Manitoba Farmers Preparing for Election

(Special to The Guardian)
WINNIPEG, June 25.—Evidence that farmers in Manitoba are making active preparation to contest every federal seat at the next election has been brought to light by the announcement that several of the constituencies are planning to hold nominating conventions soon.

Viscount Grey Stresses U. S. Influence

(Special to The Guardian)
LONDON, June 25.—"Influence of the United States must be very great and very likely decisive in a world crisis," said Viscount Grey in a statement on the League of Nations. "We shall welcome that influence in whatever way the United States decides to exercise it, but we cannot scrap the League."

Daring Highway Robbery in Quebec

MONTREAL, June 24.—A daring highway robbery occurred today when L. A. Parent, manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce at Chambly Basin, Quebec, was held up by three masked men on the road between Chambly Basin and Chambly Canton, and a bag containing $1,500 in currency stolen. According to the report made to police, Mr. Parent was taking the money to another branch of the bank at Chambly Canton.

ONLY A SPARE TIME PROPOSITION

The competition is open to everyone, and everyone has an opportunity to be a good prize winner. It is NOT necessary that a candidate devote all their time to the competition. Figure it out, and you will find that two hours a day spent right and with voluntary assistance that would be given you by your friends, subscriptions and points will count up very quickly. The start in anything is always the main factor, which is very often the hard part of it. After a candidate has spent two or three days writing his or her friends and doing a little soliciting, he or she will find the work much easier and Ten Per Cent Cash Commission Prizes to All Non-Winners of Regular Prizes—Competition Open to All—Start at Once.

The announcement in Saturday's issue of the Canadian's big Automobile prize competition created something akin to a sensation in Charlottetown and district. Several inquiries were made Saturday for information regarding the Big Free Distribution of Autos and other costly prizes, and how to enter the competition.
more interesting, and some of your friends will begin to work for you, and the points will pile up in a very short time. In a recent competition the party who won the first prize was engaged in a General Store, and never lost a day from her work in the store. In another competition the party who won the first Grand Prize was a school teacher in Colchester County, N. S., and the second Grand Prize was won by a young married lady who thought when she started in the competition that she might as well put her time to some advantage. This young lady turned her spare time into real cash. The same thing applies to everyone. The party who has little or nothing to do with always the big prize winner. It does not cost one cent to enter. It costs only a few minutes of your time, and every active candidate is guaranteed at least 10 per cent commission on all money turned in by them or left to their credit at The Guardian office. Early entry spells success. Send in your name today and be one of the real prize winners.

ELEGANT AUTOS HEAD LIST

The feature that caused the greatest comment was the quality of the Free Automobiles offered. It is now every day a GRAY-DORT SPECIAL TOURING CAR with a cash value of $1,640, and a CHEVROLET TOURING CAR is given away absolutely free.
Everyone who earnestly makes an effort in the big competition will be paid for his or her efforts. Cash commission prizes will be awarded in the competition to all candidates who continue actively to the end and fail to win one of the regular prizes. Everybody in the Guardian's Big Auto Prize Competition will be a prize winner, so you should send in your name at once and get started right away for one of the big cars or one of the other valuable prizes. Don't put off entering. Right now is the time as most points are given during the first period of the Competition.

RECEIPT BOOKS READY

The Guardian has printed a number of receipt books for the use of the candidates and their friends. These receipt books will be mailed out as fast as nominations are received, and will be delivered to those who call at the Competition Office for them. The system of accounts that will be used during the competition demands that the receipt books be used by all candidates. They have been prepared in a simple and distributive manner, the objective of the Labor Party of the Commonwealth.

NOMINATE THE GRAND PRIZE WINNERS AND WIN $50.00 IN CASH

To the person who introduces the name or sends in by nomination the names of the candidates who win either of the first two grand prizes in the big competition, The Charlottetown Guardian will award $25.00 in a cash prize for each of the first two grand prize winners, provided you are the first to send in the names of both these winners. If you are the first to send in both cash prizes, amounting to $50.00. Fill out the Nomination Blank printed below and mail it in to us at once with your favorite candidate's name on it. You understand, of course, you are privileged to nominate any person that you wish to see win one of the Big Touring Cars, or one of the other big prizes. Send in your favorite candidate's name now.

United Farmers Trying to Straddle Political Fence

(Special to The Guardian)
MEDICINE HAT, Alta., June 25.—Speaking here last night in the interests of Col. Spencer, Government Candidate in the by election for the Medicine Hat constituency, H. H. Stevens, M. P., for Vancouver, dealt with a number of plans put forward by the farmer candidate Robert Gardner. Mr. Stevens said the farmers professed to be sympathetic with labor effort for high wages but they advocated writing out the tariff. The result of this he said would be to flood Canada with goods produced by cheap Oriental labor and with goods from Germany and other countries which sell at low prices because of the exchange situation.

(Special to The Guardian)
CALGARY, Alta., June 25.—George L. Dyer, said to be a millionaire from New York, suicided by shooting at the sanitarium at Banff summer resort today. Very little is known of him here. He was 52 years old and had $7.00 in his pocket when he took his life.

Canadian Coal for France

(Special to The Guardian)
LONDON, June 24.—Ten steamers have delivered cargoes of Canadian coal at Cherbourg, France, according to a correspondent of the Times.
This coal, the correspondent says is being used to bunker ships which are unable to obtain fuel in British ports, owing to the mine strike.
A cable to the Times reports that the Australian Labor Congress has voted almost unanimously to make Socialization of industry, including exchange as well as the production and distributive processes, the objective of the Labor Party of the Commonwealth.

Labor Officers Not Yet Elected

(Special to The Guardian)
DENVER, Colo., June 24.—Election of officers this afternoon was postponed today by the American Federation of Labor. Officials ruled that in accordance with the constitution the election must be before the matter of business to come before the convention. The election will be held tomorrow night or early next week.

Death of Mr. L. J. Reddin

After a lingering illness, Mr. Louis J. Reddin passed peacefully to his eternal rest, at his home in Brighton on Saturday evening at 11 p. m. Mr. Reddin was the son of the late James Reddin and Louisa Anne Matthews was born in Charlottetown May 28th, 1855. He conducted a successful dry goods business here, first associated with Edward Chandler. On the latter retiring Mr. Reddin continued the business until three years ago when he retired to private life, owing to ill health. A year ago he underwent a serious operation in Montreal which was apparently successful. Three months ago he again became ill, complications arising which ended fatally. Mr. Reddin was well and favorably known both in town and country, and leaves behind him the record of a well spent life. He leaves to mourn his widow, who was Miss Beatrice Dickson of Truro, N. S., four daughters, Louisa, and four young sons, James, William, Frederick and John; four sisters the Misses Gertrude and Ellie of Niagara, Mrs. D. H. Pettis, Toronto and Mrs. W. H. King, Roxbury, Mass., and one brother, Arthur W., druggist, Niagara Falls, who arrived home Thursday night in response to a telegram. Funeral will be held from the family residence, Admiral Street, Brighton, Cortège leaves the house at 9.30 p. m. for St. Dunstan's Cathedral and thence to the Roman Catholic Cemetery, where his remains will be laid to rest in the family plot.
After illness of a few days, he sleeps well.

FRONTENAC COUNTY COUNCIL DEFIES ROAD POLICY OF ONTARIO GOVERNMENT

They Will Refuse to Accede to Request for Payment of Provincial Highways.

(Special to The Guardian)
KINGSTON, June 25.—The Frontenac County Council passed a resolution instructing the clerk to notify the Department of Highways that the Council refuses to accede to the request of the department for the payment of the Provincial highway through the county of Frontenac and that the Council will not pass a bye law providing for the issue of debentures for the amount asked. The Ontario dept. notified the Council that $86,290.73 was due on or before October first next for work done besides $14,000 was due for work on roads in 1919. The council claims that the work is too expensive and that it is nothing more than extravagance. The Frontenac Council is the first to issue defiance to the Ontario government, over its road policy.

Canadian Shoe Trade Stagnated

(Special to The Guardian)
LONDON, June 24.—A letter has been addressed by the general secretary of the national boot and shoe operatives' union here to its various branches calling attention to the serious stagnation of the boot trade in Canada. Shoe operatives affected by the slackness of trade in this country are warned against emigrating to Canada in the hope of finding improved conditions there.
Boots and shoes of fashionable lasts and first class quality can now be bought here for 20 shillings or less than six dollars.
