
52. "Thy faith hath made the whole"—It was an evangelical and earnest faith. "Immediately he received his sight"—Matthew says that Christ touched his eyes. Compare this cure with the healing of other blind men. "Followed Jesus"—"In affectionate disobedience" to Christ's command. Who can say that he did not bear the cross and suffer martyrdom for Christ (5) Soul-sight is the world's greatest need. And Jesus of Nazareth still passes by.

It Hurt To Eat.

The pain, nausea and distress that Dyspeptics suffer after every meal can all be permanently removed by Burdock Blood Bitters.

It tones up and restores the stomach to normal condition so that it digests food without causing discomfort.

Here's proof positive:
Miss Maggie Splude, Dalhousie, N.B., wrote the following: "I have been a sufferer from Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia for the past two years and felt very miserable. I could not take much food as it hurt me to eat. My friends said, 'Why don't you try B.B.B.' I did so, using two bottles, which made such a complete cure that I can now eat anything I like without it causing me discomfort."

THE SCOTTISH CANADIAN MINING COMPANY of London, Canada.

Are You Satisfied With 3 per cent?

If not you must do as others have done—
get out of the old rut and shew your faith in something outside a chartered Bank!
Nature has filled British Columbia so full of Mineral that it runs over in many places, and all that is necessary to get it out is—Money!

There are properties now working where only sufficient money was first started, and which are now turning out ore in fabulous quantities. As a rule, the precious metals have to be sought for earnestly, and much time and labor expended in the getting of them. Very few men are rich enough to run a mine alone—co-operation is necessary. Union is strength! A number of men get together and form a company to acquire and operate a certain property. Those who get in earliest get the lowest price stock and the most risk. As the price advances the risk lessens (or should!) until at length the mine pays dividends. For instance Le Roi (Rossland) were some few years ago offered here in the east at 5 and 10 cents per share, and they were hard to sell at that. Now they are quoted at £8:10:0 ($42.50) each in England and the last dividend was $1.25 per share. At the same time the person buying low took all the risk of the property paying, or of losing his or her money. In this instance $50.00 worth of stock is now worth $42500.00 and the last dividend amounts $1,250.00 on 1,000 shares. A little over a year ago a property was offered some men in London, Ontario, who carefully investigated it merits and, when satisfied, took it up, formed a company and started in to develop it. The company is the "Scottish-Canadian Mining and Development Co., of British Columbia, Limited," and the property "The Rob Roy Mines." The first shot was exploded Aug. 1st, 1899, and to-day the company have 330 feet of rock tunnel driven and have built cabins, trails, mine works, etc., have surveyed the property preparatory to Crown Granting, and have shipping ore, as the Upper Level is now producing. All this is less than one year from time of starting.

Full particulars with reports, assays, etc., cheerfully given on application to
