

TOMORROW is Forever

by Gwen Bristow

"You almost frighten me, Mr. Kessler! Elizabeth exclaimed. "Because that means, doesn't it, that it's up to the older generation to provide for them?"

Hunter River Red Cross Society

The annual meeting of the Hunter River Red Cross Society met at the home of Mrs. Murdoch Cutcliffe on November 17th with Mrs. J. R. Murchison, President, in the chair.

After the minutes of the last annual and regular meetings had been read and approved, the President gave the following splendid report of the past year's activities.

Again we are at the end of another year's work of our local branch of the Red Cross, of which there are 2,602 branches of this Society in Canada.

Excessive Worry Saps the Nervous System

Worry over business or household duties, sudden shock, distressing news, the foolish attempt to put a week of normal life into 24 hours all put a strain on the nervous system.

British Post-War Shipping Plans Are Controversial

By John Dauphinee

LONDON, Nov. 15 — (CP) — The adequacy of government planning to restore Britain's shipping industry to its pre-war eminence is a subject of stiff controversy but commendation for three phases of the program is unanimous—modernizing shipyards, training young men for merchant crews, and bettering working conditions for seamen.

Expects King To Call Election

By WINNIPEG, Nov. 16 — (CP) — C.P. McTague, National Progressive Conservative Party chairman, in an interview here last night, said he has personal opinion that Prime Minister King will call an election during the session of the House of Commons which starts Nov. 22.

KEEP ENGINES RUNNING

Responsible for keeping the "Cormack's" engines functioning smoothly during the vessel's recent five-month, 4,000-mile inspection voyage around the coast of Newfoundland were Sgt. Everett Nicholson, of Wiltshire, P. E. I., chief engineer (right), and LAC. Angus Montgomery, of St. Ann's, Cape Breton Island, second engineer, (left). Much of the success of the R. C. A. F.'s range boat's trip was due to these men, said the skipper, WO1 Fralick, upon the craft's return.
